

Franklinton

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Cooper of Richmond, Virginia visited Miss Eula Cooper during the weekend.

Mrs. Mary G. Todd of Wendell is visiting the Dr. Eakes' family.

Mr. A. B. Allen, Jr. is a patient at Wake Memorial Hospital in Raleigh.

Personally, we are not afraid we will be struck by lightning while attending church, especially in clear weather.

Teenage Chat

By Bettie Lavender

Friday night the Bulldogs of Bunn High School won both of their games. Congratulations! The Blue Devils of Gold Sand High School split their victory.

The Senior Class of Louisburg High School would like to thank all of you for your support this past Friday in regards to their supper. Now this class will be selling tickets to high school Juniors and Seniors for the Ember's dance at the College on November 22, 1966. Be sure to get your tickets from one of these students.

Beth Johnson and Mary McFarland spent the week-end in Raleigh and from what we hear they had a great time.

Don't forget the ballgames this Tuesday night. Epsom will play Zeb Vance at home. Gold Sand High will play Aycock away, Edward Best at home, Youngsville at Bailey and Bunn at Townsville.

THOUGHT: It is better to give than to receive.

Fish Fry

There will be a fish fry at the Ingleside-Moulton Community House Friday Night, November 18, 1966, from 5p.m. to 7p.m.

Brunstew will be on sale by the quart and there will also be a bake sale.

Louisburg PTA To Hear Mr. Mulholland

Mrs. M. M. Person, Jr., president, announced today that Mr. Vester M. Mulholland, Director of the Division of Educational Research, State Department of Public Instruction, will be the featured speaker for the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Louisburg High School, Tuesday night, November 17th, at 7:30 P.M. The meeting will be held in the auditorium.

Mr. Mulholland will speak on the subject of "Recent Trends in Education".

At present, his chief work is the writing of a detailed history of all divisions and services in the State Department of Public Instruction.

For the benefit of those might have a conflict with the Concert at Louisburg College, Mr. Mulholland will speak at the beginning of the program.

Garden Club Plants Bulbs

The monthly meeting of the Perennial High School Gardeners was held Thursday, November 10, at the home of their counselor, Mrs. Marvin Pleasants.

On arriving members were served ice drinks, roasted nuts and assorted cookies. Mrs. John Mills, President of the Louisburg Garden Club, gave the program for the afternoon on crocus bulb planting. Mrs. Mills told the members to plant the bulbs three inches deep and five inches apart for a splashy show in the spring.

Members of the Club went to the Franklin County Welfare Building and planted crocus bulbs along the Walkway. There will be one hundred bulbs to peep through next spring.

Marilyn Stewart was made chairman to decide what the Gardeners would represent in the Louisburg Christmas Parade to be held December second.

Thanks

I wish to thank my friends for the flowers, cards and visits during my stay in Maria Parham Hospital in Henderson.

Mrs. Henry Goswick

Presents Derek And Ray Concert

The Louisburg College Concert Series opens here November 17 in the College Auditorium at 8:00 o'clock with the new piano team of Derek and Ray performing in the Ferrante and Teicher style.

The Derek part of Derek and Ray is Derek Smith from London, who has been in the United States about seven years. His background includes having played professionally with many English bands and working in the States with such orchestras as Art Mooney, Benny Goodman, Don Elliot, and Ralph Terry. He has been featured on several recordings as a solo pianist.

Actually the partnership began as an accident. Derek Smith was auditioning for Marty Gold, A & R man for RCA-Victor, when a young fellow from Brooklyn arrived early for his own audition. Shortly thereafter Victor promptly recorded them playing The Sound of Music and other Richard Rodgers hits. Ray is actually Raymond Cohen from Brooklyn. He first started playing the piano when he was three years old. As a youngster he began sitting in with jazz bands and then as a free lance pianist with the society bands of Meyer Davis and Emil Colegan. He was also rehearsal pianist for Van Johnson, Dorothy Sarnoff and Bill Hayes and later accompanied Robert Goulet on his recent concert tour.

The pops concert features Broadway hits, folk, standards, from around the world and a request spot. Admission is by advance series membership only.
