

The Carter Holmes Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Holmes celebrated their Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary with a reception at their home Sunday, December 25, from three until five o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams greeted guests at the door and directed them to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. W. H. Williams, the mother of Mrs. Holmes who was also celebrating her seventy-ninth birthday, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Walters of Pine Level.

Mrs. N. C. Bullock directed guests into the dining room which was beautifully decorated using a pink and white color scheme throughout the room. The table was covered with an imported cutwork table cloth over green taffeta. The centerpiece was a silver candelabra featuring pink tapers and surrounded with pink carnations and white chrysanthemums and surrounded with pink and white flowers in crystal espernettes. An arrangement of pink carnations and white chrysanthemums on the piano completed the dining room decorations.

Mrs. O'Dayne Mullen, Mrs. Sylvia Flowers, Miss Dianne Williams, Miss Cynthia Mullen, and Miss Connie Williams served ham biscuits, chicken salad in pastry shells, nuts, mints, cheese straws, and cake squares. Mrs. Warren White of Tarboro presided over the punch bowl which was nestled among pink and white flowers.

Miss Connie Williams rendered appropriate music throughout the afternoon.

The guests were directed into the den by Mrs. Phil Brantley where Mrs. Capitola Alford, Mr. O'Dayne Mullen, and Mr. Phil Brantley presided. This part of the house was decorated with Christmas colors and decorations including tall red tapers, electric candles, poinsettias and Christmas ornaments. The many beautiful gifts were displayed in the den where guests were asked to sit and chat.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Brantley presided in the utility room where another table was arranged featuring Christmas confections composed of candies, fruit cake, cookies, nuts, stuffed dates, and fruits. Mr. and Mrs. Brantley said goodbye to the one hundred fifty guests who called during the afternoon.
