College Art News

An exhibition of watercolor, oil, and enamel paintings by Tran and Marilyn Gordley of the East Carolina School of Art will be on display in the Louisburg College Gallery through February 23. Most of these paintings seem to be abstract on first glance yet upon closer inspection many of the pictures reveal their origin in reality: landscapes, flowers, nudes, politicians and current events.
Metz Tranbarger (Tran) Gordley was born in Cedar Falls, Iowa in 1932. He received his B. F. A. degree from Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., M. F. A. from University of Oklahoma, Norman, Okla., doctoral study at Ohio State University and at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Tran has exhibited in National, Regional, State and local shows. He won 1st Prize in Watercolors in the 1966 1st Azalea Art Show in Kinston, North Carolina, 1st Prize in the North Carolina Print and Drawing Show-painting was selected for the Associated Artists of North Carolina Painting Show (Traveling Show for 1963, 1964, 1965). Tran has a painting in Watercolor

U. S. A. 1966 Traveling Show. Mr. Gordley has taught at East Carolina since 1959 to present time. He is Chairman of the Painting Department and Assistant Dean of the School of Art.

Marilyn F. M. Gordley received her B.F.A. degree from Washington University, M.F.A. from the University of Oklahoma and did additional work at Ohio State University. She has exhibited widely in the midwest and the south. Marilyn won 1st Prize in the 1964 Rocky Mount Art Show, a cash award in the 18th Irene Leach

Memorial Exhibition in Norfolk, Virginia, 1st Prize in the Spring Mills Competition, Lancaster, South Carolina and the 22nd American Drawing Biennial Traveling Award sponsored by the Smithsonian Institute.

Portraits of the late Governor Scott, Dr. Browning and Mr. Henry Belk were painted by Marilyn to be hung in the dormitories bearing their name at East Carolina.

This is Mrs. Gordley's fourth year on the staff at East Carolina as Assistant Professor teaching Painting and Drawing.
Gallery Hours - 10-1, 3-5 daily except Saturday.
Antique match boxes collected by William Robie are on display in the library through the month of February.

ALA To Meet

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Friday evening at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. W. M. Wynne on Allen Lane, Louisburg.
All members are urged to be present.

Thanks

I would like to say thank you to every one who helped me in any way during my recent illness. Special thanks to the entire staff at Franklin Memorial Hospital and the blood donors. Each one will always be remembered.
William H. Radford.

Youngsville Lions

Darlyne Cash Is Essay Winner

Darlyne Cash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Cash of Route 1, Louisburg, a 16-year-old student at Youngsville High School will represent the Youngsville Lions Club as its entry in Lions International's $50,000 Peace Essay Contest.

Darlyne won the right from four entries to enter the District level of judging en route to the Grand Prize. Mark Woodlief, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leelan Woodlief of Youngsville was first runner-up.

A total of $50,000 in awards will be made, including a first prize of $25,000 in educational and/or career-assistance grant, eight semifinalist awards of $1,000, and travel expenses to Chicago, Illinois for these semifinalists in July, 1967. At that time, the first prize winner will be chosen from the eight. Also, more than 20,000 local, district and multiple district awards will be made.

Her essay was selected by a panel of three judges: Rev.

John C. Whatley, Dr. J. Carroll Trotter, and Rev. W. Steve Watson.

The contest, which is the largest Peace Essay Contest in the world, was initiated to stimulate and elicit the views of today's youth on peace.

If Darlyne Cash succeeds in District 310's Contest, her essay will be judged in the Multiple District contest and it will have an opportunity to be judged at the World
