

Eason, Rogers Speak Vows

Miss Frances Levonne Rogers and Walter Gerald Eason spoke their wedding vows Sunday at Harris Chapel Baptist Church of Youngsville at 4 p. m. with Rev. John Darnell officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ella P. Rogers and the late Mr. Rogers of Route one, Youngsville and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Washington Eason, Jr. of Route one, Rocky Mount.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Sue Carol Johnson of Bunn.

The church was decorated with a basket of small lily-of-the-valley and white chrysanthemums. White candelabra were used at either side of the church altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her brothers, James Ronald Rogers of Zebulon and Jerry Allen Rogers of Youngsville, wore a dress of white bridal satin with lace appliques down the center. The dress was sheath with tulip cut at the bottom and featured bridal buttons in the back and at the sleeve-tips. The neckline was of a high quality with no collar and the cape train extended from the shoulders, ending in a v-shaped chapel length train. Her headpiece was of small beads with elbow length illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses and baby lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Robert Dannie Lancaster of Youngsville was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Celia Kay Rogers of Youngsville, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Lou Everett of Rocky Mount were bridesmaids. They wore street length dresses of fern green bonded crepe fashioned with A-line skirts. Their headpieces and shoes were of matching moss green and they carried golden chrysanthemums and moss green ivy with matching moss green ribbon.

The bride's mother wore a sheath navy knit suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a sheath floral suit of blue and matching hat and blue accessories. Her flowers were white carnations.

Mr. Eason served as his son's best man. Ralph Strickland Eason, Jr. of Rocky Mount and Will Washington Eason, III, of UNC, Chapel Hill, were ushers.

MRS. WALTER GERALD EASON

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Youngsville High School, a 1965 graduate of Park View School of Nursing and is employed at Park View School of Nursing as Nurse Instructor.

The groom graduated in 1960 at Cooper's High School, Rocky Mount and in 1965 from the Pharmacy School, University of North Carolina. He is employed as pharmacist and manager of Thompson's Pharmacy of Rocky Mount.

The couple will reside at 118 S. Grace Street, Rocky Mount.

Cake Cutting

Following the wedding rehearsal the cake cutting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Lancaster of Youngsville. The house was decorated with pink and white arrangements to correspond with the wedding cake which was decorated with pink and white flowers.

The wedding gifts were displayed in the den.

Refreshments of pink fruit punch, ham biscuits, roasted nuts, and bridal mints were served.
