

Bunn Falls To Bailey In District Tournament

Freddie Horton (22) . . . 30 points were not enough.

A costly cool start of the fourth quarter spelled doom for the Bunn Bulldogs, who came to end of the basketball trails last night in the District Tournament at Rocky Mount, as Bailey halted them, 63-60.

In the nip-and-tuck battle, Bunn led 29-27 at the half-time break and hung on to a slim one point lead as the fourth frame started. A hot hand by Bailey and with David Batten out on fouls and Bill Jones sporting four personals, Bunn couldn't buy a basket for the first few minutes of the final stanza.

Bailey jumped out to a 53-48 lead with 4:32 left in the game and kept the five-point margin in tact until Freddie Horton hit the final Bunn basket of the season with 20 seconds left to play. By that time, it was too late and Bailey had earned a match with the winner of tonight's Cleveland-Norlina contest, Friday night at 7 p. m.

Freddie Horton was the class of the game, hitting a blistering 30 points in Bunn's losing cause. Bill Jones had 11. Williams led Bailey with 17. In the first game, Elm City edged Wakelon as the buzzer sounded, 57-55 in the most thrilling game thus far in the tourney. The winner of tonight's Youngsville-Lucama game will meet Elm City Friday night at 8:30 p. m.

Baseball Season Opens Next Week

The Louisburg College Hurricanes open their 1967 baseball season Saturday, March 18 when they play host to the Bulldogs of Wingate College. "We just started to get down to business this week" said Coach Russ Frazier. "At this stage the pitchers are far ahead of the hitters. They have been throwing for about a month. Until last Thursday we hadn't had any decent weather in which to work."

The Canes have 6 lettermen returning from last year, including two pitchers. The returning pitchers are righthanders. John Gardner, and Junior College All-American Pete Eyer. Both boys were mainstays on the basketball squad and have just joined the squad. Another pitcher who has been impressive is left-hander Bob Gunn of Rocky Mount. D. C. Matthews, a righthander from Fayetteville, and Bill Williamson, a Louisburg native who throws from the port side round out the staff. "All positions are set at the present except first base and right field", said Frazier. "I don't want to be overly optimistic, but I think we will do all right for ourselves if we don't have any key injuries."

If she looks young, she's camouflaged.
If she looks old, she's young but dissipated.
If she looks innocent, she's deceiving you.
If she looks shocked, she's acting.
If she looks back, follow her.

Youngsville Coach Has Memories

By Clint Fuller

Youngsville Coach Larry Lindsey must be having pleasant memories this week, as his Phantoms plow through the opposition in the District III Playoffs in Rocky Mount.

Larry has been this way before. He has traveled the same road. Last time, he took the trip as a player . . . an outstanding guard on the 1956 State Championship team. His coach? Wake Forest star, Al Deporter, now a successful Youngsville businessman.

Lindsey will recall the 75-47 opening round victory over Rock Ridge and the 86-56 walloping of highly-tutored Smithfield in the semi-finals and the championship game which they won against Stem, 79-64.

He will also remember the trip to Durham and the easy win over Hildebran, 92-62 in the opener; and the nail-biting overtime contest in the semi-finals when the Phantoms almost lost the championship chance to Kernersville. Youngsville squeaked by with an 87-83 victory to go against Jonesville for the state crown.

Lindsey will easily recall this game. Trailing 25-22, it was Lindsey who headed a Phantom spurt of 14 straight baskets, eight by Lindsey himself, which put Youngsville ahead for good. For this performance, Larry Lindsey joined "Twig" Wiggins on the All-Tournament team.

Lindsey probably wonders, as he sits on the bench through an ever-growing number of victories without a defeat, can this squad match the 29 straight wins of 1956. Can it take it all? Lindsey should know. He has been there before.

Hurricane co-captains, second baseman Jim Lanier (left) and shortstop Wayne Vick (right), work on the double play in recent practice at the Hurricane's home field. The Canes' open their season Saturday, March 18, when they play host to Wingate.
