

Honors Bride-elect

Youngsville--Miss Marilyn Timberlake, bride-elect of May 27th, was honored with a bridal shower given by Mrs. Paul Hepler, Miss Ann Hudson, and Mrs. Robert McKee, all attendants for the Timberlake-Grubbs wedding. The party was held at the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority house in Greenville May 10.

The bride-elect was presented a corsage upon arrival and a linen table cloth from the hostesses.

Miss Hudson along with Miss Timberlake greeted guests and sisters. Mrs. McKee conducted several bridal games after which the honoree opened her gifts.

Mrs. Hepler served the bridal punch and decorated cakes. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. McKee.

Entertains Bride-elect

Miss Susan Lloyd of Louisburg, bride-elect, was honored Saturday noon at a luncheon given by Mrs. Wilbur Jolly of Louisburg at the Carolina Country Club.

Miss Lloyd was presented a corsage of white cymbidium orchids and a gift of silver by the hostess. Mrs. Felix Allen, III of Louisburg, the former Lucy Taylor Bell, also was presented a gift of silver.

Among the guests were Mrs. John T. Lloyd, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. F. H. Allen, Jr., mother of the prospective bridegroom, both of Louisburg, and Miss Jacquelyn Boone, Miss Betty Boyette, Miss Mary Jewel Shipp, Miss Kate Huggins, and Mrs. Anna de Butts, all of whom are in the wedding.

Miss Lloyd and Lee Parker Allen will be married in Louisburg on June 2.

It's True

The average citizen hears a lot more about budget reduction at election time than he does when his tax bills are due.

Union, San-Diego.

Engagement Announced

NANCY CAROL HORTON

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Horton of Route 1, Louisburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Carol, to Henry Thomas Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Jones of Route 3, Louisburg. A July 8th wedding is planned at Ransdell Chapel Baptist Church.

Perennial Gardeners Meet

Members of the Perennial High School Gardeners motored to Raleigh Saturday to attend the Rose Show at Ivey's of North Hill. Many lovely arrangements and different specimens of roses were on display.

In the afternoon a tour was taken through the greenhouses at Fowler's Nursery. The process from seeds to plants are shown here. The large hanging baskets with trailing colia, ivy, caladium and petunias was of particular interest to the members since this is the month to get your baskets ready for your porches, yards and patios.

Plants of Santolina, English ivy and rose moss were selected to be used at the corner walk leading to the Welfare Building. The landscaping plan for the corner will be to use large rocks and the selected plants around them. The opposite corner will be planted in a similar manner and this project will be completed this month.

Mrs. John Mills, President of the Louisburg Garden Club and Mrs. Marvin Pleasants accompanied the members on this trip.

Good Advice

Scientists endeavoring to reach absolute zero might examine some political speeches.

Susan Lloyd Entertained

Miss Mary Charles Wheless, Mrs. Louis Wheless, Miss Paulette Mullen and Mrs. Paul Mullen entertained at a desert hour honoring Miss Susan Lloyd, bride elect, on Saturday evening at the Wheless home.

The honoree was presented a bridal corsage on her arrival.

Refreshments, consisting of lime ice punch, cake squares, mixed nuts and mints, were served from the dining room table. The refreshment table was covered with a linen cut-work cloth and centered with a lovely arrangement carrying out the pink and white color scheme. A cluster of wedding bells was suspended from the chandelier over the table. Punch was poured by Mrs. John Lloyd, mother of the honoree, from a milk glass punch bowl.

Lovely arrangements of roses and other flowers were used, along with burning pink tapers, at other points in the dining room, living room and den.

A gift of china in her chosen pattern was given to Miss Lloyd by each of the hostesses.

Guests included the honoree, her mother, Mrs. John Lloyd, Mrs. F. H. Allen, mother of the prospective groom and the following classmates and friends of Miss Lloyd: Misses Toni Merritt, Kate Huggins, Jean Zealand, Jo Ann Hale, Mary Ann Fleming, Linda Faulkner, Patricia Trotter, Fran Nichols, Debbie Turner, and Mrs. Anna deButts and Mrs. Louis A. Wheless, Jr.

Death

HENRY R. PREDDY

Youngsville - - Henry R. Preddy, 79, died Friday at the Wake Forest Branch Hospital.

He was a native and lifelong resident of Franklin County, a retired railroad telegraph operator and ticket agent, and a member of Oak Level Christian Church.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at 4:30 p.m. from the Willis Funeral Chapel in Wake Forest by the Rev. T. N. Daughtry and the Rev. E. M. Powell. Burial followed in the Youngsville Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mamie Lee Height Preddy; two sons, Fredrick O Preddy of the home and Jesse E. Preddy of Youngsville; one sister, Mrs. Pauline P. Hobgood of Wake Forest; two grandsons.

Convention, Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. Parsons have an eight-year-old daughter, Deborah Lynne.

Engagement Announced

JANE SCOTT HOWARD

Mr. and Mrs. Cary Mills Howard, Junior, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Scott, to Mr. James Michel Strickland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Charles Strickland, all of Richmond, Virginia.

A July wedding is planned.

Miss Howard is a granddaughter of Mrs. F. M. Fuller and Mrs. C. M. Howard, Sr., both of Louisburg.

Woman's Club Plans Special Program

Three members of the Louisburg Woman's Club and three members of the Youngsville Woman's Club will team up to compete in an exciting game of "Alumni Fun" which the Louisburg Woman's Club is holding on Wednesday night, May 17, 1967, at 8:00 at the Community Room of First Citizens Bank and Trust Co.

The game is a special adaptation of the "Alumni Fun" television show sponsored by American Cyanamid Company.

Members of the Louisburg Woman's Club, will include Mrs. Becky Dean, Mrs. Jackie Frazier, and Mrs. Marsha Hill.

Members of the opposing team, the Youngsville Woman's Club, will be Mrs. Ellen Woodlief, Mrs. Barbara Hudson, and Mrs. Betty Weathers.

The moderator of the game will be Asher F. Johnson of radio station WYRN.

Mrs. Nancy H. Beasley, Club President, urges all club members to be present for this new, different, and exciting program.

Youngsville

Mrs. Reddick Named Clubwoman of Year

Youngsville - - Mrs. H. H. Reddick was named as Clubwoman of the Year at the Woman's Club Banquet and she was presented an engraved silver bowl. Mrs. Reddick is a Charter member, always active and willing to do a job assigned. To name a few of her accomplishments: She was instrumental in organizing the local club; has served with distinction as President; has been chairman of responsible committees such as Program, Finance, Yearbook, Project and Awards. She has solicited in community drives, serving as chairman of many. Her interest in youth of the community has been evidenced as a former Brownie Scout Leader and Teenage Club chaperone, sponsored by the Woman's Club.

Through her efforts as Awards chairman this year the club received the Sue Terry Help-A-Home Award and the Character Education Award in the district. In January she served as chairman of the March of Dimes Drive. Her participation in club fund raising projects this year has been outstanding. Besides the larger places of leadership Mrs. Reddick has shared in the routine club activities and responsibilities expected of all members.

In addition to club work she has participated in other community affairs such as PTA where she is currently serving as Secretary. She is a member and Teacher at the Baptist Church. With a son in Boy Scouting, she has also given of her time in that field of service.

The Club looks forward with appreciation to her service in the coming year as Recording Secretary and, an usual reliable club worker.

Annual Picnic

The Bunn Garden Club held its annual picnic luncheon May 10 at the cabin of the Leon Pippins.

Mrs. Ennis Murphy, newly elected President, presided through the short business session. Plans were made for the following years meetings and programs.

Fifteen members were present and one visitor.

Death

MRS. NOBIE W. HOLMES

Mrs. Nobie W. Holmes, 75, died Saturday. Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the White Funeral Home by the Rev. H. L. Tenny and the Rev. Job Overton. Burial followed in the Oakwood Cemetery.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Benton, Mrs. Lora Laura Gupton and Mrs. Ava Murphy, all of Louisburg; three sons, William C. of Detroit, Roger A. of Rt. 1, Castalia, Arthur of Rt. 2, Louisburg; two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Macon of Wake Forest, Mrs. Susie Holmes of Louisburg; one brother, Dorsey West of Detroit; and six grandchildren.

Appointed Missionaries To Ecuador

REV. AND MRS. EVERETT L. PARSONS

Rev. and Mrs. Everett L. Parsons, Jr. of Route 2, Louisburg are shown above entering the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board headquarters in Richmond, Va. last Thursday. The Parsons were among 15 missionaries appointed by the Board bringing the overseas mission staff to 2,295. Rev. and Mrs. Parsons were appointed missionaries to Ecuador.

Pastor and Mrs. Everett L. Parsons, Jr., of Wood Baptist Church, Louisburg, N. C., were appointed missionaries to Ecuador on May 11 by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

Mr. Parsons was born and reared in Charleston, W. Va. Mrs. Parsons, the former Carolyn Baird, grew up near Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. Parsons told the Foreign Mission Board that they began seriously considering overseas service nearly five years ago when he was pastor of First Baptist Church, Ridgeway, Tenn. After deciding upon a foreign ministry, he and Mrs. Parsons began concentrating on educational preparation for that task.

Mr. Parsons attended Middle Tennessee State College (now University), Murfreesboro, and graduated from Belmont College, Nashville, with the bachelor of arts degree. He expects to receive the bachelor of divinity degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C., May 19.

He decided to enter the ministry in 1956, while on a tour of duty in Japan with the United States Air Force.

Before becoming full-time pastor of Wood Church in October, 1965, he served both that church and Red Bud Baptist Church, Castalia, N. C., for a year and a half. His first pastorate was in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Mrs. Parsons, formerly a student at Louisburg College, now attends Southeastern Seminary. Before moving to North Carolina she worked for the Tennessee Baptist

MID-SEASON SPECIAL! Boys' Sport Coats

VALUES		$2.99
TO $10.00	NOW	3.99
		4.99
		5.99

SIZES 3 TO 7. VARIETY OF STRIPES, PLAIDS & SOLIDS.
CHOICE OF DACRONS & COTTON AND OTHER BLENDS

BOY'S SUITS SHORT PANTS SIZES 2 To 4

VALUES		$1.99
TO $9.00	NOW	2.99
		3.99
		4.99

BOY'S SUITS WITH LONG PANTS

VALUES		$3.99
TO $14.99	NOW	To
		7.99

We Close Wednesdays At 12:30
Use Our Convenient Charge Plan

Fox's
DEPT. STORE

NOW... SPECIAL SAVINGS ON AMERICA'S FAVORITE--

Chevrolet Fleetside Pickup

MODEL CS10934 1/2-TON PICKUP WITH THIS SPECIAL EQUIPMENT:

- Big 250 Six engine
- Custom side moldings
- Custom appearance group
- Pushbutton radio

These special savings available only during Chevy's Pacesetter Sale!

SEE YOUR CHEVROLET DEALER TODAY!

ROWE CHEVROLET - BUICK COMPANY
124 W. Nash St. Louisburg, N. C. GY 6-3314

Manufacturer's License No. 110

LET US SERVE YOUR NEEDS
Savings - Loans - Trusts - Insurance
CITIZENS BANK
and TRUST COMPANY
HENDERSON, N. C.
"THE LEADING BANK IN THIS SECTION SINCE 1889"
Member FDIC