

Grubbs-Timberlake Wed

On Saturday, the twenty-seventh of May at half after six in the evening, Miss Marilyn Jo Timberlake and Mr. John Wilson Grubbs were united in marriage in the Youngsville Baptist Church, with the Reverend Joseph Grubbs of Martinsville, Virginia, brother of the groom performing the double ring ceremony and Reverend Wallace Crider, assisting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Timberlake of Youngsville and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Grubbs of Winston Salem.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of bridal satin, featuring a Chantilly lace bodice with Empire waist, scoop neckline of re-embroidered lace and angel sleeves. Appliques of lace were used in swirls over and bordering the A-line skirt and bordering her Chapel train. She wore a finger tip mantilla of silk French illusion bordered with Chantilly lace, and carried a prayer book centered with a colored lip hybrid orchid, tied with lace streamers designed from the lace of her gown.

Mrs. Michael Chesson of Greenville was matron of honor. Miss Ann Hudson of Richmond, Virginia was maid of honor. They wore formal gowns of ice-mist blue Linen Saki featuring the scoop neckline, Empire waist and angel sleeves and a flowing panel back, accented with motifs of peau d'ange lace, a short mantilla of illusion and lace and carried a prayer book centered with pink cymbidium orchids with pink streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Pearce and Miss Terry Brook of Youngsville, Mrs. Paul Hepler and Mrs. Robert McKee of Greenville, Mrs. William Wilkinson, II of Raleigh, and Miss Margaret Timberlake of Alexandria, Virginia. They wore identical dresses and headpieces as the honor attendants and carried the prayer books which were inscribed and given as gifts from the bride.

Miss Leigh Bullard of Charlotte and Miss Claudia Ross of Matthews, cousins of the bride, and Jon Mark Crider of

MRS. JOHN W. GRUBBS

Silver Spring, Maryland, cousin of the groom, were child attendants. The girls wore dresses identical to the bridesmaids.

Honorary attendants were Miss Julia Anna Saunders of Louisville, Misses Nita Barbee, Karen Martin and Linda Evans of Greenville, Misses Linda Franklin and Sandra Wentzel of Raleigh, Miss Donna Rollins of Wake Forest, Mrs. James Mattox of Dunn, and Misses Carol Mitchell and Mizzie Tharrington of Youngsville. They wore formal gowns in pastel shades and carried a nosegay of white carnations tied with rainbow streamers.

Mr. Grubbs was his son's best man. Groomsman were James Grubbs of Chicago, Il-

Engagement Announced

MARSHA JEAN ROSS

Mrs. Dorothy Wheeler Ross of Franklinton announces the engagement of her daughter, Marsha Jean, to Wallace Spurgeon Eakes, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. Eakes also of Franklinton. Miss Ross is the daughter of the late Mr. Marshall Centh Ross, Franklinton. A July wedding is planned.

In silver candelabra centered the table. A round table in the dining room was covered in identical style. It held the three tiered pedestal cake decorated in blue and white, topped with a bridal couple complimented with flowers and wedding rings. Bridesmaids charms were drawn over a wide lace ruffle which surrounded the base of the cake. After the first slice of cake was cut by the prospective bride and groom, guests were served by Mrs. E. M. Mitchell and Mrs. J. T. Allen.

The white bridal punch was poured by Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, and the mothers of the wedding couple served them. Boxes of Groom's Cake were presented to the wedding party.

The hosts and hostesses presented the bridal couple a silver cake knife in their chosen pattern. The children of the hosts and hostesses, gave the couple a silver chalice and tray to be used in the wedding ceremony.

Assisting in areas of the home were Mesdames H. H. Reddick, A. E. Hall and R. E. Cheatham.

Thanks

The family of Joseph J. Wheeler expresses appreciation to friends and relatives for the prayers, cards, flowers and words of sympathy during his illness and death. They will long be remembered.

C. on Saturday afternoon, May 27, at two o'clock in the St. Pauls Episcopal Church in Greenville, N. C. The ceremony was performed by Church Minister Rev. John Drake.

The bride wore a white linen street length suit with matching accessories. She carried a bridal bouquet centered with a white orchid which she lifted to wear as a corsage for her wedding trip.

Miss Mary Catherine Brown, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a yellow dress with matching accessories. She had a green orchid corsage.

Wiley Brown, Jr., brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Ralph Brown and Neal Anthony Brown.

The bride attended the University of Tennessee and is now a student at East Carolina College. The bridegroom is also a student at East Carolina.

Following a wedding trip to the coast the couple will live in Greenville. Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was given at the Parrish House by the bride's mother for members of the wedding party, families and guests.

Sara Collier APE Initiate
Sara Lynn Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Collier, was initiated into Alpha Pi Epsilon at Louisburg College on Thursday, May 25.

The initiation was conducted by Sally Reid Auman, of Reidsville, assisted by the sponsor, in a late afternoon candlelight ceremony. Miss Collier, recently elected 1967-68 president of Phi Beta Lambda, another campus business-student organization, was presented with a certificate and membership card. She was later presented the pin of the society also.

Miss Auman, initiated into APE earlier in the school year, recently received a $25 check from national APE headquarters in California, as one of the winners in competition for the Florence Manning Scholarship Award.

Alpha Pi Epsilon is a national honorary secretarial society, membership in which requires at least a "B" overall average with no less than a "B" in typing and in shorthand.

Bookmobile
Mrs. Lee H. Bell today reminded the people of Franklin County that the Bookmobile will be available to the public free of charge. Anyone desiring books may write or call Mrs. Bell.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Frazier were also there, this being the first time they had all been together in many years. They were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Frazier, Jr. and children Tommy, Reba and Clay of Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Southland and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Alford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kittrell and daughters, Donna and Denise of Sherman, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frazier and sons, Terry and Freddie and Jeff or Weldon; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Frazier and children, David and Debbie, of Roanoke Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Frazier and son Lyn of Hampton, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobgood and children, Vicki and Frankie, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Pegrum of Henderson; and Kirby Frazier of the home.

Also present were Mrs. Bobby Richardson and children from Henderson, a niece of Mrs. Frazier.

Mr. and Mrs. Jobe Overton were also present and gave the blessing before the picnic dinner was served on the lawn. Everyone present enjoyed the get together and expressed the hope that it could be repeated very soon. After the dinner, group pictures were taken.
