

James Perdue, Ann May Wed

Miss Eugenia Ann May of Route 1, Castalia and Mr. James Maurice Perdue of Raleigh were married Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Cedar Rock Baptist Church. Rev. Burke E. Holland officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. May of Route 1, Castalia and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burt Perdue of Route 2, Louisburg.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Phil Inscow, organist, and Mrs. Ruth Collie, soloist. Mrs. Collie sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. P. E. Dean was mistress of ceremonies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown designed and made by her mother. The gown of bridal satin was fashioned with a portrait neckline and empire lines with long tapering sleeves coming to Calla points over the hands. The entire gown was appliqued with motifs of French imported alencon lace and re-embroidered with simulated pearls. Complimenting the back of the gown were self-covered buttons and a detachable train falling from a cluster of rosettes at the empire waistline. Her tiered veil of tulle was attached to a crown of lace and simulated pearls.

Mrs. Sonny Robbins of Raleigh was matron of honor, Miss Rachel Bordeaux of Delco, N. C. was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Betsy Armstrong of Trenton, N. C., Miss Reenie May of Raleigh and Miss Judy Perdue of Louisburg.

Little Kandl Robbins of Raleigh served as flower girl. The matron of honor wore a floor length gown of blue worsted, featuring a scoop neckline, short sleeves, and a princess bodice which fell into a A-line skirt. A flowing panel which fell from the neckline to the hem accented the back of the gown. She wore a matching blue headpiece of silk rosebuds centered with pearls attached to a puff veil.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore attire identical to that of the matron of honor. They carried elongated bouquets of blue and white carnations. The flower girl wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered pique accented by a blue satin band at the empire waistline and a cluster of rosettes in the back. Her veil of tulle was attached to a rosette headpiece and she carried a basket of rose petals.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of pink silk linen with black accessories and a cymbidium orchid. The groom's mother chose a dress of blue boucle knit with navy accessories and a cymbidium orchid.

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were Tommy May of Castalia, Brantley Peoples of Raleigh, Sonny Robbins of Raleigh and Dr. Jasper Burt Perdue, Jr. of Winston Salem. Master Tracy Robbins of Raleigh was ring bearer. The bride is a graduate of

Woodlief, Matthews Wed Saturday

Miss Christine Elizabeth Matthews of Route 1, Clarksville, Virginia and Mr. Charles Woodlief of Route 1, Kittrell, North Carolina pledged their marriage vows to The Rev. Howard A. Wimmer at Rock Spring Baptist Church at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon Saturday. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Matthews of Route One, Clarksville, Va., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Darwin Woodlief of Route One, Kittrell, N. C.

Miss Ceneith Elmore rendered a program of wedding music and Mrs. William Avery Wilder, soloist, sang "Calm As the Night" and the "Wedding Prayer."

The church was decorated with fern standards of California emerald flanking seven branch brass candelabra holding burning white cathedral candles. A pair of brass urns held arrangements of white glads, chrysanthemums, and daisy poms. The family pews were marked with sprays of green English ivy and white satin streamers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of silk sheer over taffeta peau de lace. The molded bodice with tapered sleeves had a sabrina neckline of lace. The elbow length veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a band of peau rosebuds and lace. She carried a white lace covered prayer book topped with a spray of frenched white carnations, tuberose, and lilies of the valley centered with a white hybrid orchid.

The bride's mother wore a blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of Braircliff pink roses. The groom's mother wore a pink dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink delight roses.

The three grandmothers chose corsages of white carnations to complete their outfits.

Ushers were Mr. William Thomas Matthews and Mr. James Henry Matthews, brothers of the bride.
