The thing that I've been warning you about has happened. We're in school! Hope all of you are enjoying it and will strive to make it a most profitable year!

During the Labor Day weekend, the password was BEACHES. It seems as if both Carolina and Atlantic beaches attracted quite a few local teens. Randy and Betty Bowers spent a gorgeous weekend at Atlantic Beach. Claudia Speed visited Atlantic, also. Ann and Lou Merritt said that they had a ball at Carolina Beach, All you others who haven't been to the beach lately, hurry up and

Tuesday night, Frances Griffin, Ann Merritt, Judy Duke, Vell Freeman, Mary Ann Moon, and Betty Radford celebrated their last night of summer vacation by going to see the movie "Emilie" at The Village and afterwards eating at The Pub. What's the name of that new sorority you formed, girls? How about the password? Dene Ward just returned from a month's stay in Cincinnati. Good to see you home, Denel

Well its here, long awaited but still too soon--SCHOOL. We didn't really realize it until the school bus came until the school bus came rumbling or when we walked into a room just before the bell rang. Just think, we'll be hearing bells ring for 180 more school days. Let's say about eighteen bells per day for a hundred and eighty days is approximately 3,240 more bells this year. By that time we'll probably all be a bunch of "ding-dongy" folks! Hal New and old faces greeted us this year. Any ole way you look at it though, things were a bit confusing and exciting. People are already looking forward to basketball season and the Christmas season and the Christmas holidays. To you all I'd like to say "good luck in all you undertake to do this year." One day and crazy things have already begun! How about it Tommy, Ronnie, Jimmie, Timmie, Danny, Glenn, and Vick! Most interesting scenery all along the route, eh? Ha! One day and crazy things

Mrs. Young Speaks To Garden Club

(Frk.B.W.) The Franklinton Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Charlie Cates Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Joint hostesses were Mrs. W. P. Pearce, Jr. and Mrs. J. D. Mode.

Light refreshments: were served before the meeting be-

Mrs. Charles Julian called the meeting to order and had the minutes of the organizational meeting read by Miss Frances Wortham.

Mrs. R. W. Moore gave the Thoughts for Today stressing Edward Bok's motto--"Leave the world a little more beautiful because you have lived in Mrs. W. A. Eaton, horticulture chairman, gave some points about beautifying lawns. Mrs. Cates introduced Mrs. Wesley Young of Henderson, the guest speaker. Mrs. Young showed how to make corsages starting with the taping of the wire. She stated that the same method was used in making corsages as in arranging flowers. Tiny flowers and light colors go on top. The color of the corsage depends on the costume and the size depends on the size of the person who is to wear the corsage. Mrs. Young em-phasized the fact that one should learn to relax while working with flowers.

Mrs. Lloyd Jackson gave information regarding a year book. The year book committee was given authority to select a yearbook for the
