

Shiloh Revival And Homecoming Set

Rev. Robert N. Dunn, Pastor of the Louisburg Methodist Circuit announced today that revival services will be held at the Shiloh Methodist Church southeast of Louisburg and northeast of Bunn on N. C. 1001 beginning Monday, September 18th and continuing through the 22nd. Services will begin nightly at 8:00 p.m. Homecoming worship services will be at 11:00 a.m. Sunday, September 24th with a covered dish dinner at the noon hour. An afternoon of singing and preaching will follow.

Revival preacher will be the Reverend Bill Clodfelter. He is a native of Davidson County, North Carolina where he graduated from the Pilot High School in Thomasville. He attended High Point College and Western Carolina where he earned the A. B. degree. He is presently attending the Duke Divinity School at Duke University. During the last five years he has served as associate pastor of the Davidson Charge near Winston-Salem and as pastor of the Silva Circuit, Silva, N. C. He is now pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in Franklin County. He is married to the former Charlotte Uldrick of Abbeville, S. C. and they have two children, Melodie and Danny. Mrs. Clodfelter will be guest pianist for the services and some special music is planned. Members, friends, neighbors and the public are cordially invited to attend any or all of these services.

Methodist Circles Meet

EVELYN SMITHWICK
Mrs. Hugh Perry was hostess to the Evelyn Smithwick Circle on September 5 with eight members present. Mrs. Perry served delicious refreshments at the beginning of the meeting.

Mrs. W. W. Thayer, Vice-Chairman, presided over the business whereby plans were made for the Men's Supper on Monday, September 11.

Mrs. H. H. Steelman presented a program on "Soka Gakkai" -- a new religious movement in Japan.

MAUDE MCKINNE
The Maude McKinne Circle met with Mrs. Cortland Smith, chairman, Tuesday evening, September 5 with fifteen members present and guest, Mrs. Carol Dickerson.

Mrs. Allen DeHart gave an enlightening spiritual life on "Home Life" pointing out influence that we, as parents, have on our children--their behavior, feeling, and belief. For the program, Mr. and Mrs. Cortland Smith presented a film of migrant camps, day centers, and playgrounds made in western North Carolina.

The circle has no duty for September, but volunteers were asked for keeping the nursery in October.

The Maude McKinne Circle is scheduled for the program at The General Meeting October 16.

A ten dollar contribution from the Sunshine Fund will be made to the Saint Andrews Methodist Church of Raleigh. This is our contribution as members of the Ten Dollar Club.

Refreshments of cookies, ice cream, mints, and punch were served to all.

MARY BURT PERSON
The Mary Burt Person Circle met with Mrs. Robert Butler, Fox Park on Monday, September 4 at 8:00 p.m. There were eight members present and two new members--Mrs. John Reineck and Mrs. Virginia T. Southerland.

Mrs. Jimmy Cottrell, chairman, was in charge of the business. Afterwards, she had the scripture and gave a program on "Modern Woman's Struggle For Personal Identity." Questions were read for the members to answer to themselves on their identity.

Mrs. Butler served cake, ice cream, and coffee to the ten ladies present.

Franklinton MYF Reorganized Sunday

(Frk.B.W.) On Sunday afternoon, September 10, the young people of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the Educational Building at 5:30 P.M. for a spaghetti supper.
