Mrs. Palmer To Lead AAUW Program

The Loupsburg Branch of the American Association of University Women held its first meeting of the new year Monday evening in the home of Mrs. C. Ray Pruette, Franklinton.

Mrs. Ialene Mode, president, presided, calling for reports from the secretary, Mrs. V. E. Duncan, from the treasurer, Mrs. Pruette, from the fellowship chairman, Dr. Ann Blumenfeld and from the membership chairman, Miss Adelaide Johnson.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson, vice-president, introduced the two-year program. Two topics were chosen for study: "The Society's Reflection In The Arts" and "Testing Values In A Changing Society."

For the current year Mrs. Michael Palmer will lead the programs on "The Society's Reflection In The Arts." Mrs. Palmer was introduced and she, very vivaciously, laid the foundation for the six programs of the year as she used posters she had made to illustrate her individual program topics: Distinguishing Characteristics of Our American Society, Society's Reflection in Literature and Drama, in Painting and Sculpture, in Music, in Fashion Design and in Architecture. A sampling of the electronic music was played and books illustrating each topic were discussed. A reserve shelf in the College Library will be made available to the members.

Announcement of the State AAUW meeting to be held in Asheville October 6 and 7 was made.

Mrs. Pruette, assisted by Mrs. Isabelle Stephens, served icebox pie and a hot spiced punch to Mesdames Julia Carr, Richard Whitfield, Ialene Mode, and guest, Mrs. Betty Timberlake, all of Franklinton; Mesdames Joe Pearce, I. Youngsville - - Mrs. C. C. Hildebrand and Mrs. Cameron Lee, prominent civic leaders of Wake Forest, presented the program at the meeting of the Youngsville Woman's Club held Tuesday night of this week at the community house. Mrs. Claude Edwards of the local program committee introduced the guest speakers. As Regional Representatives from the N. C. Art Museum, they presented "A World of Beauty - - Your N. C. Art Museum. Narration, in conjunction with color slides, unfolded the history of the museum, its collections, paintings, guides, tours, special showing, and future goals. The Youngsville Club was extended an invitation to visit the museum on a date to be designated as "Youngsville Day."

Club President Mrs. L. Jervais Phillips presided at the general meeting which opened with a special devotional period dedicated to the late Majorie Yokely who was N.C. Federation President. An impressive tribute was presented by Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., local club member who knew and worked closely with Miss Yokely in N. C. Federation activities over the past nine years. Out of forty nine club members, there were forty-two in attendance for the first meeting of the new club year. Special reports were given by Finance Chairman Mrs. N. A. Brown, Projects chairman Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., Secretary Mrs. H. H. Reddick and Treasurer Mrs. E. J. Pearce.

Mrs. A. N. Corpening, head of the Annual Girl Scout Fund raising campaign, announced that the drive is now under way in Youngsville with club members participating in house to house soliciting. Citizens are urged to contribute.

Hostesses for the social hour were Chairman Mrs. J. H. Parrish and Mesdames H. N. Walden, James Smith, H. H. Reddick, Allen Stallings and W. T. Holden. Refreshments included cake squares topped with whipped cream, coffee and nuts. There were favors of miniature footballs for guests.

A collegiate decorative theme was used. On the serving table was a brown cloth centered with an arrangement featuring a football and cheerleaders megaphone. A football and players

Issues this statement in order to attempt to clear up the misconceptions, rumors and falsehoods that have been spread about the Association.

We are made up of conservative minded citizens who have the welfare of this country in their hearts.

We have no connection with any other group or organization of any type or any other name.

We are opposed to Communism in any form. We are opposed to Federal Intervention in the fields of private enterprise. We are opposed to the violation of the rights of private property and the violation of those rights by any Federal, State or local law. We are opposed to Federal control of our schools. We are opposed to any effort to eliminate the worship of God in our schools or elsewhere.

We believe in the Constitution of the United States and the sovereignty of the states as set forth therein. We believe in equal rights for all and in equal but separate school systems. We believe in the segregation of the races as being best for this country.

The nation grew strong as a segregated society and it is our belief that integration will weaken us and that our decline as a world power and in the respect of other nations started at the same time that the integration movement started in this country. We will support the candidate in any election, regardless of party affiliation, who comes closest to following these beliefs.

We will do anything within our legal power to uphold and advance these beliefs.
