It's been a big, big weekend for most of us! It all began Friday nite and lasted 'til the late hours Sunday night.

As you all know, Franklinton played Louisburg Friday nite for their homecoming. It was definitely an exciting game. The score ended at 26 to 14 in favor of Louisburg. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Homecoming Queen at a dance after the game. Congratulations to Windy Gupton who was elected as the '68 Homecoming Queen!

Saturday nite, Raleigh was bombarded by a group of local girls who just couldn't get enough fun and laughter, no matter how hard they tried. Tracey Winn, Janet Biggs, Beth Johnson, Betty Radford, Frances Griffin, and Susan Pleasants ate supper at "The Pub" after which they enjoyed the movie "To Sir With Love". As a final gesture of the evening these girls gave Tracey a surprise pajama party--at her house! Seems that everyone had a great time, especially Janet, who loves English-style driving???

Tommy Ball, Ann Merritt, Ricky Edwards, and George Ann Ford also went to see "To Sir With Love" Saturday nite.

Sunday nite the Dionne Warwick Show seemed to be the place to go. Those who went are Mark Warren, Frances Murphy, Frances Griffin, E. J. Wilder, Betty Radford, David Timberlake, Blake York, and Bill Riggan.

Marilyn Stewart and Anita Tillotson spent the weekend in Fredricks, Virginia. Say you had a good time girls. Birthday wishes are to be extended to Cynthia Best and Mark Warren.

What's this I hear about Larry Paschall and Stewart Woodward going to Carolina Beach by route around Greenville and ECU? Did you have a little trouble boys? How about a nice cheeseburger?

Teens visiting Natural Bridge over the weekend include Joe and Priscilla, Pam and Curt. How about that?

Rhonda's got us worried. She can't seem to make up her mind, can she, Morris? It was good to see Sidney Ann the other day!

Elections seem to be the thing to do or what's happening around school as of late. Freshmen representatives to the Student Council are Janet Pearce and Pat Bowen.

President of the Junior class is Linda Stroud; Vice-President--Otha Hill; Secretary--Pam Gilliam; Treasurer--Rommie Catlett.

Senior class officers are President--Vickie Wheeler; Vice-President--Curt Fuller; Secretary--Darlyne Cash; Treasurer--Elaine Murphy.

Carol, are your hands really "crunchy"? "Shape up or ship out" seem to be the motto of all activities in the gym. Just ask a certain group of boys and girls that includes our cheering squad!

The '68 Phantom staff is going to try to "wrap up" the ads sales campaign so let's get busy kids and surpass our goal!

I just heard a rumor and the halls are shaking as it rumbles on. Don't tell anyone, O. K.? Did you hear about Bruce and Kay? That's all!

With all the work that lies ahead of us this year, I find Richard Armour's comment very appropriate. Work's not play? Then I insist You think about the dramatist. Take Shakespeare, he of greatest fame, His 'Works' and 'Plays' are much the same.

does not matter what your child paints nor how accurately. That comes later. At first the rhythm and balance is what counts. Your child will want to please you most of all, so keep this in mind.

If your child cannot attend a class, he can paint at home. The necessary materials are few. All he will need is: construction paper 18 inches by 24 inches in assorted colors, a set of poster paints, bristle brushes in 1 inch, 1/2 inch, and 1/4 inch sizes and a cup of water for cleaning the brushes.

Perhaps the most important side of all this is that painting will help your child to see more beauty. He will learn to see beauty in such simple things as rocks, tree trunks, and the way paint peels off of old wood. As he grows older this appreciation will grow to include many things of nature and art that some people never learn to enjoy.

Billion Bushel Mark

SOMETHING TO CHEER ABOUT - A milestone in American agriculture is expected to be reached this year by the often underrated soybean. For the first time in history, the U. S. soybean harvest is expected to reach the magic BILLION BUSHEL mark, according to the American Soybean Association. Because soybeans usually reach the consumer as an ingredient of margarine, shortening, mayonnaise and salad oils, they are virtually unknown to many city dwellers; yet, since World War II, U. S. production of soybeans has shown a larger annual average growth than any other industry, according to the National Industrial Conference Board of New York. Thanks to advanced farming technology and "giant" farm machines, such as the combine shown above, the U. S. produces more than half of the entire world soybean supply.

TURKEY ELEGANTE

Refrigerated crescent rolls make the fast, flaky crust - a shortcut idea that makes this recipe a winner!

- 2-pound 8-ounce frozen turkey roast
- 3-ounce can luncheon meat spread
- 2-ounce tube anchovy paste
- 1 can Pillsbury Refrigerated Quick Crescent Dinner Rolls
- 1 egg yolk, beaten
- 1 tablespoon water

Oven 400° 6 to 8 servings
Roast turkey according to package directions. Pour off drippings for gravy. Cool for 15 minutes. Combine luncheon meat spread and anchovy paste. Spread on roast. Open can crescent rolls; unroll but do not separate into triangles. Seal together two lengthwise dough sections and cut off dough to form one large 9 x 7-inch rectangle. Reserve remaining dough. Seal all perforations. Place 9 x 7-inch dough piece on ungreased 15 x 10-inch jelly roll pan. Place turkey, rounded side down, on large dough piece. Cut remaining dough piece into two 3 x 3 1/2-inch pieces. Place one 3 x 3 1/2-inch dough piece on each end of roast. Wrap large dough strip around roast and at ends. Prick dough. Brush with egg yolk diluted with water. Bake at 400° for 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown. Let stand 15 minutes; slice.

"Is your family going to be active in society?"

"I suppose so," answered Senator Sorghum. "You can't expect them to deny themselves the same pleasures that they enjoyed at home."

"Will you become a social butterfly yourself?"
"No, I'll keep working hard and try to fly high enough to get into the airplane class."

The trouble with life today is that there are too many people who recommend themselves too highly.

In Fashion

A favorite fabric this season for coats and suits is tweed. Brown and harmonizing shades of brown, gold and tans are all quite smart in this fabric.

The low heel on shoes is definitely favored at present. However, some of the dresser slippers have heels of a one and three-fourths inch height. Sling heels and closed in toes for evening wear are popular. Cobra, suede and colored patent leathers are all in the fall picture for the new shoes.

On The Double

RUGGED BUT NEAT--Double-knit cotton pullovers with turtle necks or contrasting dickey fronts add up to a neat but rugged look for the "in" crowd. No ironing's required after laundering for these shrinkproof knits made in the new Pak-Nit RX fabric by Rhodes.

About Your Home

Encourage your child to paint. Many psychologists have said for a long time that painting is one of the surest ways to help a child express his feeling for beauty. Your encouragement and interest in his work will make your child feel a real part of the home. It will also help him to meet the adult world on his own terms.

Suitably framed, your child's picture will be an interesting addition to almost any room in your home. At worst it will be a conversation piece. By encouraging children to create, you are helping them to a fuller, richer life. The joy their child will get from having one of his pictures beautifully framed and being in the home will be reward enough to most parents.
