The week has gone by fast, or so it seems. School is beginning to settle down to normal, as clubs are being formed, officers are being elected, and the students in general get use to the idea of studying.

Many of the clubs have elected officers for this year at Louisburg High. Last week the Beta Club met and elected Beth McDonald, President; Deborah Robertson, Vice-President; Matt Person, Secretary; Frances Griffin, Treasurer; and Phyllis Kerley, Reporter.

The F. H. A. began its year with a party at which the officers were elected. They are Patricia Riggan, President; Cade Beasley, Vice-President; Jane Nelms, Secretary; Patsy Murphy, Treasurer; and Phyllis Best, Parliamentarian.

Wednesday morning Louisburg High School elected class officers. Senior class officers are Little Billy Fuller, President; Allen Driver, Vice-President; Betty Radford, Secretary; Ann Merritt, Treasurer; Judy Duke, Reporter; and Mike Wrenn, Sgt. at Arms.

The Junior officers are Rita Patterson, President; Beth Johnson, Vice-President; Deborah Wrenn, Secretary; Betty May, Treasurer; Bill Benton, Reporter; Tommy Wrenn, Sgt. at Arms.

The Sophomore officers are Sandy Versteeg, President; Charlie Hobgood, Vice-President; Margo Raynor, Secretary; Bobby Fuller, Treasurer; Carolyn Chadwick, Reporter; Charles Moon, Sgt. at Arms.

The Freshmen officers are Johnny Pernell, President; Cary Wrenn, Vice-President; Elizabeth McKline, Secretary; Mary Elizabeth Riggan, Treasurer; Stella Shelton, Reporter; Greg May, Sgt. at Arms.

Tuesday night, Mrs. Arnold, Senior sponsor, gave the annual staff a supper at the Murphy House. All had a great time!

Ikes Portrait

Washington—An oil portrait of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has been given to the White House by former U. S. Senator Harry Darby of Kansas City, Kansas. J. Anthony Willis of Houston painted the portrait.

Reading and writing and 'Rithmetic and "pop tests" and insect invasions seem to be the topic of conversations our way. How about our hero, ho Danny boy? Wonder why Jesse had his hair cut? Really cracking down on you, isn't he boys? Maybe I shouldn't pair people's names so lets talk about Debroah Moore and Linda and then ask Charlie, Morris, and Jesse what's up! Teens home for the weekend included Rexie, Jimmie and Ralph.

Wonder how Cathy Brown likes her job? I finally got all that story on Larry and Stewart's week end. They headed for Burgaw for Friday and Saturday. Their dates were just "so fine" but the tide turned against them as they had to hurry back to Greenville Sunday because some one else was coming to see them. I say, you boys sure do have your hands full and your pockets empty! Ha!

You know, Morris reminds me of R. L. He changes his mind every week. Wonder if his buddy still has that friendly circle of "keeping everybody happy"?

Jo Ann and I now have one big "laugh" we can share, don't we?

Can't seem to figure out why Carol Gilliam is so happy lately!

Belated birthday wishes go to Jo Ann Myers and David Brown.
