Youngsville Baptist

Youngsville--In accordance with a new plan of programs at the evening worship hour at the Youngsville Baptist Church, the Young People of the church conducted the service on Sunday evening, November 12, under the guidance of Church Minister Rev. L. Jervais Phillips.
 A five part message, based on the book of Genesis, was presented by five of the young people including Rodney Roberts, Carol Mitchell, Brenda Sanders, Janet Pearce, and Rhonda Strickland.
 Glenn Evans presided at the service and Mark Woodlief served as pianist. Special music was by the Girls Chorus of the church.
 On other Sunday evenings during each month, special programs are being planned; in addition to regular worship services conducted by the pastor. The special services will be conducted by various age groups of the church. Everyone is urged to attend all services.
 You can never tell when a little careful driving will save your life on the highways.

Stamp For Disney

Washington--A commemorative stamp will be issued next year by the post office in honor of Walt Disney. It has not been decided whether it will be issued first in Missouri, the place of his birth, or California where his movie-television studios are located.

In Fashion

Rhinestones are making a come-back in the fashion world--an attractive silk cocktail dress has a ring of rhinestones outlining its low circular neckline.
 Styles for country wear are influenced by creations from the Alpine countries. Lederhosen with streaks over the bodice are worn with colorful blouses having full sleeves with snug cuffs.
 Small hats also have a ty-
