A JOHNNY HARTFORD SCHOOL SAFETY TIP

Going Home After School - Never accept gifts or rides from strangers. Go home promptly after school and don't loiter along the way. Stick to your safety route and stay away from dark and lonely streets. Check in with your mother to let her know if you plan to play elsewhere. Then come home promptly at the time she sets. (This safety panel, one of a series for JUNIOR FIRE MARSHAL, has been prepared as a public service of The Hartford Insurance Group.)
