Mt. Zion Baptist

The Christmas season will be ushered in at Mount Zion Baptist Church, Route 3, Louisburg on Sunday, December 17 with two special events.
On Sunday afternoon the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Honeycutt will give a Christmas Open House in the fellowship hall of the church for the entire congregation. Calling hours will be from three to five o'clock in the afternoon. The deacons and their wives and the deaconesses and their husbands will assist in the receiving line and at the refreshment table.
On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock the traditional Christmas program will be presented in the form of a "Festival of Carols." It will consist of a candle light service and music by the Adult and Junior choirs and the congregation. A Christmas meditation will be given by the pastor and the service will conclude with the special offering for missions with each family placing its gift on the altar. The public is invited to attend this service.
On December 24 the highlight of the Sunday School hour will be the joint assembly of all departments in the auditorium at 10 o'clock. "The Happy Birthday Jesus" cake will be placed on the altar table and will be lighted by the children. The symbols of the Christian Church will be predominant in this special interpretation of the meaning of Christmas. The morning worship hour will feature the Christmas Sermon by the pastor who will use as his topic "Why Christmas?"
During Christmas week, the Junior choir will go caroling in the community as a part of their observance of Christmas.

Scouts Work On Projects

YOUNGVILLE -- The Youngville Brownie Scouts under the leadership of Mrs. H.N. Walden and Mrs. Al DePorter, are currently working on Christmas projects at their weekly meetings on Wednesday. They are making three-dimensional Christmas pictures to use during the holiday season. They are also working on a little surprise gift for their mothers. They plan to have these completed by next Wednesday when they

Dr Patterson Speaks At Franklinton Baptist Church

(FRK. B.W.) A church wide observance of the Week of Prayer for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering was held at the Franklinton Baptist Church last week.
On Thursday evening there was a covered dish supper. Following the supper, Dr. L. N. Patterson, visiting professor at Southern Seminary, spoke to the group.
Introduced by the Rev. Lloyd Jackson, Dr. Patterson showed slides about the work that the missionaries have done in Nigeria. The former director, of Southern Baptist Missionaries have done in Nigeria, gave some interesting facts about the native people. He stated that the Africans were begging for more education and more doctors.

Mrs. Lloyd Jackson is president of the local Woman's Missionary Union which sponsored the observance of the Week of Prayer.

Youngsville Baptist Gave Cantata

YOUNGVILLE -- The Christmas Cantata "Petite Noel" was presented by a girls chorus at the evening worship service at the Youngsville Baptist Church on December the tenth. Young people participating in the program were Carol Mitchell, Mary Lou Brown, Janet Pearce, Harriet Pearce, Linda Winston, Brenda Sanders, Debbie Brown, Katie Ann Lindsey, Rhonda Strickland and Kay Chesson. A single solo was sung by Miss Strickland.
Choir Director was Mrs. A.N. Corpening and accompanist Mrs. Al DePorter.
Scripture preceding the Cantata was read by Rev. L.J. Phillips.

Preaches Own Funeral

Penygroes, Wales-- Pastor Rees Evans, 80, achieved one of his ambitions by preaching his own funeral. While his coffin lay in the aisle of the Nonconformist Apostolic Church, a tape recorder played his sermon before 1000 who attended the funeral.

LSD & Birth Defects

Boston--Dr. Hans Zellweger and associates at the University of Iowa have documented their first case of a baby born with birth defects resulting from her 19-year old mother who took LSD during pregnancy.

Christmas Programs Given

Combined Choirs

The four choirs of the Louisburg Methodist Church will present their annual Christmas program on Sunday evening, December 17, at 7:30 P.M. The program, under the direction of the church's Director of Choirs, Mrs. Walter N. McDonald, will feature carols and Christmas anthems sung by the Cherub, Junior, Youth, and Senior Choirs. Soloists will be Mrs. Umphrey Lee, Mrs. McDonald, and Stillman Scott. Mrs. C.W. Robbins will be at the organ, and piano accompaniment will be by Mrs. Stillman Scott and Miss Sarah Foster. The public is cordially invited.

Cantata-Drama

"Night of Miracles", a cantata-drama, will be presented by the 75 voice Senior and Junior Choruses of Perry's High School at 5 P.M. Sunday, December 16 in the J.E. Willy Gymnasium at Perry's School.
The Junior Chorus will begin the program with a candle light procession "O Sanctissimus" and followed by the singing of Little Gray Donkey by Roger Wagner and The Snow Lay On The Ground. The cantata-drama will follow in the form of a tableau which will depict The Long Expected Jesus, The Annunciation, The Mother Mary, The Adoration of the Shepherds, Star of the East, Wonders of the Magi and The Manger Throne.
A Christmas program of this kind is presented annually by the Music Department under the direction of Mrs. Maude Thomas. Mr. J.E. Wilson is principal of this school.

The solution to most problems will be heard if you listen to the next three men that you observe in conversation.

Ruth Mercer Circles Have Joint Meeting

(FRK. B.W.) The two Ruth Mercer Circles of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. D.O. Langston on Friday evening at seven o'clock.
A turkey dinner, which had been prepared by the members of the circles, was served soon after the arrival of the members.
Mrs. Mary K. East presented the program which was a Study of Christmas. She gave the who-what-where-when and why of Christmas. The program was interspersed with the singing of carols. Mrs. Walter W. Cooke led the group in singing as Mrs. Frank Collins played the piano accompaniment.
Mrs. Tommie Stephens of Cary, a former circle member, attended the meeting.
Some people say a lot by not talking much.
