Born In A Tank

Oldenburg, Germany-- The infant son of Mrs. Marga Schmeekloth was born in a West German tank that had been dispatched to carry his mother to a hospital during a snow storm. Christain's first toy was a model of a West German army tank.

Girl Scouts

Visit Times Office Friday

Youngsville -- The Franklin Times Managing Editor Mr. Clint Fuller provided news for the Youngsville Junior Girl Scouts when they visited the Franklin Times building in Louisburg on Friday afternoon February sixteenth. In relation to badge studies about "My Community" the Juniors were seeking specifically, information concerning the ways in which a newspaper is of benefit to the community. This they learned, in addition to many other interesting facts about the newspaper business. While showing the Scouts around Mr. Fuller talked to them about the history of The Franklin Times, planning and printing of the paper, and distribution. Scouts taking part in this special event were Libbie Brown, Jan Roberts, Clara

Ann Stallings, Susie Baker, Cynthia Paschall, Tonia Walden, Martha Lynn Bell, Ann Hill, Elizabeth Krietzer, Diane Privette, Constance Hart, Vickie Keith, Vickie Murphy, Deborah Edwards, Ellen Robbins, and Janet Wall. Troop leaders with the girls were Mrs. N.A. Brown and Mrs. W.M. Roberts. They were assisted by Mrs. Wesley Murphy.
