Society's Reflection In Music

The Louisburg Branch of the American Association of University Women met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Ialene Mode on Chavis Street, Franklinton, N.C.

Mrs. Mode, president, presided and transacted the business of the branch. Reports of standing committees were heard and a report of the change in the date for the Eastern workshop to be held at Louisburg College was announced for April 27 instead of May 4.

Continuing the study of the topic, "Society's Reflection in the Arts", Miss Adelaide Johnson presented a program illustrating and explaining "Society's Reflection in Music". The program traced the history of music through different periods from the time of the cave man to, and including, the modern "In Sound from Way Out", designated as the electronic pop music of the future.

Miss Johnson was assisted by Miss Margaret J. Mode in the presentation of recorded musical selections illustrative of the music of different periods of time.

Dates for the next three meetings were changed as follows: March 28, April 25, and May 23.

The hostess served a dessert course of a fruit nut cake and coffee to twelve members.

Pastors And Laymen To Plan For 1969 Crusade

Pastors and laymen of the thirty-nine churches of the Tar River Baptist Association will gather Monday, February 26, to receive directions concerning the proposed 1969 Crusade of the Americas.

The four o'clock afternoon session for the pastors will be held at the Murphy House in Louisburg. The evening session to be held at the Cedar Rock Baptist Church nine miles east of Louisburg on Highway 56 at 7:30 o'clock is for both pastors and laymen. The Crusade of the Americas is a proposed evangelistic effort to be sponsored by Baptists on the North and South American continents in 1969. The meetings Monday afternoon and evening are designed to acquaint Tar River Baptists with Crusade plans.

The Rev. Burke E. Holland, Jr., pastor of the Cedar Rock Baptist Church and Chairman of Evangelism for the Tar River Association will preside at the meetings. Other program personalities will be: the Rev. W.C. Lamb, Division of Evangelism, Baptist State Convention; the Rev. Gilbert Barnhill, pastor of the White Level Baptist Church; the Rev. Marion Rector, pastor of the Corinth Baptist Church; the Rev. Glenn Hodge, pastor of the Castalia and Pleasant Grove Churches; and the Rev. John W. Woody, Tar River Associational Missionary.

Teenage Chat Youngsville

Vickie Wheeler

I think a lot of people would agree with me when I say Louisburg High, especially the cheerleaders, have done an excellent job in playing host to Franklin County's Basketball Tournament. The friendly advice, instructions, or directions given has been appreciated by all who received it. Let's show them how much we appreciate their conscientiousness by helping them take care of their gym.

Thanks

We would like to thank the Doctors, Nurses and all our friends and loved ones for being so nice to us while we were at Franklin Memorial Hospital. We appreciate every deed of kindness and love shown to us recently and our prayer is that God will richly bless each of you.

In Fashion

With short skirts still in the picture, hose are more colorful and varied in design than ever before. They may be striped or in checks. Some of them are worn with garters that buckle beneath the knee. Others have shoes of the same color.

Bows and ties on the new shoes seem to be favored. Heels are a bit higher but continue to have a sturdy look.

Silver grey hair, shoes and suits are popular this season.
