

Franklinton Post Honors Birthday

Franklinton--Some 60 members and wives of American Legion Post No. 52 were on hand for a party in honor of the Franklinton Post's 49th birthday, at the local Legion Hunt Saturday night.

Guest of honor for the occasion was N.C. Legion Commander Robert Tart of Benson. Tart was introduced by John Hedrick, member of the local post who is currently serving as 1st Division Commander.

Tart congratulated Post 52 commander Bruce Honeycutt for the work he had done in bringing the membership up to its present level of 137, over 200% of its expected quota. He discussed the various programs in which the Legion participates to help the youth of the country and briefly discussed the plans for observance of the organization's 50th anniversary next year.

Three World War I veterans of the local post who were on hand for the celebration were also recognized by Commander Tart. They were G. L. Cooke, Graham Mitchell and H.A. McGhee. Cooke has been a member of Post 52 since it was first organized.

Youngsville Scout News

Youngsville -- "Sit-upons" were made by members of the Brownie Scout Troop at their meeting held at the Girl Scout Hut on Wednesday afternoon March thirteenth. Much enthusiasm was evident in making these cushions, as Brownies eagerly stayed overtime at this meeting to work on the project. While Brownies were busy at work, they discussed plans for spring outings by the troop. The "Sit-upons" were made in preparation for outside activities; and will also be useful inside.

Brownie President Teresa Jernigan presided at the business session of the meeting and was assisted by Secretary Janet Baker.

Darlene Barham was hostess for the day, serving refreshments of cookies, potato chips and drinks.

Youngsville -- The Junior Girl Scout Troop met on Thursday afternoon for a bus-

Mrs. Tyson had lived in Rocky Mount for 25 years. The body will be at Gay-Youst Funeral Home in Rocky Mount until the service.

SALLIE LOU MURPHY

Wendell -- Miss Sallie Lou Murphy, 16, died Monday afternoon at Wake Memorial Hospital as a result of a cerebral hemorrhage suffered while she was attending school on Monday.

Miss Murphy is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Murphy; two sisters, Mrs. Richard Sykes and Mrs. Joe Sam Routh, both of Wendell; her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Grover Parrish of Route 3, Louisburg. She is also survived by many other relatives in Franklin County. Funeral services will be conducted in Wendell on Wednesday afternoon at a time to be announced.

Well boys, CONGRATULATION, STATE CHAMPS! I'll say you had quite a gathering from Franklin County supporting you too. Was glad to see you could make it after all those invasions by the Salvation Army Friday night. Seems as if the cheerleaders and Millie had a blast also. In case anyone happen to ride by the Youngsville gym Sunday afternoon, there was not a ball game going on just the usual Sunday afternoon practice session for the champs.

Hope Jimmie Johnson is feeling better now. We're missing you at school.

Did every one have a happy St. Patrick's Day? That was Sunday in case you didn't know. The youths of Flat Rock Baptist Church participated in Youth Sunday this past week. Doing the teaching, singing and general speaking.

Campers To Meet

Campers Chapter of NCHA will meet Thursday night at 7:30 in The Assembly Room of 1st Citizens Bank and Trust Co. on East Nash St. All campers and interested campers are cordially invited.

ness meeting to discuss badge achievement and goals. They considered plans for future outings by the troop and each patrol talked about activities for their respective group.

In observance of Girl Scout Week the Girl Scouts have been wearing their uniforms during the week.

Girl Scout cookies will arrive next week. Orders taken by scouts will be filled and cookies will continue on sale for the remainder of the month.

You've never seen pens move so quickly as at L.H.S. during this week as the students rushed to sign the long-awaited annuals. The 1968 Circle arrived Thursday afternoon much to everyone's surprise. Excitement sparked the school within fifteen minutes. Congratulations to our editor, Vall Freeman, for a job well done.

Saturday night many local teens enjoyed dancing to the music of the Divitts at the Embero Club. Among those are Tracey Winn, Lee Lumpkin, Cindy Shubart, C. B. Patterson, Ann Avert, Jimmy Geddle, Patsy Murphy, Joe Leonard, Betty Radford and Henry Nelms.

It's good to see Mike Fuller home from Atlanta, Georgia. Mike is presently working as a D.J. in Sanford, North Carolina. When you're in Raleigh turn your radio dial to WEYE, 1290 and listen to the "Good Guy."

It's also good to see Lee and Parker Lumpkin home for a short visit. Both of you are looking great!

"Tell me, friend," said a sympathetic man to a panhandler, "how did you ever get yourself into such destitute circumstances?" "Well replied the derelict, "When I had the world by the tail, I let go to reach for the moon."

WEMC To Have Annual Meeting

Two color television sets-a console and a portable - will be given away as two of many attendance prizes at the annual members meeting of Wake Electric Membership Corporation.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m., March 22, in the Wake Forest High School Gym in Wake Forest, N.C.

In addition to the attendance prizes, all who attend will receive souvenir ballpoint pens bearing the name of the Corporation.

Wake Electric Membership Corporation serves over 4,000 members in portions of Franklin, Durham, Granville, Johnston, Nash, Vance and Wake counties.

Brief reports on matters of interest to the Cooperative and its members will be made by J.L. Shearon, Wake EMC manager; W.T. Crisp of Raleigh general counsel for Tarheel Electric Membership Association and attorney for Wake EMC; and H.L. O'Brien, Ronte 5, Oxford, a member of the Cooperative's Board of Directors.

Shearon will deal with the different phases of the Cooperative's operations; Crisp will explain the relation of the territorial legislation, enacted by the 1965 General Assembly, to the Cooperative's service area. O'Brien will discuss the duties and responsibilities of a member of the Board of Directors, policy makers for the Cooperative.

Home Mission Study Set

(FRK. B.W.) On Tuesday evening the WMU of the Franklinton Baptist Church held a Home Mission Study at the Educational Building.

Teachers were Mrs. W.A. Shearon, Mrs. Raymond Harris, Mrs. B.S. Hale and Mrs. Charles Timberlake. A summary was given by Mrs. Ralph McGhee. The title of the study was "Trumpets in Dixie." Refreshments were served by Mrs. Everett Moore and Miss Inez Fuller.

OUR INTEREST IS PEOPLE

That's why people like C. F. Best of Franklinton are proud to be members of Wake Electric Membership Corporation. It's their Cooperative. They are its owners, as well as its consumers.

And people like Mr. Best from all the areas the Co-op serves in Franklin, Durham, Granville, Johnston, Nash, Vance and Wake counties will be coming to Wake Electric's annual members meeting. They'll be there to help shape its policies and, if they wish, to speak their minds.

Only in electric cooperatives do the people served by a utility have so much voice in its operations. Because that's the way electric cooperatives work. They work for people.

Join C. F. Best at the Members Meeting. It's your meeting. Two color television sets will be among the attendance prizes.

The date is March 22. The time 7:30 p.m. And the place is the Wake Forest High School Gym in Wake Forest, N. C. Meet Mr. Best there, he'll be looking for you.
