

AAUW Elects Mrs. Michael Palmer As 1968-70 President

The Louisburg Branch of the American Association of University Women held its annual business meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Michael Palmer on South Elm Street.

Mrs. J.D. Mode of Franklin, president, presided and heard reports of the committee chairmen. Mrs. John Matthews read the minutes of the February meeting as Mrs. V.E. Duncan, secretary, was absent.

Dr. Ann Blumenfeld reported on the Fellowship Fund and in as much as a larger contribution had been made at the January meeting for scholarship, it was voted that sufficient funds be taken from the treasury to make the branch contribution the equivalent of three dollars per member.

Mrs. Joe Pearce, Area Representative for Community Problems, reported on County activities for the aged women and for the mental health.

A report of the nominating committee, Mrs. James B. Clayton Chairman, was given by Miss Elizabeth Johnson as follows: Mrs. Michael Palmer, President, and Mrs. John Matthews, Secretary, for 1968-70. Others serving for 1968-69 are Vice-president, Elizabeth Johnson; Treasurer, Mrs. C. Ray Pruette, and Implementation Chairman, Mrs. Betty Jean Timberlake.

Miss Adelaide Johnson, Workshop Chairman, presented plans for the Eastern Workshop which will be held at Louisburg College, Saturday, May 4.

Mrs. Mode announced the 1968 South Atlantic Regional Conference which will be held at Morris Harvey College, Charleston, West Virginia, June 6-8.

The hostess, assisted by Dr. Blumenfeld, served a congealed salad, peanuts and an iced fruit drink.

Flat Rock Church Gives Youth Banquet

The Flat Rock Baptist Church of Route 1, Louisburg, treated their young people to a banquet Saturday night to climax Youth Week in the Church.

The banquet was held in the fellowship hall of the church with approximately forty-five young people in attendance. The theme of the banquet was "Hitch Your Wagon To A Star," with a color scheme of pink and white. The menu for the night consisted of baked ham, creamed potatoes, french cut beans, deviled eggs, pickles, hot rolls & butter, pie, coffee and tea. The meal was prepared by the ladies of the church.

The theme for the banquet was carried out very effectively in the program for the evening. Miss Darlyne Cash opened the program with the invocation, followed by the song "Impossible Dream" which was presented by Misses Vickie Wheeler and Marilyn Mangum. The speaker for the evening was Dr. Donald Moore, Director of Student Activities and Resident Counselor for Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, N.C. He challenged the young people present to find a "star" and to "hitch" their wagon to it. Following the talk by Dr. Moore, the group sang "To God Be The Glory".

The climax to the program was the crowning of the Youth King and Queen which had been selected by the adult Sunday School Classes of the church. Morris Catlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Epp Catlett, was crowned King and Miss Roxie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Smith, was crowned Queen. Morris Catlett closed the program with the benediction.

The special guests for the banquet included Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Benfield, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Layton, Mr. and

Explained

Policeman--Excuse me, sir, but your lights are out.

Motorist--Thanks, but it does not really matter.

Policeman --By the way, do you have your license?

Motorist--No; I never had one.

Policeman--How are your brakes?

Motorist--Rotten.

Policeman -- That's three violations. I'll have to arrest you.

Motorist's wife--Oh, don't pay attention to what he says, officer. He always talks that way when he's drunk.
