Louisburg Garden Club Meets

The regular monthly meeting of The Louisburg Garden Club was held Thursday afternoon April 4th., in the auditorium of The First Citizens Bank. The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Herman Spencer, Mrs. Vernon Stone and Mrs. W.H. Allen, Jr. A most attractive tea table was set up, from which Mrs. Spencer served fruit punch. Dainty tea sandwiches and cookies were also served. The centerpiece was a beautiful arrangement of spring flowers.

Mrs. John Mills, President, presided and gave a most cordial welcome to three new members, Mrs. Joe Lane, Mrs. George West and Mrs. William Fleming. She also announced reinstatement requested by Mrs. Wilbur Jolly, who had to resign several years ago due to other commitments.

REBECCA FAYE WEAVER

The engagement of Miss Rebecca Faye Weaver, daughter of Mrs. LaVassor Burt Perry and the late John William Weaver, to Mr. Donald Wilkerson Jackson, is announced by her mother. Mr. Jackson is the son of Mrs. H. Ray Jackson of Raleigh and the late Mr. Jackson. A May 12 wedding is planned.

About Your Home

Before too long the weather will permit out-door birthday parties for the kiddies. This means even more to mothers than to children, for it cuts down on broken lamps, stained carpets and smashed ash trays--the natural result of a party held inside the home.

It also makes possible a larger variety of games and entertainment. For instance, pony carts for the young tots and swimming for the older children.

Favors that provide party entertainment for boys in a two-fold way are model air planes, to be built at the party, with a prize for the one that flies in the air longest.

For little girls, a color contest is an old favorite. Something that is bound to be a success is a small favor. Then, for entertainment, provide the very young ladies with a table of cut flowers and give a prize for the most attractive arrangement.

The old standard, ice-cream and cake refreshments, are still a big favorite. However, it seems a good idea to serve something a bit lighter. Try orange juice or grape juice with birthday cake. There's less chance of having a sick child on your hands.

An expert on successful parties for children says the secret is to provide directed entertainment and recreation for the children from the time they arrive to the time they depart.

Miss Gilliam Honored

Miss Carol Gilliam, bride-elect of April 27, was honored Saturday night with a bridal shower at the Youngsville Community House. Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Tilman Rice, George Murphy, Selby Oakly, Danny Johnson, Burrin Underwood and W. N. Timberlake, Jr. Miss Eva Privette was in charge of the games.

A green and white motif was used in the decorations. On the gift table was a tiny white tree with miniature love birds, wedding rings, bells and Bibles attached with white ribbon. The serving table was covered with a white cloth and in the center of the table was a tree and candelabra with white pincel candles. Extending from the candelabra to each end of the table were pale green carnations intertwined with ivy.

White candles, green carnations and ivy were used to decorate the mantle and the table on which the brides book was placed.

Fruit punch was served from a silver punch bowl. Other refreshments were decorated cake squares, buttered mints and mixed nuts.

Miss Gilliam was presented a white carnation corsage and a gift of stainless steel tableware by the hostesses.

Reunion

(FRK. B.W.) The descendants of John Vaughan and sons Ed, Jim, and George Vaughan will have a Family Reunion on Sunday, April 14, at 1 p.m. at the Community House in Franklinton. Every descendant is invited to come and bring a picnic lunch.

Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my many friends and relations who have been so kind during our illness. For the many visits, cards, flowers and gifts I received while I was in the hospital and on my return home. Each one will be long remembered. Special thanks to the third floor staff of the Franklin Memorial Hospital staff and Dr. Patterson. May God bless each one of you. Curtiss and Juanita Davis

Health And Beauty

If you were not fortunate enough to have been born with a love for the out-doors, you must cultivate it. It will bring joy in your life that can be found in no other way. Walking is the very best all-around exercise. It is exhilarating and delightful to swing along with an easy stride breathing fresh air, and at the same time observing the many beautiful growing things. How lovely the sky, the birds and myriads of other interesting and beautiful objects. It makes you glad to be alive. In spring new life comes to all the world. You sense it in your own soul. Sap rises in the plants and trees and nature rejoices that winter is past.

Americans are using their legs so little for walking that some scientist have predicted that if they do not mend their ways the future generation of children will be born without legs just as the fish in Mammoth Cave are born without eyes.

To be useful and successful, you must possess at least a fair degree of vigor. You cannot grow strong without exercise. If you are weak and sickly, go to work and remake yourself; you can do this unless you are chronically and hopelessly ill. If you are not strong and never feel well, yet are not suffering from an incurable vital disease, then you can get well. Of course, "one swallow does not make a summer," so a little walking now and then will benefit you a little. Vigorous, systematic walking will help you greatly. If you are not strong, begin by walking about a quarter of a mile and increasing it daily until you are walking three or four miles as a minimum each day.

Dollars For Scents

En route to take Mandy out on their Saturday night date, Rastus had stopped at the barber shop to acquire some sartorial embellishments. When he finally knocked on Mandy's door, she smiled, sniffed emphatically, and said, "Boy, you smell like a barber-pole cat!"

On Summer Jobs

Washington--Business leaders have reported to President Johnson that they were engaged in a nationwide campaign to find 100,000 jobs for hard-core unemployed (mostly Negroes) by next summer. Henry Ford 2nd is chairman of the National Alliance of Businessmen.
