

Golfers Take Win No. 7

Louisburg College golfers won their 7th match against a lone defeat Friday as they downed Lenoir Community College of Kinston by 292-297. Scoring for Lenoir was led by Andy Thompson with a 69, David Hemrick with 73 and Mack MacKenzie with a 74.

Abernethy turned the front in 37 and nailed the back with a 33 which included an eagle on the par 5 number 5 hole. David Rowland's card for Louisburg showed 1 bogey and 1 birdie for even par 72. 75's were turned in by Jim Howard, Dwight Leadbetter, and Ivin Philpott.

Louisburg has two home matches this week with Ferrum on Tuesday and Chowan on Friday. Ferrum has 1 loss as does Louisburg and Chowan is undefeated in conference play.

'Canes Down Southwood

The Louisburg golfers sprang back from defeat at Chowan to wallop Southwood by 57 strokes, 282-339. The 282 represents the best score of the year thus far as the Hurricanes had 3 men under par and another even par. Ivin Philpott led all scoring with a 69 as he had a 35-34. Dwight Leadbetter had a 35-35-70 for 2 under par. David Rowland had a 71 which included a record typing 32 on the front nine. Harvey Abernethy Ferrum and Chowan ended last week atop the conference with 6 wins and 2 losses. Ferrum dropped Southwood and Mt. Olive two games each, and Chowan again defeated Mt. Olive in a pair.

'Canes, Ferrum Headed For Showdown

The Hurricanes play host to Lenoir Community College of Kinston on Thursday. Lenoir previously upset Chowan for Chowan's only loss of the year.

No true religion rests upon the assumption that everyone else is wrong and they alone are right.

Ferrum, Chowan Lead C-T Conference

against Southwood. Bill Barnes had a run scoring double for Southwood in the first game. No Ram batman had more than one hit.

In the games against Mt. Olive, the Panthers won 7-1 and 4-0. Hal Baird gained the opening game win, and Bill Thompson won the second. For the Panthers in the first game Russell, Owens, and Baird were all 2 for 4. Owens and Baird had double. In the second game, John Penn was 3 for 3 including his 3rd homer of the season.

The Louisburg Hurricanes split a pair of games during the week losing to North Carolina Jayvees 1-4 and winning from Duke Jayvees by a 1-0 score. Fielding lapses again proved the undoing of the Canes against the Tar Babies. Bobby Gunn and Mike Arledge pitched well as all runs were unearned. Jerry Fisher drove in the lone Louisburg run in the ninth with his third hit of the game. Against the Duke Jayvees on Saturday, Kevin Hanrahan fashioned a three hitter, struck out eleven, and received good support from his teammates as he pitched the Canes first shutout of the year. Hanrahan, a lefty usually hampered by poor control, had a one-hitter going into the ninth inning and issued only one base on balls. Connie Mack Ward singled in the lone run of the game in the 5th inning.

Chowan won three games during the week, beating Mt. Olive 3-1 and 14-0 and tripping touring Williams College 7-5. In the opener against Mt. Olive, Jim Cherwa bested

Elmer Dize and Russ Hodges with 2 for 3 led the hitters for Chowan. Wayne Watkins was the pitcher of record in the second game as Knighton, R. Johnson, Brooks, Faircloth, P. Bryant, and Watkins each had two hits. Against Williams College, Steve Hauser was the winning pitcher. Russ Hodges and George Faircloth each had 3 for 4 and Wayne Beale was 2 for 3. In a game with State J.V.'s Southwood won 8-3 as Tommy Garner pitched the win and also had a home run. Charlie Scott had two hits.

'Canes, Ferrum Headed For Showdown

The Louisburg College Hurricanes and Ferrum's Panthers are headed for a showdown battle for the Cavalier-Tar Heel Conference lead here Saturday when they meet in a double header beginning at 1:30. Ferrum is leading the league with a 6-2 record followed by Louisburg with 3-1. The Canes meet winless Mt. Olive Wednesday afternoon for a pair of games, and if the form sheet is followed they will go into Saturday's battle with a 5-1 record. The two top hitters in the conference will be waging their private war also. Louisburg Dan West is currently leading the league with .479 followed by Ferrum's John Penn with .478. Penn has blasted 3 homers and West 2. Both boys are considered prospects by the pros.

Ferrum will pitch their aces, Dave Phillips and Ben Whitaker, both with 2-0 records. The Canes will go with Kevin Hanrahan, 2-0, and Bob Gunn, 2-1. Both are left-handers.

Unpopular Pole

St. Helens, Ore.-- Service for 120 customers of the Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Company was interrupted when a truck hit a utility pole. The next morning another truck rammied the pole. Then later when this damage was being repaired a third truck hit the pole.

Louisburg Downs Chowan, Mt. Olive Here Wednesday

The Louisburg College Hurricanes jumped into the thick of the Cavalier-Tar Heel conference race Saturday when they took a pair of wins from Chowan by 3-0 and 9-2. The rapidly improving Canes took the opener behind the one hit pitching of Kevin Hanrahan. The freshman lefthander gave up a single to the first man to face him and then held the Braves hitless the rest of the way for his second shut out in a row. He struck out 9 to run his two game total to 20.

The Canes scored 3 runs in the 5th on 3 walks and two singles. In the second game righthander John Lewis pitched a 6 hitter as the Canes banged out 11 hits for a 9-2 win. Dan West continued his torrid hitting with 4 for 7 in the two games. He has had 11 for 18 in the last four games. He is leading the conference with a .479 average followed by Ferrum's John Penn with .478.

Cards, Twins Pennant Choices

New York--The St. Louis Cardinals are heavily favored to repeat as National League pennant winners and the Minnesota Twins are a strong choice in the American League race, according to an exclusive poll of more than 500 major-leaguers appearing in the May issue of SPORT Magazine.

Picked to fill out the first division behind the Cardinals in the National League are the Pittsburgh Pirates, San Francisco Giants, Cincinnati Reds and Atlanta Braves, followed in order by the Chicago Cubs, Philadelphia Phillies, Los Angeles Dodgers, Houston Astros and New York Mets. In the American League, the contenders behind the Twins, according to SPORT Magazine's player poll, will be the Detroit Tigers, Chicago White Sox and Baltimore Orioles, with the 1967 pennant-winning Boston Red Sox dropping to fifth, trailed by the California Angels, Cleveland Indians, Washington Senators, New York Yankees and Oakland Athletics.

In the SPORT Magazine polling for top individual performances by National Leaguers, the Pirates Roberto Clemente was the choice as probable Most Valuable Player and Leading Hitter, the Bucs' Jim Bunning as the Leading Pitcher, Atlanta's Hank Aaron as the Home-run Leader, and the Reds' John Bench as the Outstanding Rookie.

In the American League, the SPORT Magazine players' poll named the Red Sox' Carl Yastrzemski as the circuit's probable Most Valuable Player, the Twins' Tony Oliva and Harmon Killebrew as Leading Hitter and Home-run Leader, respectively, the White Sox' Joel Horlen as Leading Pitcher, and Athletics' Reggie Jackson as Outstanding Rookie.

Realizes Dream

Atlanta, Ga.-- Mrs. Ella Walker, 83, has realized a dream she has had since she was a little girl. Two years ago she began adult classes at Lynwood Park Elementary School and learned to read. Still working as a full-time housekeeper, she has been working since she was seven.
