

Quill And Scroll Organized At FHS

(FRK. B.W.) On Wednesday, April 10, six students were inducted into the newly organized Quill and Scroll at Franklinton High School.

Mr. Wesley Jackson presided over the assembly program which was held in the school auditorium at 1:15 p.m. Mrs. Betty Jean Timberlake explained the purposes of the Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. The advisor also spelled out the requirements for membership.

Mrs. Timberlake inducted the following members of the Senior Class into the Quill and Scroll: Barry Burger, Janet Dixon, Alice Green, Pam Radford, Brenda Webb and Martha Ann Whitfield. Each new member received badges of membership which included pin and membership card.

Mrs. Timberlake concluded the induction with these comments: "Each of these students has done distinctive work in the field of journalism. Each has sacrificed generously of time after school on behalf of quality publications. Each has exhibited loyalty to the school and an understanding of the highest journalistic practices. Each merits the honor of membership in Quill and Scroll."

Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my friends and neighbors for cards, flowers, visits, food, and most of all their prayers since I've been sick. May God bless each of you.

Mrs. Eva Wester

DISTINCTIVE—Floral-printed cotton in rich tones of blue, red, and gold sets a regal tone for this bedroom. The four-poster bed is covered with an outline-quilted spread, echoed in pinch-pleated draperies of the same print. Adding continuity is a tablecloth of the Waverly print, covered with a sheer cloth.
