

Bill Nagle Is Speaking Winner

William B. Nagle, one of two representatives from Area C of the North Carolina Jaycees, last Saturday afternoon advanced to the State Finals of the "Speak-Up Jaycees" competition. Nagle, a member of the local Jaycee organization, gained his berth in the State finals by being selected co-winner in the Regional competition at Roanoke Rapids last weekend from a field of eight area winners.

"Bill" and his wife, Lynne, reside at Hillcrest Acres, Louisburg, N. C., and have one child, William B. (Tripp) Nagle, III, age 4. He is a native of Glen St. Mary, Florida; a graduate of the University of Georgia, and is currently serving as Area Forrester for Continental Can Company, Inc.

James Grady, local Jaycee president, express his appreciation to Bill for his efforts in the "Speak-Up" competition and congratulated him on a job well done. Nagle succeeds Grady as the 1968-69 Louisburg Jaycee President.

JAMES D. SPEED

Rep. James D. Speed, unopposed for reelection, told the audience of his appreciation for having been their representative over the past several years and said he is opposed to a sales tax.

JOHN T. CHURCH

Incumbent Representative John T. Church, candidate for Seat 2, listed several "issues" which will dominate the next legislature, saying he favored teacher pay raises to bring them nearer the national level; technical and vocational training institutions; community colleges, with low cost tuition, more primary road improvements, increase activity in the area of recreation and holding the tax line.

He gave an emphatic "No" in answer to a question on favoring a local option sales tax, saying, "I fought this bitterly in the last session."

CHURCH

BOBBY W. ROGERS

Bobby W. Rogers, Henderson attorney, also a candidate for Seat No. 2, placed education at the top of his list of "issues" saying he favored increased salaries for teachers, efforts to keep North Carolina teachers in the state. He said he believes the state should "take up the slack" in forming a research agency to aid in the tobacco struggle against the federal government. He also says something should be done for the "forgotten man"—the state employee other than teachers—and favors a pay raise for them. He listed traffic safety, mental health and taxes among other important issues. He declined to flatly oppose a local option sales tax, saying it depended on how levied and implied he might favor it, if it became necessary to aid in school consolidation where a bond issue failed. "I cannot say I am definitely against it", he concluded.

Travel To Southwood

The Louisburg College Hurricanes meet the strong Rams of Southwood today in a Cavalier-Tar Heel doubleheader that can go a long way in determining the conference champion. Louisburg, Southwood, and Ferrum are locked in a tight struggle for the conference championship and the right to play in the Eastern District Tournament at Monroe May 16, 17, 18.

The Canes lead the field at present with an 8-2 record, followed by Ferrum at 7-3, and Southwood at 5-3. All three teams play each other at least twice more, with Louisburg and Southwood meeting each other four times counting today's games. Dan West is leading the Canes at the plate with a .364 average.

Pat Barrow is hitting .333 and Jerry Fisher .308. Fisher has driven in 15 runs to lead the conference in that department.

Bulldogs Down Warrenton

The Louisburg Bulldogs avenged an earlier loss to the Warrenton Yellow Jackets Wednesday by taking a 9-8 win behind Thomas Finch's eight hit effort. Finch struck out 12 in gathering the win. Durwood Wright was the losing pitcher.

C. Wrenn, R. McDonald and T. Wrenn each had 2 for four for Louisburg and Finch had three hits for four trips to the plate. Wayne Phelps accounted for the winning run with a two-run homer in the seventh. Louisburg committed three errors and the Jackets committed 8 miscues.

Canes Sign N.J. Star

Louisburg College Athletic Director and baseball coach Russ Frazier announced the signing of Bill Hudson of Basking Ridge, New Jersey to a baseball grant in aid today. Hudson is considered one of the better ball players in the New Jersey area, and comes highly recommended. "In addition to being a good ball player, Hudson is a good student and a fine boy", commented Frazier.

In addition to Hudson the Canes will also have Phil Gray, an Asheboro native and a transfer from High Point College. He was selected Randolph County Athlete of the Year, and was an outstanding second baseman for the Asheboro Legion team that was state champion in 1966 and runner up last year. He was drafted by the Cleveland Indians last summer.

Franklinton Wallops Youngsville

Warren Collins pitched a one hitter against the Youngsville Phantoms Tuesday afternoon to bring the Franklinton Rams their first victory of the season with a margin of 13-4. Mike Collins tallied 4 runs for the Rams with Mac Beckham close behind with 3 runs. Youngsville's leading hitters were Vic Rogers racking up 3 for the 4 runs and Ricky Wright hitting the other run for the Phantoms. Eddie Holmes was the Rams leading hitter with 1 for 2.

Louisburg Cars Compete

At least three Louisburg cars will be competing in Friday nights racing program here, headed by Dick Colliers fast Chevrolet currently leading in the point standings for the Championship of the Late Model Division. The car, driven by Monk Tate of Draper, has won one feature event here this year and placed in the top four in the other three features held so far.

Two cars will be competing in the Hobby-Rookie race. Allen Persons car driven by Charlie Tharrington and Bobby Gilliams car driven by Eldridge Shearon. Tharrington is 8th in the point standings for the championship of that division.

The first event on Friday nights program will start promptly at 8 P.M. with the gates opening at 6. There will be 115 laps of racing, spread over 7 events for the three classes of cars, Late Model, Sportsman and Rookie-Hobby.
