Attend AAUW Conference

Dr. Ann Blumenfeld and Miss Adelaide Johnson re-turned late Sunday from Charleston, West Virginia, where they attended the South Atlantic Regional Con-ference of the American As-sociation of University Women.

Women. The conference, held at Morris Harvey College June 6-8 and featuring the theme, "New Direction - New Re-sponsibilities," was planned under the guidance of Mrs. Cecil Gilliatt, of Shelby, North Carolina, vice president of the South Atlantic Region. In addition to "Topical Tables," discussions in which everyone present participat-ed, the program featured the following outstanding speak-ers Dr. Francena Miller, gen-eral director of AAUW; Dr. J.

ers: Dr. Francena Miller, gen-eral director of AAUW; Dr. J. Kenneth Morland, professor of Sociology and Anthropolo-gy, Randolph. Macon Woman's College; Dr. Esther Lloyd-Jones, professor emeri-tus, Teachers College, Colum-bia University; The Honora-bie Terry Sanford, former governor of North Carolina; Madame Shao Fang Sheng, artist-designer, Winged Pavi-lion Studio, Williamstown, West Virginia; and Dr. Anne G. Pannell, president of AAUW. AAUW.

AAUW. Appearing on a musical program at the banquet on Friday evening were a young violinist, Byrne Newhart, a mezzo Soprano, Jane Hob-son, and two pianists, Peggy Chiles and Mary Shep Mann. A very interesting feature of the program was a charter-ed bus tour to Blenko Glass Company where the group watched the glassblowers and to "Sunrise," the old man-sions of former West Virginia Governor William A. Me-

OPEN "CLUB" SANDWICH 4 slices pumpernickel bread Mayonnaise

4 lettuce leaves 2 tomatoes, thinly sliced

4 slices white bread

1 container (8 oz.) cream-style cottage cheese

Horseradish 1 large cucumber, thinly sliced 8 slices (about 1/4 lb.) cooked tongue Spread pumpernickel with mayonnaise; arrange lettuce and tomato slices on bread. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper. Spread white bread slices with cottage cheese and a little horseradish; place on tomato. Arrange cucumber slices over cheese. Top with Corkle and his family-now an educational and cultural cen-ter preserved by individual effort and community-wide A reception for the conference guests, honoring Dr. Miller, was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Buckalew. Dr. Buckalew is president of Morris Harvey College.

and a one-month's trip to Europe for two for the teach-er of the winning class. Teachers of second and third place classes win two and one week trips for two to San Francisco, Washington, D. C. or New York. Ten runner-up classes win major appliances for their classrooms.

DEATHS

Funeral services for James-Early W. Collins, 73, of Rt. 1, Castalia, were conducted Monday at 4 p.m. at Cedar Rock Baptist Church by the Rev. B. E. Holland and the Rev. James Estep. Burial fol-dowed in the Collins' family competence

JAMES E. W. COLLINS

GROVER INSCOE

Grover Inscoe, 83, of Rt. 2, Louisburg, died Monday. Funeral services will be con-ducted Wednesday at 3 p.m. at the White Funeral Chapel by the Rev. T. N. Daughtry. Burial will be in the Hickory Rock Baptist Church Ceme-

In Service

Franklinton HE Class Takes National Honors

The 2nd year home econo-mics class of Franklinton High School has been named state winner in The Fleisch-mann's Yeast Menu Planning Contest. The students and their teacher, Miss Ialeen S. Mode, have been notified that their entry has been selected over many others in the state. — Entries consist of a one-week's menu plan for a fami-ly of four. Recipes for all dishes – including some for homemade yeast breads and rolls – are part of each entry. The menu plan must be nutri-tionally well balanced and practical, the recipes well written, the presentation orig-inal an east. — For their prize, the class selects a small appliance – homem, teflon-coated electric skillet, four-slice toaster or Medamine dinnerware to be Melamine dinnerware to be used in their classroom.

National judging will be held shortly. National prizes include a trip to the Ameri-can Home Economics Associ-ation Convention in Minneapolis in late June for the top class and teacher - a major appliance for their classroom

4-H'ers Chosen To Represent The County

The final elimination for the 4-H Talent Show and Dress Revue were held at the Agriculture Building during the 4-H County Council meeting last Thursday after-noon. Bryant Foster, Presi-dent, opened the meeting and led the pledges to the Ameri-can Flag and 4-H Flag. Bren-da Fogg led the singing of "America" and Bryant led the praying of the Lord's Prayer.

the praying of the Lord's Prayer. Immediately following the opening of the meeting, the talent show was held. There were ten acts with five acts being placed. The winners were Jane Burrell - Halifax 4-H Club - 1st place; Robin Kerley - Senior 4-H Club -2nd place; Mark Joyner -Concord Community 4-H Club - 3rd place; James Law-rence - Oak Grove 4-H Club -3th place; and the Justice Singers - Justice 4-H Club -5th place. The first three win-ners will represent Franklin County at the 4-H District Activities Day in Clayton. Judges for the event were Mrs. Avery Dennis and Miss Dora Hil. The dress revue was held after the talent show with JAMES E. WRIGHT

The dress revue was held after the talent show with nine girls modeling their gar-ments. The three top winners were Pam Harris - Justice 4-H Club - 1st place, Sandra Har-ris - Justice 4-H Club - 2nd place, and Bathsheba Nichol-son - Future Progressers 4-H Club - 3rd place. Pam will model her garment at the Activities Day event in Clay-ton. The dress revue judges JOHN R. EDWARDS Receives Degree

MRS. HOBGOOD

Mrs. Martha . Chadwick Hobgood of Louisburg was among the 911 persons to receive degrees from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro during the 76th annual commencement exercises recently (June 2). Mrs. Hobgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chad-wick of Louisburg, received the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Teenage Chat

Youngsville

Congratulations all you Franklin County Graduates and best wishes in the future!!!

dowed in the Collins' family cemetery. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mattie C. Collins; two daugh-ters, Mrs. Melvin C. Griffin of Rocky Mount, and Mrs. Lois C. Aycock of Rt. 2, Louis-burg; two brothers, Walter and Oris Collins, both of Rt. 1, Castalia; three sisters, Mrs. Belle Wheless of High Point, Mrs. Sue Rowland of Castalia and Mrs. Pat Strickland of Louisburg; ten grandchildren. Congratulations also Congratulations also go out to Joe and Pricilla Hart! Birthday wishes are ex-tended to Curtis White and Gail Timberlake. One thing is for sure, Franklin County must have been a "dead" place over the weekend. It seems like every-body and everybody's cousin were down at Carolina Beach. Word has it that Atlantic Beach had quite a few Frank-lin County representatives too. Now that you know where everyone was, I'll stop my reporting and leave the rest of the story to your rest of the story to your imagination !!!!

The trouble with life today is that there are too many people who recom-mend themselves too highly.

summer, William Howard (Billy) Moss left Saturday to join the group Sunday for the join the group Sunday for the first term which is in session June tenth through July twelfth, for fifth and sixth grade students. One of three sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Moss of Youngsville, Billy has just completed the sixth grade Decoupage

Youngsville-Having been invited to attend the special school for gifted and superior students at Western Carolina University at Cullowhee this summer, William Howard

Billy Moss To Attend

School For The Gifted

Classes Are Planned

Decoupage, the art of cuting and pasting, is one of oldest forms of 'decorating. Today it has gained favor with he decorators for furniture as well as small accesso-ries. Mrs. Mode, Home Econ-omics teacher at the Franklinton High School, plans to instruct a series of classes beginning June 27 at 8 p.m. in the Home Economics Cottage. There is no charge but each person will be responsi-ble for securing basic materials You will need a smoothe Basswood Box or wooden cigar box, a pair of manicure cigar box, a pair of manicure scissors, pictures for cutting such as greeting cards, old reproduction pictures, decals, decorative papers and braid if desired. These may be secur-ed from a hobby supply store or some paint stores. Because the finish takes eleven to twenty coats of Decoupage finish for smoothe and hard gloss, you may want and hard gloss, you may want to begin with three or more boxes. If you are one of those persons who always thinks and will be twelve years old this week. The Superior and Gifted Student Project at WCU, now in its eleventh year, offers a selected program of studies for young students showing exceptional abilities. Besides classroom work, the schedule has many unusual features including related field trips, supervised physical educa-tion, instruction in arts and crafts, and concerts. Much emphasis is placed on development of talents, creative work, and on study skills. Each evening, supervis ed study periods are held.

Gardeners Discuss. Potting Plants

The Gay Gardeners Junior Garden Club held its regular meeting Friday, June 7th at 3:30 p.m., on the lawn of the Franklin County Education Ruilding Building

In the absence of the Club President, Neal Kimball, Vice President presided over the meeting. The Club decided to have

The Club decided to have their picnic meeting at the regular meeting date in July. The program for the after-noon was "The Potting of Plants." Mrs. Mills, Club Counselor gave instructions for selection for plants suit-able for potting, the portions to use in mixing potting soil, and told the importance of drainage and ways that draindrainage and ways that drain-age can be put in pots.

age can be put in pots. The workshop for the afternoon was preparing and planting planters at the en-trance of the Education Building and the Welfare Building. Mrs. Fred Leonard supervised the workshop.

Life is what you make it, or what it makes you. The trouble with most minds is that they are unused.

Franklin Mem. FHS Students Win In Hospital Notes The following were patients Menu Plans in the hospital Tuesday mornand will be twelve years old PATIENTS - Clarence C.

The second year Home Ec-onomics students of Franklin-ton High School have been judged winners for North Car-olina for the class's entry in the Fleischmann's Yeast Menu Planning Contest, an-nounces Mrs. Ialene Mode, Teacher. Alston, Louisburg; Nannie L. Autry, Louisburg; Nancy C. Ayscue, Louisburg; Maurice Ellis Bledsoe, Louisburg; Carolyn P, Bowden, Rolesville; Elizabeth Ann Bowling, nounces Mrs. latene mode, Teacher. The class worked on menus for a family of four, two adults and two children. Most of the recipes were test-ed and used in their foods classes. Each group of girls worked out the menus for one daw calculating the nutri-Franklinton; Marie M. Cham-pion, Louisburg; Elnora Davis, Louisburg; Lucy Foster Denton, Louisburg; Mabel Irene Driver, Louisburg; Annie Hale Frazier, Franklinton; Edward Stegall Ford, Louisburg; Winburn B. Fowler, Franklinton; Wardie B. Gallaworked out the menus for one day, calculating the nutri-tional values and calories for her day. Those girls participa-ting were: Sue Burke, Pat Harper, Leesa Harris, Mary Lou Hawkins, Betty Hays, Barbara Jordan, Etta Jordan, Dolores Johnson, Ferbee Preddy, Patsy Ray and Jane Roberts. tin, Louisburg; Edith Jewel Gay, Zebulon; Paul W. Hensley, Louisburg; John Lee High, Louisburg; Eugene Floyd Hoyle, Franklinton; Royal W. Jones, Franklinton; William Festus Jones, Zebulon; Ber-Roberts. Mrs. Ialeen Mode, teacher nard L. Joyner, Franklinton; William Joyner, Creedmoor; of the class, chose an electric can opener as their prize. Now the entry will be judged Shelby J. Leonard, Louisburg; Edna M. Loftin, Louisburg; Ethel C. McGuire, Louisburg; with winners from the other states. Eleven national win-

Hilda Ray Medlin, Louisburg; ners will be chosen. Jake S. Parrish, Castalia; Bertha B. Perry, Louisburg; Betty G. Raynor, Louisburg; Britishers Mable R. Valentine, Louisburg; Betty T. Whisnant, Bunn; Joe Henry Williams, Louis-Take Notice burg; Bertha D. Wilson, Louisburg; Alex Winstead, Zebulon; Pennie S. Wood, A branch of the Transatlan-Louisburg; Thomas K. Arnold, tic Brides and Parents As-Sr., Louisburg; Myrtle W. sociation has been formed re-Ayscue, Louisburg; Dessie M. Bell, Zebulon; Hommie W. cently in Raleigh, North Carolina. Bottoms, Louisburg; Joseph H. Chappell, Franklinton; Ida Any Britisher who is interested in joining the club Breedlove Davis, Spring Hope; please contact: Mrs. lvy Stro-Mary Bell Davis, Spring Hope; ther, 802 South Main Street, Callie T. Forsythe, Louisburg; Louisburg, N. C. Telephone Clarence J. Gresham, Youngsville; Phil R. Inscoe, Gy6-3165. Castalia; Olia H. Lambert, Louisburg; Mollie Neal, Louisburg; Bert Pearce, Castalia; Bobbie Peoples, Louis-burg; Etta Privette, Louis-burg; Clara C. Stallings, Louisburg; Jane P. Tant, die E. Wilson, Louisburg.

Revival Revival services will be held at the Sandy Creek Baptist Church June 16th through June 21st. Rev. John W. Woody will be the speaker. Services will Louisburg; Furney E. Tharbegin each night at 8:00 p.m. rington, Castalia; Daniel L. with special music each night Wester, Franklinton; Harvey and adult attendants will be in H. Wheeler, Franklinton; Ed-charge of the nursery.

TIES

DAY

2.

persons who always thinks you are going to start early on Christmas gifts then this is the class for you. Mrs. Mode plans to be in Greensboro June 10-21 at-tending a two week workshop on "Contemporary Problems in Family Living."

give Dud the royal reward he deserves HAMILTON

Exceptional elegance, craftsmanship and precision he'll wear with pride-an ever present symbol of your love and devotion ... from $45.00

A. SEA ROVER III Weatherproof $49.95 THINLINE 6503 ultra-thin styling $59.95 C. DATELINE A-581 automatic calendar $89.50 GIVE A GIFT THAT WILL LAST Gifts From $1.00 Up

Wholesale Jewelry Co.

LOUISBURG, N. C.

npyq

ton. The dress revue judges were Mrs. Jones and Mrs. William Fleming. Richie Whitfield, Franklin-ton 4-H Club, was elected to represent Franklin County as voting delegate at the district event in Clayton on June 20. The 4-H County Council was then adjourned by re-peating the 4-H Motto. Tolerance is what you are asked to have in order that others may encroach uponyour rights with impunity. ******

BEAUTY AND YOU EVELYN PERRY 6......

TOWN & COUNTRY BEAUT

SHOPPE & BEAUTY SALON

History did not see fit to record the name of the first woman who ever rubbed some type of berry juice on her lips, but it's safe to assume that it first occurred long before the birth of Christianity. Women, and men as well, have used some form of cosmetics al-most since the advent of the human race on this earth. Arc-haeologists have unearthed evi-dence of the use of cosmetics in tombs and graves that date back beyond the dawn of recorded history.

beyond the dawn of recorded history. The Egyptian Queens were en-thusiastic users of face creams and paints. They also made a practice of wearing their hair very short and used wigs for public ap-pearances. So you see, the wig industry is not new by any stretch of the imagination. These wigs were also made of human hair, but were usually coiffured to look med May 22 to the 805th Transportation Company near Vung Tau, Vietnam.

108 Main St. Spring Hope, N.C

SPECIAL RATE CLASSES FOR TEENS AND PRE-TEENS MONDAYS, WED-TEENS MONDAYS, WED-NESDAYS AND FRIDAYS FROM 1 TO 3 P.M. $1.25 PER LESSON. INCREASE OR REDUCE YOUR MEA-SUREMENTS AS DESIRED. REGISTRATION BEGINS RATURDAY JINE 22 1969 SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 19 THRU JUNE 24, 1968.

Phone 478-5740

L-XL SUMMER PAJAMAS In every wanted style and color 2.99 UP Open Wednesday

DAD TODAY!

DEPT. STORE

Afternoons

HAPPY FATHER'S