

Smith, Lye Wed In Wake Forest

Youngville — Martha Susan Lye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lye, Route 3, Wake Forest, on June 29, became the bride of Gary William Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith of Galt, Ontario, Canada.

The ceremony was performed in the Woodland Baptist Church, Wake Forest, by Rev. Roy E. Capehart. Gordon Lye lighted wedding tapers which were in candelabra placed around the altar with fern and white wedding flowers.

Wedding music was presented by organist Mrs. Page Haynes.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white cotton brocade fashioned with a boat neckline and short sleeves. The hem of the A-line gown was enhanced with re-embroidered lace. Her modonna veil was decorated with matching lace. The bride's bouquet was of pastel flowers centered with white carnations.

Miss Mary Iva Wrenn of Franklinton was Maid of Honor. She wore an A-line gown of deep rose crepe fashioned with short sleeves and boat neckline. Her bouquet and flowered headpiece were of shades of pink and white carnations and mums.

Laura Darch, Route 3, Wake Forest, was flower girl. Her floor-length dress was pale pink cotton with a deep rose sash and she wore a matching bow in her hair.

Peter MacManus of Raleigh was best man. Ushers were Robert Smith, brother of the groom; and Kenneth Lye, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress of bonded pebble jersey with white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. The groom's mother wore a robins-egg blue silk shantung dress with jeweled collar with matching coat and flowered hat. Her corsage was of red roses.

After a wedding trip to western North Carolina, the couple will reside at 400 S. Boylan Ave., Raleigh. The

Harris, Forsythe Speak Vows

(Frk. B.W.) The wedding of Miss Patricia Kaye Forsythe to Richard Howard Harris, Jr. took place on Sunday, June 30, at three o'clock in the afternoon at the Franklinton Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Forsythe and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howard Harris, Sr.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lloyd Jackson. Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Tommy Wilkins, soloist and Miss Martha Ann Whitfield, pianist.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length bridal gown of silk organza designed with the empire waistline style with long sleeves ending in calla points over the hands. The neckline was oval with lace and sequins and pearl trim with a matching design on the front panel of the skirt. The lace train was attached to the waistline with a six inch bow and fell flowing to the floor. Her veil was of illusion attached to a petal leaf pearl tiara. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Miss Jean Forsythe, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor length gown of mint green acetate brocade with an empire waist and short bell sleeves. Her headpiece was a bow which matched the material of her dress. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Bridesmaid was Miss Sandra Dixon, cousin of the bride. Her gown was identical to the maid-of-honor except it was yellow. She also carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Dale Harris, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Janet Collins, both of Franklinton, Miss Diane Dickerson, cousin of the bride, of Kittrell and Miss Beverly Hart of Bluefield, Virginia. They all wore short dresses identical to maid-of-honor except they were yellow. They carried bouquets of daisies.

Pam and Wanda Capps of Raleigh, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white eyelet dresses with lace around the sleeves and the bottom of the skirts.

Ring bearer was Michael Dickerson, cousin of the bride.

The bridegroom's father was best man for his son. Ushers were Wayne Forsythe, brother of the bride; Jarvis McDonald, cousin of the bride; Phil Smith, cousin of the bridegroom and Bill May. The mother of the bride wore a yellow bonded crepe A-line dress with a matching headpiece and short veil. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a green and white two piece boxed suit with white headpiece and short veil. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Presiding over the register in the vestibules of the church were Linda Weary of Butner, Marsha Fuller of Louisburg, Faye Beck of Wake Forest and Jenny McGhee.

The bride is a graduate of Franklinton High School. She attended Louisburg College where she was a member of Phi Beta Lambda. She is employed by North Carolina division of Vocational Rehabilitation at John Umstead Hospital in Butner.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Franklinton High School. He is employed at Franklinton Fabrics, a division of Burlington Industries. The couple will make their home in Franklinton.

Cake Cutting

Following the rehearsal of the Harris-Forsythe wedding Saturday evening, a cake cutting was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Franklinton Baptist Church. The bride's family hosted the event.

Mrs. William Forsythe and Mrs. Richard Harris, Sr. greeted guests along with Miss Jean Forsythe and Miss Sandra Dixon.

The serving table was covered with a pink lace table cloth. A centerpiece of pink and white glads was flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers.

Mrs. J. B. Dixon, Jr., aunt of the bride, presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. Cecil Capps of Raleigh, aunt of the bride, served the bridal cake. Miss Nancy Dickerson of Kittrell, cousin of the bride, and Miss Pat Newton of Chapel Hill, cousin of the bridegroom, assisted in serving. Nuts and mints were served along with the punch and bridal cake.
