

Dickerson, Gupton Speak Vows

Henderson — The Rose chapel of the First Methodist Church was the setting Friday evening at eight o'clock for the marriage of Miss Margaret Ann Gupton and Henry Cheatham Dickerson, Jr., both of Henderson. The Rev. Dermont J. Reid, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Kathleen Taylor Gupton of 508 Oak Street and Roy Edmund Gupton of Cape Canaveral, Fla. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson of the Raleigh Road.

The chapel was decorated with altar vases of white gladioli, snapdragons, carnations and daisies. Nine-branched, tiered white and gold candelabra flanked the altar arrangements. Seven-branched candelabra and emerald fern stands completed the decorations.

Wedding music was rendered at the organ by Mrs. Richard L. Matthews, Mrs. William Nelson Vaughan, Jr., sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by James Howard King of Henderson. She wore a formal gown of bridal satin and peau d'ange lace. The gown was designed with empire waist, scoop neckline, long sleeves and detachable train. Her headpiece consisted of a mantilla of peau d'ange lace mounted on a pillbox. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a nosegay of frenched white carnations, yellow sweetheart roses, gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Vicki Sue Stallings of Louisburg. She wore a full-length gown of yellow crepe and chiffon with empire waist accented by white daisies. Her bouquet was of yellow and white Marguerite daisies.

Roy Edmund Gupton, Jr., brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Henry Cheatham Dickerson, Sr., was his son's best man. Ushers were Albert Dickerson of Henderson and Elwood Lynn Hight of Louisburg.

Mrs. Gupton chose a dress of seafoam green chiffon with beaded trim and matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Dickerson, mother of the groom, wore a navy sheath with navy accessories. Both ladies also wore white Georgianna orchid corsages.

Reception

The bride's mother entertained at a reception for the couple on the back lawn of her home immediately following the ceremony.

In the receiving line were the mother of the bride, the father of the groom, James Nelson King and the bridal couple.

Mrs. Parham Gupton and Mrs. Clarence Gupton, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Roy W. Gupton, paternal grandmother of the bride, alternated in serving punch. Cake was served by Mrs. Wesley W. Young. Mrs. Joe Pender Taylor of Roanoke Rapids, maternal grandmother of the bride, assisted the hostess, also.

Guests were served lime punch, chicken salad in patte shells, cheese puffs, toasted nuts, wedding cake and bridal mints.

In the living room a circular table was overlaid with a full skirted satin cloth, accented with smilax. White tulle, surrounded by gardenias and miniature grapes, was placed around the three-tiered wedding cake. The living room mantel held an arrangement of magnolia blossoms.

MRS. HENRY C. DICKERSON, JR.

The refreshment table on the lawn was covered with a white satin cloth overlaid with scalloped lace caught at intervals with wedding bells and ivy. Silver punch bowls, surrounded with gardenias, grapes and garlands of English ivy, were placed at each end. An antique compote held an arrangement of white snapdragons, carnations, daisies and baby's breath. Hurricane lamps encircled with similar arrangements were placed at intervals down the long table.

The garden gate was highlighted by topiary trees centered with hurricane lamps containing burning white candles.

Guests were registered by Miss Vicki Sue Stallings.

About the Couple

The newlyweds left later for a wedding trip to points south. The bride changed to a beige linen ensemble featuring white trim and accented by a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride is a graduate of Henderson High School and is enrolled at Louisburg College. The groom also attended Henderson high school and will be associated in business with his father.

Mrs. Zealand Attends Institute

Mrs. Josephine P. Zealand, Assistant Librarian at Louisburg College, is attending a summer institute of Junior and Community College Librarianship, being held at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Michigan from June 24 to August 2.

The institute is being held under the Higher Education Act of 1965. Classes are scheduled during the morning hours, and discussion groups and guest speakers in the afternoons. Field trips to outstanding college libraries in the vicinity are also scheduled.

On Dean's List

Paul "Buddy" Stewart, Jr. was on the Deans list in the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of N. C. at Chapel Hill, for the spring semester 1968.

This honor requires an average of B or higher, which is obtained by only 20% of the University's enrollment as stated in the letter received from Dean of the College, J. C. Morrow.

Buddy is a graduate of Louisburg High School and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stewart of Louisburg.

If you listen carefully, you can hear the seashore calling — along about this time each year.

N.C. Ballet To Conduct Auditions

The North Carolina Repertory Ballet Company will conduct auditions for new members on Saturday, July 20th at 2:00 p.m. Auditions will be held at the Emanuel-Kovach School of Dance in Glenwood Shopping Center.

This new civic, non-profit, performing company was just organized a year ago. Since October there have been weekly classes and rehearsals for the Company, and in the spring the Repertory Company presented its premier performance at the Raleigh Little Theatre. The Senior Group performed an adaptation of Marius Petipa's Garland Dance from The Sleeping Beauty; and the Junior Group presented "A La Russe" with original choreography by Betty Kovach.

All persons interested in auditioning should write to Mrs. Jon Kovach, 2901 Essex Circle, Raleigh, N. C. 27608. Applicants for the Junior Company must be 10 through 14 years of age. Those for the Senior Group must be 15 or older, and should have pointe instruction. Both groups require that the member have had the equivalent of three years of ballet training, and that they continue instruction with their present teacher.

Franklin Mem. Hospital Notes

The following were patients in the hospital Thursday morning:

PATIENTS — Ella Vee Allen, Franklinton; William Ray Barnhill, Franklinton; Elnora Davis, Louisburg; Mabel Irene Driver, Louisburg; Mabel Leonard Edwards, Louisburg; Alice Faye Gardner, Wendell; Elizabeth Garrett, Louisburg; Dorothy Lindsey Harris, Castalia; Mamie Wiggins Hill, Louisburg; Louise Hobbs, Louisburg; Bernard Leslie Joyner, Franklinton; Carol Gail Kemp, Louisburg; Joseph Jackson Leonard, Castalia; Virginia Hawkins Levister, Louisburg; Ethel Cardwell McGuire, Louisburg; Johnnie Rayboun Medlin, Louisburg; Pattie Lee Mitchell, Louisburg; Charlie Cornelius Morgan, Louisburg; Bobby Wilson Murphy, Louisburg; Sandra Fisher Murphy, Castalia; Nellie Gray Richards, Youngsville; Lucindy Silver Richardson, Louisburg; Linda Lancaster Rowe, Louisburg; Thomas Leaston Timberlake, Zebulon; Frances Sherwood Turner, Louisburg; James Harris Turner, Louisburg; Thomas Kent Arnold, Sr., Louisburg; Myrtle Woodlief Ayscue, Louisburg; Hugh Brandt, Louisburg; Mollie Jackson Brewer, Louisburg; Joseph Henry Chappell, Franklinton; Mary Bell Williams Davis, Spring Hope; Ilda P. Edwards, Louisburg; Nonie Bunn Pearce Edwards, Louisburg; Annie Boone Frazier, Castalia; Jesse Crudup Fuller, Youngsville; Neva Rowland Fuller, Louisburg; Lilla Lanier Griffin, Louisburg; Zena Leonard Griffin, Castalia; Jerry Hayes, Louisburg; Jimmy Green Lloyd, Louisburg; Bessie Bailey May, Louisburg; Jessie Gray Moon, Louisburg; Onnie Tucker Perry, Franklinton; Annie Edwards Powers, Youngsville; Grace Medlin Wheless, Louisburg.

Smith, Burnette Wed

Wedding vows were exchanged Sunday by Miss Peggy Diane Burnette and Thomas Harrison Smith in Sandy Creek Baptist Church.

Rev. Donald Ballenger, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bland Floyd Burnette of Louisburg, Route 2, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Loyd Smith of Cumberland, Maryland.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mr. Nuberry of Raleigh, organist, and Mrs. Sandra Wood, vocalist, who sang, "I Love You Truly", "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in-marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin re-embroidered with alencon lace at top of bodice with lace appliques on skirt. The bodice featured a portrait neckline with brief sleeves, the back of gown extended into a wide train from shoulder. Her silk illusion bouffant veil fell from matching headpiece of white satin.

Pam Burnette, maid of honor, and cousin of the bride, wore a semi-A-line floor length gown of rose bonded crepe with empire effect, featuring a round neck with short sleeves and floor length train. Her head piece was a large rose fashioned out of silk illusion with veil to match, matching shoes and white gloves. She carried one large red rose bud.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lois Burnette, sister-in-law, Elaine Brewer, Mrs. Janet Jones, Connie Aycock, cousins of the bride, and junior bridesmaid, also a cousin, was Kim Burnette of Rocky Mount. They wore pink bonded crepe dresses identical to that of the maid of honor with accessories to match and also carried one large red rose bud. Mrs. Bert Kennedy made all the dresses including the wedding gown.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Burnette chose a blue lace dress and hat, blue shoes, white gloves and her corsage was white orchids. The groom's mother chose a yellow dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The best man was Kenneth Smith, brother of the groom. Ushers were Larry Gilliam, Forrest Harper, Jr., cousins of the bride, Bernie Cooke of Alexandria, Va., and Durwood Burnette, brother of the bride, Mrs. Livingood, an aunt of the groom, presided over the bride's register and Mrs. Don Ballenger directed.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue and white dress with matching accessories, and an orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Gold Sand High School and Hardberger Business College in Raleigh. She is presently employed with the Secret Service in Washington, D. C.

The bridegroom, a graduate of La Salle High School, Cumberland, Maryland, is now attending night school at Strayer Jr. College, Washington, D. C. and is employed as Head of Cost Accounting at Applied Science Industries, Falls Church, Va.

After a few days in the Smoky Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home at 83 Mace Circle, Manassas, Va.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the social hall of the church.

A large table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white flowers and flanked by pink tapers in crystal candelabra. On one end of the table a decorated tiered wedding cake was served to relatives and friends along with pink punch, served from a crystal bowl. Nuts and mints were also served.

Those who served at the reception, were Mrs. Lena Burnette, Mrs. Becky Burnette, Mrs. Cora Mae Hayes and Mrs. Mildred Harper.

Rehearsal Party

On Saturday evening following the wedding rehearsal, members of the Smith-Burnette wedding party and out-of-town guests and families of the bridal couple met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bland Burnette for a rehearsal party.

The table was covered with a white cloth centered with an arrangement of magnolia blossoms. A crystal punch bowl was used from which lime punch was served. White glads were used in the living room with white candles in crystal holders on the mantel.

Takes Command Receives Medal

Lt. Colonel Dean R. Paquette took command of the 228th Aviation Battalion, 1st Cavalry Division on 16 June 1968. The 228th Battalion is located north of Hue.

June 12, 1968, Colonel Paquette was awarded the Air Medal for distinguishing himself by meritorious achievement while participating in sustained aerial flight in support of combat ground forces in the Republic of Vietnam during the period 21 May 1968 to June 12, 1968. Colonel Paquette has participated in more than twenty-five aerial missions over hostile territory.

Colonel Paquette is the husband of the former Shirley Jones of Route 3, Louisburg.

Promoted To Sergeant

SGT. HART

Sergeant Dillard P. Hart, U. S. Army, has been promoted from Specialist E-4 to Sergeant E-5.

Sgt. Hart who has served 26 months of hardship duty is now station with the Armed Forces Police in New York City.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones W. Hart, Rt. 1, Louisburg, N. C. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Card and Mrs. Ora Hart of Youngsville.

Crusade Report Announced

Youngsville — A final report on the Franklin County Cancer Crusade for this year, shows that funds raised are the highest since 1962. The total amount to date for 1968 is $3,535.55, as compared to $2,647.00 in 1962. Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, county crusade chairmen, received a telegram of congratulations this week commending the county volunteers for attaining such a high goal.

The Crusade chairmen, on behalf of the Franklin County Unit of the American Cancer Society, expresses gratitude for the cooperative effort in making this year's crusade so successful. Support such as this is cause for great encouragement in the fight against cancer.

Louisburg and Rileys community nearly doubled any collections they have ever made. Pilot, Centerville, Justice and Seven Paths went over any previous year.

Mr. Robert Versteeg and the Louisburg College Players Special Events presentation of "Tartuffe", brought in the amount of $136.00. Memorials have amounted to $85.00.

Thanks goes to all community chairmen, special events chairmen, house-to-house volunteers, contributors, as well as to Radio Station WYRN and to The Franklin Times for their support.

Bobby Hills Honored

A Housewarming was held for Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hill at their new home on Fox Park Road in Louisburg Sunday afternoon from 3 to 6 p.m.

Hostesses for the occasion were Misses Judy Hill, Carlye Hill and Mrs. Harold Foster. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Foster.

The refreshment table was covered with a linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow glads. Punch, petit-fours, nuts and mints were served.

The lovely array of gifts were displayed in the living room.

Deaths

DAVIS A. PEARCE

Davis A. (Cracker) Pearce, 65, of Bunn, died Wednesday at Wake Memorial Hospital. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 3 p.m. at White Funeral Chapel by the Rev. C. W. Driver. Burial will be in the Bunn Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Betty P. Pearce; three daughters, Mrs. Edith Whisnant and Mrs. Derele Joyner, both of Bunn and Mrs. Barbara Clark of Washington; four sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Johnson of Rt. 2, Zebulon, Mrs. Verma Ferguson and Mrs. Stacey Perry, both of Rt. 3, Zebulon and Mrs. Anna Shouse of Winston-Salem; one brother, Steven Pearce of Rt. 3, Zebulon; six grandchildren. He was employed by the State Highway Commission in Bunn for 20 years. Since his retirement he had worked as a night policeman for the Bunn Police Department.

MRS. GERTIE W. CONYERS

Franklinton — Mrs. Gertie Winston Conyers, 86, died Tuesday. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 3 p.m. at the Sandling Funeral Chapel by the Rev. Norwood L. Jones. Burial followed in the Fairview Cemetery.

4-H's Attend Electrical Congress

Three 4-H'ers received an all expense paid trip to the annual 4-H Electric Congress which was held at the Blue Ridge Assembly at Black Mountain, North Carolina. Sandra Harris, Myra Harris and James Taylor Boone of the Justice 4-H Club along with Mrs. Bernice S. Harris, Assoc. Home Economics Extension Agent left Raleigh the morning of July 1 and returned to Raleigh the afternoon of July 3.

The trip was sponsored by Carolina Power and Light Electric Company.

WE WILL BE CLOSED
JULY 8th - JULY 13th
FOR VACATIONS
WE WILL REOPEN MONDAY, JULY 15th
WHOLESALE DEPARTMENT WILL REMAIN OPEN
THE MURPHY HOUSE
 "HOME OF FINE FOODS"
BICKETT BLVD. LOUISBURG, N.C.

ROSES
1 to 11 SALE
FRIDAY, JULY 5th
 7 P.M. TILL 11 P.M.
REGISTER FROM 7 TILL 10:30 FOR FABULOUS FREE PRIZES
 DRAWINGS AT 8:00 P.M. 9 P.M. 10:30 P.M.
 YOU DO NOT HAVE TO BE PRESENT TO WIN
SPECIALS ALL OVER THE STORE
ROSES
 BRING THE FAMILY HAVE A BALL
 STORE CLOSSES AT 5:30 P. M. RE-OPENS AT 7:00 P.M.