Collins, Talley Wed Saturday

(FRK. B.W.)The marriage of Miss Nancy Jane Collins to Frankie Stephen Talley of Clarksville, Virginia, son of Mrs. Luther Gould Talley and the late Mr. Talley was solemnized Saturday at 4:30 o'clock p.m. in the Franklinton Methodist Church by the Reverend Don Lee Harris. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert David Collins, Jr., of Franklinton, N. C. and the late Mr. Collins. Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Bruce Honeycutt, organist, and Mr. Bruce Honeycutt, vocalist, who sang "I'll Walk With God" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Harry Chapman Collins, the bride wore a formal length gown of silk organza over peau de soie. It featured a high yoke and cap sleeves of Venise lace beaded in seed pearls. The dress and built-in train were appliqued with Venise lace and a ghirlanda of Venise lace bordered the hem. A headpiece of matching lace held her shoulder-length veil of French illusion. She carried a hand bouquet of daisy pompons.

Mrs. James Calvin Shearin of Greenville, N. C., served as matron of honor. She wore a formal length A-line gown of light aqua Serrano linen with scooped neckline and cap sleeves. Her headpiece was a bow of matching organza. She carried a continental hand bouquet of mixed summer flowers in yellow, pink, lavender, and white. Bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Faye Langdon of Petersburg, Va., and Miss Sandra Ellen Smith of Charlotte, N. C. Their attire was identical to that of the honor attendant.

For her daughter's wedding the mother of the bride chose an afternoon sheath of aqua silk linen and matching accessories. Her grandmother wore a dress of blue embroidered linen with matching accessories. The mother of the groom wore a sheath of pink crepe with matching lace jacket and hat. All three wore corsages of white Georgania orchids.

Mr. Johnny Lewis Talley of South Hill, Va., was his brother's best man. Ushers were Mr. Lawrence Jerome Davis, Jr., of Boynton, Va.,

MRS. FRANKIE STEPHEN TALLEY

Mr. Donald Leon Hite of Clarksville, Mr. William Webb, III, of Durham, and Mr. Joseph Edward Collins, Jr. of Whiteville, N. C.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's mother held a reception at the Fellowship Hall of the church.

After a trip to the mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee, the couple will be at home in Clarksville, Va.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Following the rehearsal on Friday night, the bridal couple was honored by Mrs. William Edgar Moore of Lillington, N. C. and Miss Ann Elizabeth Royster of Henderson, N. C. with a rehearsal party in the Fellowship Hall of the Franklinton Methodist Church. The refreshment table was overlaid with a white cut work linen cloth over a yellow background. Arrangements of daisies in antique goblets accented the table. They were flanked by crystal candelabrum holding burning yellow tapers.

Refreshments consisted of petite fours, cheese straws, mints, nuts, and punch. Mrs. Doyle Winston Bryson of Knoxville, Tennessee, assisted with the serving.

SHOWER

Miss Collins was also recently honored with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Robert Buchanan in Clarksville, Va. Hostesses were Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Harvey D. Buchanan,
