Project 6.3610019
Franklin County

The State Highway Commission has prepared plans for the improving and widening of N. C. 39 and U. S. Highway 401 from the Louisburg City Limits to a point beyond Ingleside. In acquiring the right of way for this project, it is anticipated that some families will be displaced by the demolition or removal of buildings. The Commission, as a public service, is prepared to give relocation advisory assistance to families so displaced. The State Highway Commission's Relocation Advisory Assistance Office for the above named project is located at 320 East Club Boulevard, Durham, North Carolina, telephone number 477-0491. All families affected by the construction of this project will be mailed notices and personally contacted regarding information on relocation advisory assistance and reimbursement for the moving of personal property. Business concerns will be contacted regarding the reimbursement of moving expenses.
