Teenage Chat Youngville

By Jo Anne Frazier

Youngville High has once again come to life. Schedules have finally been worked out. Students are gradually becoming acquainted with new teachers and everyone is catching up on the summer happenings of their friends. Amid all the confusion, Elaine seems to be losing everything. First, she lost her sister. Then, her pocketbook seemed to like the grill. What is going to happen to you next, Elaine?

While walking down the halls you can always tell the French I students. It seems that the only word they know is "Bonjour." Before they finish this year they may wish it were "Au Revoir". Right former French students?

Bobby Hall has been injured in Vietnam. Bobby was shot in the neck and shoulders. He will be in the hospital for approximately three months.

Darlene Cash left Sunday for Campbell College. Good luck, Darlene and remember what you said about getting homesick.

Steward Woodard left Wednesday for school in Asheboro, N. C. Steward is studying to be an interior decorator.

Darlene Cooke moved into her new apartment this weekend. She will be living in Raleigh while attending Hardbarger Business College. What did you say you needed a quarter for, Darlene?

Surprise! Surprise! Surprise! This seems to have been the word Sunday night as Ronnie Johnson was honored at a surprise birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Frazier in Wake Forest. Attending the party were Tommy Lloyd, Jenny Wiggins, Jimmy Johnson, Elaine Holmes, Perry, Milly, Todd, and Tina Frazier, Ronnie Johnson, and I. What happened to the side door, Ronnie?

Speaking of the Johnson's, Timmy seems to have a problem when he drives to school. What time did you get home Timmy? Sy you are going to drive the big truck from now on...

Youngville Woman's Club To Meet

Youngville-The Youngville Woman's Club will have the first meeting of a new club year on Monday night September sixteenth at eight p.m. in the Youngville Community building with President Mrs. Barbara Hudson presiding. Club members are reminded that the meeting date has been changed this year. Previously the club met on the third Tuesday in each month, however, beginning with this September the date is the third Monday night of each month.

As a challenge to both new and old club members, the program for this first meeting will be based on "Orientation". All members are urged to be in attendance for an inspiring program; and to consider projects, activities and goals for the coming months.

Unclaimed Chicks

Los Angeles-When an airline brought 2,000 recently hatched chicks to Los Angeles, the consignee refused them because a delay had left the chicks in poor condition. The airline paid $650 for the chicks and turned them over to the Watts Labor Community Action Committee for their youth program.

Going to church may not answer all your problems but the habit won't hurt you any.

The speaker with an apt quotation to fit the occasion is prepared-you may be sure of that.

oped a strange habit lately. She walks down the hall with her hand in front of her. Could it be because of a certain ring Mike gave you for your birthday, Darnell?

While on the subject of rings, we would like to say congratulations to Debra Joyner who is going steady with Joe Leonard. By the way, Debra, how do you like YHS?

Birthday wishes go to Ronnie Johnson. Happy Birthday, Ronnie!

Good luck goes to Miss Strother with her French class and her study hall.

Thought for the day: To live is to love!

District Pres. Speaks To Club Women

(Frk. B.W.) The Franklinton Woman's Club met at the community house Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Presiding officer for the meeting was Mrs. Richard Whitfield. A welcome was extended to everyone including Mrs. Roy Barham of Butner, District President, who was presented a rose bud corsage.

The following new members were inducted into the club: Mrs. R. B. Gordon, Mrs. G. W. Pleasants and Mrs. W. J. Sigmon.

Following the reading of the Club Collect, the devotionals were presented by Mrs. Julian Carr, club chaplain.

Mrs. William James read the minutes of the two executive board meetings which were held during the summer.

A financial report was given by Mrs. T. J. McGhee. The corresponding secretary's report was read by Mrs. James. A letter from the immediate past president, Mrs. Floyd Bell, was read by the club secretary.

Department chairmen, who were recognized, were Mrs. C. Ray-Pruette (Education); Mrs. Raymond Harris (Fine Arts); and Mrs. Lamar Greene (Home Life).

Mrs. Dewitt Van Arsdale, Scholarship Chairman, reminded the group that ten per cent of the profit on all money making projects went into the Scholarship Fund.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Roy Barham of Butner, president of District Fourteen of the N. C. Federation of Women's Club.

Introduced by Mrs. Whitfield, the speaker gave an informative talk about the Woman's Club organization. She began her talk by asking the club women the question - "What image do you portray in your community?"

Mrs. Barham announced that Mrs. Frank Bryant, State President, has as the state theme - A Time for Women in Community Action. The speaker urged the club women to assume responsibility in order to become better citizens.

The six departments of a Woman's Club were explained by Mrs. Barham. She reported that much emphasis was being put on the Public Affairs Department during the present administration.

In closing, the speaker urged the club women to study and then act.

During the social hour, cake and coffee were served by members of the Executive Board.

New year books were distributed. Acknowledgements went to Mrs. Lamar Greene and Mrs. D. O. Langston for their work on the year books.

The Community House was decorated with roses. The serving table was covered with a yellow cloth upon which was an arrangement of roses, flanked by silver candleabras holding yellow tapers.
