New Twist For The Lunch Box

Every lunch-to-go deserves a little treat, but if you haven't much time to bake, those treats present a problem once every-one tires of purchased cookies and cupcakes. For a change, try some of these quick and easy ABC Snack Balls. They're a little like popcorn balls, but are made with peanuts, fruit flavor gelatin, and Post Alpha-Bits Sugar Frosted Oat Cereal. Better pack a few extra for sharing with lunchroom friends.

ABC Snack Balls
1 package (3 oz.) fruit flavor gelatin
1/2 cup light corn syrup
4 cups alphabet oat cereal
3/4 cup sugar
3/4 cup salted peanuts*

*Or use 3/4 cup raisins.
Combine gelatin, sugar, and syrup in a saucepan; blend well. Cook and stir over low heat until gelatin and sugar are thoroughly dissolved — about 2 to 3 minutes. Combine cereal and peanuts in a bowl. Add gelatin mixture and blend well. Let stand until cool enough to handle. Moisten fingers in cool water and form mixture into 1-inch balls, pressing firmly together. Place on wax paper to dry. Makes about 30 balls.

BEAUTY AND YOU

EVELYN PERRY

Do you have the type of face that always reminds people of someone else? Have people ever said to you, "Did you know that you look just like so and so?"

I suppose that this is a form of flattery to some people. Without a doubt, looking like Elizabeth Taylor, Olivia de Havilland, or Zsa Zsa Gabor has some distinct advantages.

However, I believe that originality has more advantages. Remember, originals are always worth more than copies.

With the right kind of make-up, used to its best advantage, you can be original. Even if you just naturally resemble some famous person, you can still look like a first edition.

Famous gals the world over look like originals because they make it a point to do so. They don't want to look like anyone else. They strive to be one of a kind.

So, make it a point to be yourself. Be original. Who knows, maybe other gals will want to look like you.

Come, see our modern reducing equipment. While here, take advantage of our wig and wiglet sale. Beautiful handmade 100% human hair. Have yourself a new look from top to bottom. Feel and look like a new you.

day evening.
Mrs. Frank Collins, chairman, presided over the meeting.
Mrs. J. D. Mode read the minutes after which Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Jr. gave a financial report.
Mrs. Mode was in charge of the program entitled - "The Race Question in Modern Science."
First, the program leader listed the causes of prejudices as being, ignorance, racism and personal advantage. The costs of prejudices are economic waste, aggravated social problems, waste of time, disrespect for law and order. Mrs. Mode concluded the program by saying "prejudice is a complex thing."
A money making project was discussed.
The hostess served ice cream sodas and nuts during the social hour.
Ruth Mercer Circle No. 2 of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the home of Miss Eula Cooper on Thursday.
In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. E. A. Harris, Jr. presided over the meeting. She opened the meeting with the reading of a daily devotional.
Mrs. Phil Franklin Whitfield gave a financial report.
Mrs. Ormond Collins reported on the number of cards sent during the last month. Correspondence was read by the acting chairman.
One note was a thank-you from the Methodist Home for coupons the circle members had contributed.
During the social hour, the hostess served ice cream floats, nuts and cookies. Mrs. Eugene Pearce assisted in serving.
