Stages Fashion Show, Tournament

There was a warm and gay harvest motif at Green Hill Country Club Thursday night, at the Town and Country Garden Club's Fall Fashion Show and Bridge Tournament.

Upon arrival guests walked along a walk lined with hurricane lamps and yellow burning candles. On the front porch was an attractive display of colorful fall branches.

Mrs. W. L. Lumpkin, Jr. and Mrs. Jack T. Ayscue were seated at the reception table. A fire burned in the large open fireplace while the mantelpiece was banked with colorful leaves. On one end of the mantelpiece were two large brass candle holders and candles in a nest of red, yellow, and orange leaves. At the opposite end of the ballroom was the refreshment table which was covered by a lovely cloth and was centered by a large pumpkin surrounded by masses of artificial fruit. The centerpiece was flanked on either side by a large burning candle in a green base.

Mrs. William H. O'Neal, president of the club, greeted the guests and introduced Joseph N. Hatem of Roanoke Rapids who narrated the very colorful and enjoyable Fashion Show sponsored by five Louisburg merchants. The nine lovely models for the gala event were: Mesdames Thomas O. Wheelless, John W. Vasey, Wilbur M.

Jolly, Paul W. Elam, Jr., Bland B. Pruitt, Jr., Frank Freeman, Happy Atwell Johnson, and Misses Dawn Mullen and Rebecca Mosley. A potted lemon tree and a fern plant on a wicker table complimented the grass covered stage where the garments were modeled.
