an urn of white bridal flowers and the bridal bouquet. Formal floral arrangements decorated all reception rooms. Wedding guests included friends and relatives from portions of North Carolina and Virginia, in addition to local guests.

Wedding Breakfast

On Saturday morning at eleven thirty the bridal couple was honored with a Wedding Breakfast held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Corpening with their co-hosts being Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Patterson.

There were fifty-five guests seated for the occasion. A massive fruit wreath decorated the bridal couples banquet table which was covered with a green cloth. Sitting atop a pumpkin, placed in the center of the fruit circle, were two little mice dressed as bride and groom. All other tables were set in similar style. Place cards were tied with miniature fruit and fern.

Listed on colorful fruit menus for guest was fruit cocktail, pineapple nut salad, cranberry sauce, turkey a la king, candied yams, green beans, hot rolls and fruit cake.

Invocation was by the grandfather of the bride-elect, Mr. Adrian Brown, Sr.

The guests of honor were presented a corsage and boutonniere which were actually bride and groom characters created with simulated fruit.

Featured on the dining room mantle was a white and gold fruit arrangement. Similar decorations but with additional color were used in other areas of the home.

At conclusion of the breakfast the guest of honor presented gifts to her bridal attendants and Mr. McDonald presented gifts to the ushers.

The hostess gift to the bridal couple was a present of silver in their chosen pattern. The decorative mice from the centerpiece were also given to the couple, as memoir of the occasion.

After Rehearsal Party

Mrs. P. D. Croom and Mrs. Adrain Brown, grandmothers of the bride, were co-hostesses at an After Rehearsal Party held on Friday evening at the Patterson home. There were approximately seventy guests in attendance including members of the wedding party, out-of-town relatives and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cheatnam greeted guests and receiving in areas of the home were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans and Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Phillips. Mrs. G. E. Winston presided at the guest register.

The two hostesses presented an engraved silver cake knife to the bridal couple. Lily-of-the-valley and symbolic wedding ring were tied to the knife which was used to cut the wedding cake.

Before the first slice of wedding cake was cut by the wedding couple, bridesmaids and honorary bridesmaids were invited to pull bridal charms by satin streamers extending from the cake. The columned three-tiered wedding cake was frosted and decorated with candlelight icing and topped with a bridal couple in a setting of net and flowers.

Cake was served by Mrs. Wiley Brown, Sr. and Mrs. C. V. Timberlake. Mrs. Adrian Brown, Sr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown poured the fruit punch. The serving table was covered with a moss green satin cloth overlaid with green illusion lifted at corners with gold ribbon and wedding bells.

Featured on the table was a gold candelabrum bearing candlelight tapers and a massive arrangement of yellow mums in a golden compote. A cherub on the buffet held yellow mums.

Assisting the hostesses with serving were Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Mrs. Johnnie Edwards and Mrs. B. H. Patterson.

A green and gold color scheme was continued in decorations throughout the home, with gold tiered candelabra and lighted tapers featured.

Pancake Supper

"Aunt Jemima" paid a visit to bride-elect Miss Kathie Brown as she was being honored with a Pancake Supper Wednesday evening, November twentieth. Hostesses for the party held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Mitchell were Misses Carol Mitchell, Debbie Brown and Libbie Brown.

Aunt Jemima came bearing a shopping bag full of gifts from the hostesses and announcing a surprise Pantry Shower for the guest of honor who received an assortment of pantry and kitchen gifts from guests.

The hostesses' bridal gift to Miss Brown was an electric broiler.

A red and black color scheme predominated decorations. A black tablecloth on the serving table was centered with a bandana designed basket bearing an Aunt Jemima doll sitting atop a heap of pantry items which were later presented to the honoree by the hostesses and Miss Kelly Corpening. The buffet was decorated in similar style with use of a bandana tray.

Red napkins and skillet ashtrays provided additional color on tables. Place cards for the twenty-two guests were designed with kitchen pictures. Guests were presented miniature corsages tied with red ribbons and tiny kitchen gadgets.

Red roses were used in decorating the living room of the home. Guests included immediate relatives of the guest of honor, Mrs. Wiley Brown, Sr., Miss Mary Lou Brown and Mrs. P. D. Croom, and several friends. (L.C.)

The Cure

A five-year-old boy had been having trouble at the hands of a small school-fellow. One day on his return from school, he remarked to his mother: "Johnny isn't nasty to me any more. Every time I see him, I hit him to keep him kind."

CHRISTMAS STORY

(Part 1)

"And it came to pass in those days....."

Cesar Augustus had issued an order that all the world be taxed. The order required all those in his world to report to a determined place to be taxed. Thus it was that a man named Joseph left Galilee and journeyed out of the city of Nazareth into Judea and to Bethlehem to pay his tax.

"To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child...."

"And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

"And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn."

And so was the beginning.....the Christmas Story.

For 1968 years, men of good faith everywhere pause to mark this day...this very special day.

"And there were in the same country shepherds, abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

"And, lo, the Angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

"And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

"For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ, the Lord."

Then the angel told the shepherds of a sign which would point out to them this wonderful event; that they would find the babe, wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. Then the angels were joined by "multitude of heavenly host praising God and saying.....Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."
