The marriage of Miss Martha Sharon Rennolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rufus Rennolds of Lawrenceville, to Kelly Johnson Wilson, III, U.S.C.G., son of the Reverend and Mrs. Kelly Johnson Wilson, Jr. of Washington, North Carolina, took place at 2:00 P.M. Saturday, November 30, in the Lawrenceville Methodist Church.

The Reverend Kelly J. Wilson, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist Church, Washington, North Carolina, performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by the Reverend Anderson D. Goodson, pastor of the Lawrenceville Methodist Church.

Miss Myrtle Williams of Lawrenceville was organist. The Reverend Henry M. Matthews, pastor of Shady Grove Methodist Church, Mechanicsville, sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The long tapered sleeves featured a matching lace ruffle. The gathered dome skirt flowed into a full cathedral length train. The bride's finger-tip veil of imported illusion fell from a cluster of lace and pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white rosebuds on a prayer book.

Miss Edris Anne Rennolds, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length skimmer gown of rouge velvet. The empire bodice had a scooped neckline and long tapered sleeves. The waistline was accented by a cord of matching velvet, forming a corded bow in back with streamers. Her matching headpiece was a velvet rose with silk illusion bouffant veil. She carried a cascade of red and pink rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Miss Frances Rebecca Wilson, sister of the groom, of Washington, North Carolina and Mrs. Dianne Todd of Cape Neck-dick, Maine. Their gowns and headpieces were identical to that of the honor attendant, and they carried cascades of pink roses.

James Lough Wilson, brother of the groom, from Washington, North Carolina, served as best man.

Ushers were John Robert Wilson, brother of the groom from Washington, North Carolina and William F. Ferguson, Jr. of Richmond, and David Lough of Waynesboro, Va.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rennolds chose a romance pink dress with matching accessories and wore a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a dawn blue dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Rennolds of Charlottesville, Virginia, wore a lavender dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

THE SUBJECT WAS ROSES

The film entitled "The Subject Was Roses" has received wide acclaim — not for its unusual story — but the comeback of the leading actress.

After a long illness, Patricia Neal made a slow but apparently complete recovery from massive strokes and that alone will make her many fans see the film. Miss Neal always had talent and the emotional impact of her return to films will be evident.

The story concerns Miss Neal, her screen husband, Jack Albertson and their son, Martin Sheen. Her husband is the life of the party everywhere but at home — there he seems to be complaining even when silent. The son, recently honorably discharged from the army, is used by both of them as a weapon against the other. As the film progresses, the story becomes more involved around this middle income family who live in an apartment in the Bronx.

About Your Home

Silver grows more beautiful through use if given the proper care.

Coming in contact with certain things will cause silver to tarnish. Keep silver away from matches, eggs, rubber and gas fumes.

Wash silver as soon as possible after use with mild soap suds then rinse in clear water. Dry immediately. Silver left standing too long after a meal often collects hard-to-remove stains.

A polishing cloth helps keep silver bright. An occasional cleaning with silver polish is necessary to keep silver new looking. Buy a reliable polish and follow directions on the container.

A brush is helpful when removing polish from elaborately designed silver.

If silver is rotated, all pieces will look alike. Stored in antitarnish rolls or cabinets and kept away from things which discolor it, there will be little trouble with tarnish.

Temperature changes affect silver. If possible, keep it in a room with an even temperature.

Not every time a man speaks in a loud voice does he say something worth hearing.
