Christmas Tree Bears Mission Gifts

Youngville - A ten-foot Christmas tree in the sanctuary of the Youngville Baptist Church was decorated Sunday morning with red and green stockings bearing gifts of money for the annual Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions. A portion of the morning worship service was set aside for the ceremony with Rev. L. Jervais Phillips noting the need for this offering which is given at Christmas throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

The local promotion was sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society under the leadership of Stewardship Chairman Mrs. J. E. Hart with the assistance of WMS President Mrs. T. E. Lindsey and other members who cooperated in making the decorative stockings which were distributed prior to Sunday to every church and Sunday School member.

At the evening worship service a Christmas program was presented by the young people. The service included a Welcome and announcements by Nancy Lindsey; Special music by the young people: "The Old Testament Prophecy" by Harriet Pearce; "Preparations" by Connie Woodlief and Glenn Evans; "Birth of the Savior" by Brenda Sanders, Rodney Roberts and Ricky Reddick. Pianist was Rhonda Strickland.

On Sunday evening, December twenty-second, the annual Church Christmas program and party will be held at seven-thirty.

Mrs. Bland Writes Message For "The Upper Room"

Mrs. Rena Cheek Bland of Wake Forest, North Carolina is the author of a meditation accepted for publication by The Upper Room, worldwide interdenominational devotional guide, according to an announcement by Dr. Wilson O. Weldon, editor of The Upper Room in Nashville, Tennessee.

The daily devotion guide with a circulation of three and one quarter million is printed in 38 languages with 45 editions. It is distributed in more than one hundred countries over the world, and its readership is estimated in excess of ten million persons per issue.

"Each day's reading," said

Dr. Weldon, "includes a Bible reference, a Bible text, a meditation, a prayer and a Thought for the Day. Because of the wide readership and popularity of The Upper Room, it is considered a high honor to have a meditation selected for publication in this devotional guide."

It is estimated that some 70,000 churches provide copies of The Upper Room to their members as a part of their ministry.

Many thousands of copies of each issue are distributed by chaplains serving with the military forces, chaplains in veterans hospitals, and by chaplains serving in other hospitals, and penal institutions.

For the visually handicapped The Upper Room is available in both Braille, grade two, and in a Talking Book edition.

Around the world today, Wednesday, January 8 in the January February issue of The Upper Room, many persons will be reached and blessed by the meditation written by Mrs. Bland, who teaches in Louisburg High School, Louisburg.

Harris Chapel Cantata

Members of the Harris Chapel Adult Choir will present a Christmas Story Cantata, "Wonderful", with text and music by Haldor Lille-mas, on Sunday night, December 2, at 7 P.M. Mrs. Walter McDonald and Mrs. Russell Frazier will be soloists for the group with the pastor, Rev. Hoyt Lock, as Narrator. At the conclusion of the program the Lottie Moon Christmas offering will be taken.

Never underestimate your own ability; other people will do it for you.
