

Youngsville Woman's Club Has Christmas Party

Youngsville - The Woman's Club Christmas Party was held at the community house Monday night with entertainment planned by Mrs. D. H. Cyrus, Jr., Mrs. Clarence Conyers, Mrs. W. T. Holden, Mrs. W. O. Roberts and Mrs. B. F. Woodlief.

After several lively games and contests, Santa Claus arrived to the tune of Jingle Bells as played at the piano by Mrs. W. T. Holden. Santa distributed Christmas gifts and wished all a Merry Christmas before departing. Christmas Carols were sung by all members joining together for old favorites.

Green satin ornaments adorned the silver Christmas tree which was placed on a table covered with green satin draped with swags of holly.

On the serving table was a white net cloth underlined with tiny sparkling baubles. A silver candelabrum held red tapers and epergnette filled with holiday greens and red berries. Other areas of the building were decorated with holly garlands and red tapers. Featured over the mantle was a jeweled felt tree outlined with gold braid. On the presidents table was a holly tree complimented with a pair of cardinals. Hostesses for the evening were chairman Mrs. Ray Pearce and Mesdames W. C. Timberlake, Claude Edwards, L. A. Woodlief, James Smith and W. G. Scarborough. Refreshments included red punch, fancy sandwiches, holiday cookies, Christmas tree mints and peanuts. Candy cane lapel corsages were given to each member.

Club President Mrs. Ben Hudson presided at the business meeting which was preceded with a seasonal devotion by Mrs. W. F. Mitchell. Reports were made on food baskets and gifts for shut-ins to be delivered. The president stated that thirty-five pounds of Christmas candy was sent by club members for service men in the hospital at Christmas. This project was done through the Red Cross.

Mrs. L. A. Woodlief announced that judging of the Home Decoration Contest sponsored by the club would be done Monday night, the twenty-third, between six-thirty and eight o'clock. Prizes will be given for first, second, third places and for one honorable mention. Winners will be promptly notified.

Pam Gilliam, "Miss Homecoming 1969"

PAMELA GILLIAM

Miss Pamela Jan Gilliam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gilliam of Route 1, Louisburg was crowned "Miss Homecoming 1969" of Youngsville High School Tuesday evening during the halftime period of the boys basketball game between Youngsville High and Vance County Schools.

The new queen was crowned by Miss Darline Cooke, 1968 Homecoming Queen. Miss Gilliam was escorted by Donnie O'Neal and Miss Cooke by Ronnie Johnson.

The Maid of Honor, Miss Patsy Alford was recognized by the 1968 Queen. She was escorted by Glenn Murray. Other members of Miss Gilliam's court were Miss Linda Cash, escorted by Otha Hill; Miss Deborah Rogers, escorted by Charles Jones; Miss Elaine Holmes, escorted by Jimmy Johnson; Miss Marsha Woodard, escorted by Mike Hall; Miss Vickie Rogers, escorted by Worth Keith; Miss Darnell Holmes, escorted by Beryl Keith; Miss Carol Mitchell, escorted by Tony Wheeler; and Miss Phyllis Rogers, escorted by Darrell Cooke. The queen's attendants were Misses Louise Davis and Marsha Joyner.

Each of the young ladies wore a white mum corsage. The queen was presented a bouquet of white mums during the ceremony.

Phil Hart, vice-president of the Student Council, acted as master of ceremonies. The event was sponsored by the Youngsville High School Student Council.

Hospital Is Decorated For Christmas

Franklin Memorial Hospital is aglow with Christmas lights this year, announces Mrs. T. O. Wheless, Garden Club Chairman. From the red tree formed in lights on top of the building to a tiny red feather tree on second floor, Christmas has been brought to the hundreds of patients, visitors and staff there.

Responsible for this is the Louisburg Garden Club and the Hospital Guild. At a workshop meeting early in December, the Garden Club made wreaths for the front door and the nurses home, and other committees have decorated reception rooms, using fresh and artificial materials.

Small lighted trees have been placed in the halls where space is limited, and larger trees on first floor and in the new south wing.

Table arrangements in the staff dining room and a Madonna arrangement at the main desk add to the feeling of Christmas.

Franklin Memorial Hospital Guild provided funds for the decorations.
