Joyner, Early Speak Vows

MRS. MAURICE C. JOYNER, JR.

Miss Dana Elizabeth Early and Mr. Maurice Clifton Joyner, Jr. spoke their wed-ding vows Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the First Christian Church in Winston Salem. Dr. Kermit Traylor, minister of the bride, officiated at the double ring cere-mony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Worth Early of 134 South Gordon Drive, Winston Salem, North Carolina. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Clifton Joyner of Louisburg.

Miss Marlene Boger of Mocksville and The School of Music, East Carolina Uni-versity, presented a program of organ music representing each of the major historical musi-cal style periods. Miss Vir-ginia Linn of Greenville, Voice Instructor in The School of Music, East Caro-lina University, sang Schu-ber's Ave Maria, My Heart Ever Faithful by Bach, and Du Ring An Meinem Finger by Schumann.

Altar flowers were one large arrangement of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and fern, flanked by seven branch candelabra and cathedral can-dles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin peau-de-soir with French lace yoke, sleeves, and Chapel train. She wore a matching pillbox with fingertip veil of silk illusion and carried a bouquet of white poinsettias and varie-gated holly.

Miss Ellen Angel of Win-ston Salem was maid of honor. She wore a gown of heavy mint green linen with pleated back and dark green velvet trim. Her headpiece was of matching green velvet and she carried a bouquet of white poinsettias and varie-gated holly. Bridesmaids were Miss Karen Miller, cousin of the bride from Greenville, and Miss Winnie Edwards of High Point. They wore iden-tical dark green velvet gowns cut along princess lines and featuring full length sleeves. Each carried a red poinsettia and variegated holly.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a burnt orange knit dress, mink hat, and black patent accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a blue knit three piece suit with satin trim and a match-ing blue and silver brocade hat. Her accessories were blue patent and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. Harrell Julian Lewis, Kingsport, Tennessee, cousin of the groom, served as best man due to the illness of the groom's father. Groomsmen were William T. Dement, Jr.

and Paul W. Stewart, Jr., Louisburg, William H. Har-well, Chocowinity, and Ron-nie Jones, Winston Salem.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church annex.

The bride and groom are both members of the Junior class in the School of Music, East Carolina University. Both are employed part time at Conway-Dickerman Music Productions, Recording Stud-ios in Chocowinity, and at Christ Episcopal Church in New Bern.

After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will make their home at 108 North Jar-vis Street, Greenville, North Carolina.

Rehearsal Dinner

Preceding the Early-Joyner wedding rehearsal, the groom's parents entertained at an informal dinner at Steve's Restaurant. Present in addition to the bridal couple were the bride's par-ents, Mrs. James William Moore, Ann Arbor, Michigan, sister of the bride, Mr. Daniel Worth Early, Jr., brother of the bride, and members of the wedding party.

Dinner Party

On December 22, Mr. and Mrs. John W. King and Miss Mary Clifton King honored the prospective bride and groom at a dinner at their home on North Main Street. The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Joyner, Rev. and Mrs. Frank E. Pulley, Mrs. Harrell J. Lewis, Paul W. Stewart, Jr., Miss Emma Ruth Bartholomew, Miss Jane El-lott McKinne, William T. Bartholomew, William T. Dement, Jr., Miss Margaret Elizabeth Webb, Johnny Hayes, and Miss Rosalind Pearson.

The bride was presented with a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.
