Ball, Roberson Are Scholarship Nominees

Greensboro Alumnae committees appointed for every county in North Carolina are this month interviewing the 249 nominees for the Katharine Smith Reynolds Scholarships at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Serving on the Committee for Franklin County are Mesdames M. M. Person, Jr., Thomas A. Bland, Joe R. Whitaker and L. C. Hasty.

Nominees from the county, each an outstanding member of her high school graduating class, are Carol Annette Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ball of Franklinton and Deborah Ann Roberson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Roberson of Route 3, Louisburg, N. C.

Twelve scholarships are awarded to each freshman class. The awards, covering board, room, tuition, fees, books and miscellaneous expenses, are valued at $1,400 and are renewable for four years of study.

The selection of Reynolds finalists was delegated to the Alumni Association of UNC-G by the Reynolds Foundation when the program was initiated in 1962. District committees were appointed to serve this function.

The Reynolds Scholarships were established by the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation in memory of Mrs. Katharine

Smith Reynolds, a Woman's College (now UNC-G) alumna, wife of the founder of Reynolds Tobacco Company, and mother of the late R. J. Reynolds, Jr.

The Foundation recently made a grant of $67,200 to support the awards during the 1968-70 academic year at UNC-G.

Investment Course Offered

Mr. Tom Walters, account executive with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., in Raleigh, will teach a basic course in investment education at Louisburg College. The ten-week instruction period will begin Wednesday, January 22, 1969, at 7:30 p.m. Classes will be held once each week, 2 hours in duration in the auditorium of the C. W. Robbins Library.

The course is intended for those laymen who are interested in the field of investments to the extent that they wish to obtain a basic working knowledge of stocks and securities.

Those persons interested in registering for the investment course should contact David Daniel at Louisburg College.

Receives Quarter Century Certificate

Mrs. Annie Pleasants is pictured above receiving Burlington Industries' Quarter Century Club certificate, awarded for twenty-five years of continuous service with the company. Also awarded is a Diamond-Studded Golf service pin.

Plant superintendent Lamar Greene (L) and Department manager Graham Cash (R) expressed sincere appreciation for the faithful work and loyal service exhibited by Mrs. Pleasants and the other Plant Quarter Century Club members.

Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Lloyd and the entire staff at Franklin Memorial Hospital, also the friends who remembered me with their visits, flowers, cards and prayers while I was a patient in the hospital.

Ben Wester

Thanks

My deep appreciation to Dr. Perry and Dr. Medders for the care given to my husband while a patient at Franklin Memorial Hospital, also to the nurses and aides.

To my many friends, neighbors and relatives for the prayers, cards, and flowers and many other gestures to me on the death of my husband J. H. Ball.

Mrs. J. H. Ball
