BACKACHE & TENSION
 SECONDARY TO KIDNEY IRRITATION
 Common Kidney or Bladder irritations make many men and women feel tense and nervous from frequent, burning or itching urination night and day. Secondly, you may lose sleep and have headache. Backache and feel older, tired, depressed, in such cases, CYSTEX usually brings relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in acid urine and quickly easing pain. Get CYSTEX at drugists.

Notice
 Louisburg Lodge 413 AF & AM will install the officers for 1969 Tuesday evening, January 14th, at 8 p.m. A stated communication will be held at 7:30. All friends are cordially invited to attend the installation.

Thanks
 The family of Bunnie Ford Pearce would like to express their thanks to Dr. T. O. Wheeler, nurses and orderlies of Louisburg Hospital for what was done for him during his long illness. We would like to thank our friends and neighbors for all the food, flowers and other deeds of kindness shown us during his illness and death.

Be as anxious to help others as you are to accept favors.

Leah's WSCS Meets
 The Leah's Church WSCS will meet Friday, January 10, at 7:30 P.M. in the home of Mrs. Percy Joyner.

Hold Spiritual Retreat

DR. T.L. NEELY REV. JACK WILDER

A Spiritual Retreat for Christian Witnesses will be held at the Louisburg Baptist Church on Monday, January 13 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The Retreat is sponsored by the Division of Evangelism of the Baptist State Convention of N. C. in cooperation with the Tar River Baptist Association.

Dr. Julian Hopkins, Director of the Division of Evangelism, Baptist State Convention, will preside over the meeting and Dr. T. L. Neely and the Rev. Jack Wilder will be the featured speakers. Dr. Neely, a former missionary to Colombia, South America, immediate past president of the Baptist State Convention of South Carolina and currently president of North Greenville Junior College, Greenville, S. C., will be the retreat's Bible teacher. Mr. Wilder, pastor of Greensboro's Florida Street Baptist Church and a former pastor in Franklin County, will speak of methods that he has found to be effective in personal evangelism. Ministers and interested laymen are invited to this meeting. Lunch

An honest man, after reviewing his own life, will be inclined to let youth chart its own course.

Hog Production Discussions Slated Here

A series of important discussions on hog production will be conducted in the Agricultural Building in Louisburg, N. C., January 14th at 1:30 P.M., according to L. D. Baldwin and John R. Shillinglaw, Agricultural Extension Agents.

Mr. Clyde Weathers, Extension Farm Management Specialist, N. C. State University, Dr. J. R. Jones and Mr. J. R. Woodard, both Extension Swine Specialist of North Carolina State University will lead discussions on The Economic of Hog Production, Feeding the Brood Sow and Improving the Herd Through Breeding.

We urge all producers and potential producers of hogs to hear these discussions.

MY LONELY HEART

The days grow short and the nights are chill
 And my longing turns to a love, now still,
 That has gone on before to wait for me
 In that glorious mansion beyond the sea.

Yes, My Darling, I'm sure you are waiting there,
 With many loved ones, and never a care.
 The God Father of all the Universe
 Chose you first, His glory to share,
 While I struggle on to do His will,
 And so many times long to be there.

Yes, when days are short and nights are chill,
 And my lonely heart longs for a love now still,
 I will go to the Father of us all,
 And ask for courage lest I fail,
 I will ask for Hope and a Faith so great,
 I will have Peace and Contentment while I wait
 For the Master's call to take me home,
 To greet Him on the Glory Throne.
 And you, My Darling, will be waiting there,
 Where His Glory, together, forever we'll share.

—William Wieser

In memory of our beloved mother, who died on December 18th, 1968, we publish the above poem.
