Jehovah's Witnesses To Meet In Tarboro

About 45 delegates from North Unit congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Franklin County and Zebulon will attend the three-day circuit convention in Tarboro the weekend of January 24-26 according to a statement made here today by Cephas Dunston, local presiding minister.
The meeting will be held at the W. A. Pattillo High School in Tarboro, where an estimated 300 delegates from 16 congregations are expected.
Sessions will begin Friday, January 24 at 6:45 p.m. and continue through Sunday, January 26 until 6:00 p.m.
The convention's theme: "Make Wise Use of The Remaining Time" is centered around the apostle Paul's counsel to Christians as recorded at 1 Corinthians 7:29 NW... "Moreover, this I say, brothers the time left is reduced."

The program will include talks, demonstrations and roundtable discussions showing how christians can be instrumental in helping fellow christians to stay in the faith and endure until the end.
The circuit's progress over the past six months will be reviewed; and Saturday's program will include baptismal arrangements for new witnesses.
The featured event of this Tarboro seminar, sponsored by the Watchtower Society, will be a public talk Sunday, January 26 at 3:00 p.m. by J. A. Thompson, Jr., district supervisor. The subject of the address will be: "Law and Order - When and How?"
The public is invited to attend all sessions. Dunston said.
