4-H County Council Meets

The Franklin County 4-H County Council held its first meeting of the year in the auditorium of the Agriculture building Thursday night, January 30, 1969.

The meeting was called to order by Hersey Carroll, Vice President. He also led the group in the pledges to the American and 4-H flags. This was followed by devotion led by Myra Harris and a song led by Kelline Hall. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Frances Driver, County Secretary and approved by the group.

During the business session, Myra Harris was elected County Reporter. The program committee was approved. Those serving are Byron Harris, Mary Jo Denton, Bryant Foster, Jacquelyn Driver. The group agreed that Bryant Foster should represent our county as a candidate for a District Officer. Mr. Parke Brown, Asst. County Agent discussed the Community service project. Mrs. Polly O'Neal, Assoc. Home Economics Agent reminded the 4-Hers to begin work on their long-time record books, demonstrations, and Dress Revue garments. She also explained about the T.V. Action Science Club. Mrs. Margaret Baldwin, Home Economics Agent gave information concerning the County talent program.

Mr. Luther Baldwin, Farm Agent, introduced the speaker, Dr. R. C. Whitfield. Dr. Whitfield's topic was "Helping Others to See." He illustrated his talk with slides. A discussion period followed.

The group was shown a plaque to be given to the club of the year after Achievement Day. Mr. Baldwin explained how a club could win this award.

The meeting adjourned with the 4-H Motto.
