

Winston-Evans Wed In Florida

Fifth Avenue United Methodist Church in Wilmington was the setting Sunday, February 23, for the marriage of Miss Louise Camille Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lloyd Evans, Sr., of Wilmington, to Francis Clifton Winston, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clifton Winston, Sr., of Youngsville.

The Reverend George W. Ports, Jr. officiated. He was assisted by the Reverend Glenn D. Greenway of Elizabeth City.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of re-embroidered alencon lace and silk satin in an empire A-line fashion. The lace bodice with pearl and crystal embroidery was designed with a stand away cuffed neckline and long sleeves. Soft gathers in the attached wateau chapel train formed back fullness, accented by miniature satin bows caught with seed pearls. Her chapel length mantilla, edged and appliqued with alencon lace, was attached to an open crown pill box of satin. The bride carried a Bible decorated with an orchid and streamers.

Mrs. Larry T. Martin of Spring Lake, N. C., was matron of honor. She wore an empire A-line gown of rouge red velvet fashioned with a scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves cuffed in ivory venise lace. She carried a cascade of pale pink carnations tied with a red velvet bow. The bridesmaids were Mrs. David M. Kinlaw, sister of the groom, of Valparaiso, Florida; Mrs. William A. Bullard of Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. Benny Rogerson of Garner, N. C.; and Miss Sarah Powell of Wilmington, N. C. Miss Sarah Morrow, cousin of the bride, of Rutherfordton, S. C., was the junior bridesmaid. The bridesmaids were dressed like the honor attendant.

The child attendants were Miss Michelle Kinlaw, niece of the groom; and Master

MRS. FRANCIS CLIFTON WINSTON, JR.

Michael Kinlaw, nephew of the groom; both of Valparaiso, Florida.

Mr. Winston was his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. Thomas L. Evans, Jr., brother of the bride; Mr. David M. Kinlaw of Valparaiso, Fla.; Mr. William A. Bullard, of Raleigh, N. C.; and Mr. Thomas E. Parrish of Havelock, N. C. Master Matthew Wilson of Woodleaf, N. C., cousin of the bride, served as junior usher.

The bride's mother wore a pale green brocade dress with matching jacket and accessories. The groom's mother wore a green dress and coat with matching accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Evans, Sr. The couple left from the reception on their wedding trip. For travel the bride wore a pink dress with matching coat and hat and black accessories. After their wedding trip the couple will make their home in Raleigh.

Greensboro Bride-elect Honored

Misses Adelaide, Elizabeth and Beth Johnson entertained at a luncheon Saturday at their home on the Raleigh Road, honoring Miss Jean Coghill of Henderson and Greensboro.

Miss Coghill will be married Sunday, March 30, to Mr. William Carson Barbour, Jr. of Greensboro at Fuller Chapel United Church of Christ in Henderson.

Miss Coghill was presented a corsage prior to the luncheon.

Luncheon guests were the honoree, Miss Emma Allen and Miss Velma Allen of Ramseur, N. C. and Miss Pattie Lee Coghill of Henderson, aunt of the bride-elect.

The hostesses presented Miss Coghill with a gift of silver and the Misses Allen presented her a baking dish.

Mrs. Weston Entertains Bridge Club

(FRK. B.W.) Mrs. C. H. Weston entertained her bridge club on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Ollie Jenkins received high score prize for club while second high went to Mrs. Vance Estes.

Mrs. Ben Wilder was the recipient of guest high.

Assisted by Miss Edith Jackson, the hostess served a dessert course and coffee at the conclusion of the third progression.

A George Washington theme was carried out in the decorations.

Special guests were Mrs. Wilder, Mrs. J. D. Mode and Mrs. Gordon Patterson.

Fowler, Fuller Speak Vows

Trinity United Methodist Church was the scene Sunday at 4 p.m. of the wedding of Miss Marsha Ann Fuller and Mr. George Sterling Fowler. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Reverend William D. Clodfeiter.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton M. Fuller of Route 3, Louisburg and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Fowler, Jr. of Route 1, Henderson.

Mrs. A. H. Spencer, Sr. of Louisburg rendered a program of nuptial music at the organ. Mrs. Ronald Renn of Route 1, Henderson, soloist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer."

A pair of floor baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons, chrysanthemums and poms were used in the sanctuary. In the foreground were seven branched brass candelabra holding lighted white cathedral candles while in the background were standards of California emerald ferns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length dress of satin, designed on the empire A-line silhouette, featuring a lowered round neckline and long sleeves ending in a point with Alencon lace appliques centered with seed pearls and scattered on the dress. The alencon lace appliques were repeated on the detachable train. The dress was designed and made by the bride's great aunt, Mrs. Ruth Fuller. Her headpiece was a flower petal with a fingertip veil. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white fringed carnations, snowdrift pompons and lilies of the valley and centered with a white orchid corsage.

Miss Paula Fuller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale pink crepe gown with empire waist, long sleeves and center front bow. Her headpiece was a matching bow and she carried a long stem pink Briarcliff rose with greenery tied with a pink satin bow and streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Freddie Taylor and Miss Donna Stanley, cousin of the bride. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Patsy Curran and Miss Kathy Stanley. Little Miss Jane Stanley, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. The bridesmaids gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor, only they were in American Beauty red and that of the flower girl in pink. Their headpieces were matching bows. They carried a long stem pink Briarcliff rose with greenery tied with a pink satin bow and streamers. The flower girl carried a lace-covered basket filled with rose petals. It was tied with a bow and streamers on one side.

The bride's mother chose for the wedding an A-line pink dress with long sleeves trimmed in matching lace and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of deep pink Frenched carnations.

The groom's mother wore a yellow linen sheath with jacket and matching accessories. She chose a corsage of white Frenched carnations.

Mr. Fowler was his son's best man. Ushers were Michael Fowler of Henderson, brother of the groom, Layton Weaver, and Roger Smith of Goldsboro and James H. Burton, III of Warrenton, both classmates of the groom. Master Mark Curran of Henderson, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Epsom High School, a 1967 graduate of Louisburg College with a 1 year business certificate. She was a member of Phi Beta Lambda, the business fraternity. She is employed as typist at Rose's Stores, Inc., Henderson.

The groom is a 1962 graduate of Henderson High School, a 1966 graduate of Louisburg College and a 1968 graduate of University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is employed by Vance County.

For traveling, the bride changed to a Navy A-line dress trimmed in white with matching coat and navy accessories. She wore the orchid lifted from her corsage.

MRS. GEORGE STERLING FOWLER

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside at 229 Chestnut Street, Henderson.

RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Fuller, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception in the Trinity Education Building.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen tablecloth and had a three-tiered cake topped with wedding bells on one end and a crystal punch bowl on the other. Centered was an arrangement of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. R. M. Fuller, Jr. directed the guests to the receiving line.

Miss Twyla Southerland of Route 1, Henderson, cousin of the groom, served punch while Mrs. Sidney Driver of Route 3, Louisburg, aunt of

Woman's Club Addresses Easter Letters

(FRK. B.W.) On Wednesday evening, beginning at seven o'clock, the members of the Public Affairs Department of the Franklinton Woman's Club addressed Easter Seal letters and stuffed letters in Dr. R. C. Whitfield's office.

Mrs. Helen B. Jones, executive secretary of the Pine Valley Chapter of the Easter Seal Society, assisted as well as Mrs. David Secor, county chairman of the Easter Seal Drive a couple of years ago.

Department members working on the project were Mrs. Bill Miller, chairman, Mrs. R. B. Gordon, Mrs. R. W. Moore, Mrs. Bill Sigmon, Mrs. John Henry House and Mrs. Richard Whitfield.

The public is urged to purchase the seals as the money is used to help the crippled children and adults.

Thanks

Would like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to Dr. Fox and Dr. Fox, Jr. and the nurses at Mary Elizabeth Hospital in Raleigh, for being so kind and helpful, during the time my wife was in the hospital. Also wish to thank our friends, neighbors, and relatives for every deed of kindness.

Frank S. Puckett

Epsom Club Meets With Mrs. Dickie

The Epsom Arts and Crafts Club held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. D. T. Dickie.

Various ideas for jute webbing tote bags were discussed. There were 24 present for the meeting. Mrs. Dickie, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Clifton Long, served punch and cup cakes and open face sandwiches for refreshments.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Aycock.

Franklinton

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Whitfield have returned home after attending the Southeastern Educational Congress of Optometry at the Regency Hyatt House in Atlanta, Georgia.

Louisburg

Thomas W. Frazier, Sr. of Route 1, Louisburg is a patient at Duke Hospital.

Mrs. James M. McAllister of Oakland, N. J. and baby daughter, Sophia Clifton McAllister, arrived Tuesday, February 18, to spend a time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Wall of Louisburg. She was joined Friday by Mr. McAllister to attend the wedding of a brother, William T. Pike, to Miss Cathy Lancaster of Vanceboro, N. C.

Take Bad With Good

Wife (heatedly) - You're crazy, you're worthless, you're bad tempered, you're shiftless, you're a thorough liar.

Husband (reasonably) - Well, my dear, no man is perfect.

Patricia Gay Weds Saturday In Raleigh

Miss Patricia Ann Gay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Gay, Jr. of Route 3, Zebulon, became the bride of Alfred Wilmer Jordan, son of Mrs. Raleigh Stanley Jordan, and the late Mr. Jordan of Weldon, Saturday, February 22, 1969, at four o'clock in Saint Joseph's Catholic Church in Raleigh.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Cranor F. Graves, pastor of the bride, before a background of palms and burning tapered candelabras with arrangements of roses and red and white carnations. A program of music was presented by Miss Josie Cozart of Raleigh, organist, and the Reverend Bruce Pate of Knightdale, soloist, who sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight duette satin with a sculptured neckline of chantilly lace and scattered seed pearls. The gown was fashioned with an empire waistline and long lace sleeves tapering to calla points on the wrists. A panel of chantilly lace extended down the center of the A-line skirt. The detachable chapel train was of unadorned duette satin. Her headpiece was a mantilla of candlelight illusion edged with chantilly lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Nadine Marie Gay, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of red velvet trimmed with red satin. The gown featured a long satin panel at the center back extending from a mandarin collar of unadorned red satin. She carried a nosegay of peppermint carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Anita C. Gay, sister of the bride, Mrs. Charles W. Daniel of Raleigh, and Miss Catherine M. Vollmer of Norfolk, Virginia. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and carried nosegays of peppermint carnations.

Miss Donna Clements of Raleigh was flower girl. She wore a formal gown identical to that of the maid of honor and carried a basket of peppermint carnations with red and white streamers. Master Johnny Clements of Raleigh was ring bearer.

Henry C. Harris of Weldon was Mr. Jordan's best man.

Ushers were Milton E. Jordan of NCSU, Raleigh, brother of the groom, B. K. Gay, Jr. of Raleigh, cousin of the bride, Frank Barham of Hampton, Virginia, and Earl Inge of Roanoke Rapids.

The bride's mother wore an aqua dress of alencon lace with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a pink knit dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride graduated from Bunn High School and is presently employed with the United States Department of Agriculture, Farmers Home Administration in Raleigh.

The groom graduated from Weldon High School and received degrees of Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering from North Carolina State University. He is presently employed with ESB, Inc. in Raleigh. After a wedding trip to an unannounced destination, the couple will reside at 3012 Arrowwood Drive in Raleigh. For going away the bride chose a beige knit dress with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained in the church meeting room. The bride, groom, their parents, and members of the wedding party received.

The table was covered with a handmade white cutwork tablecloth. An arrangement of roses and peppermint carnations with scattered burning candles centered the table, with a sterling silver punch bowl on one end of the table and a three-tiered white wedding cake at the other end. Pink butter mints and mixed nuts were also served. Mrs. Marvin L. Jordan of Richmond, Virginia, sister-in-law of the groom, Miss Peggy Naron and Mrs. Richard F. Clements, both of Raleigh, served the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Gay presided over the guest register and said the good-byes. Mrs. B. K. Gay, Jr. directed.

Student Actors Win Top Awards

Sandi Versteeg and Charles Latta won the maximum possible number of first-place awards in the Carolina Dramatic Association's District Drama Festival at Campbell College Saturday.

Both students at Louisburg High School, Sandi and Charles represented the Louisburg Players with a play for two actors. The award for "Distinguished Achievement in Play Production" was accepted by the stage manager, Larry Loyd. Sandi and Charles each accepted Awards in Acting to the accompaniment of standing ovations.

Louisburg College Sophomore Jim Davis directed a play which received an "Excellent" rating; Sophomore Greg Williams directed a play which received a "Distinguished" rating.

All three award-winning plays are currently in production at the Louisburg College theatre.

Costly Mistake

The man who played poker Saturday nights, but faithfully attended church each Sunday, inadvertently dropped a poker chip in the collection plate. Hastening to the vestry after service, he found Bill counting the money, and said, "I guess I put some sort of button in the plate by mistake. See if you can find it, please." Bill poked around until he found the chip.

"Oh, thanks. I'm glad to get it back. It's a sort of a keepsake, so here's 50 cents instead."

"No, you don't," said Bill. "That's a blue chip and it'll cost you $5!"

MRS. ALFRED WILMER JORDAN

Lemon Tree Inn

111 W. Franklin St. Behind P. Office

Wed. Night - All You Can Eat
Italian Spaghetti - Tossed Salad 1.35

Bar B Que Pork - Cole Slaw 1.25
Thurs. Old Fashioned Fish Fry 1.35 up

- Entertainment Every Night -
Saturday - from the Country Club circuit

THE RUSS OLSON COMBO

One of The Most Charming Inns Anywhere
Br. Bag and ABC Lic.

Leggett

Semi-Annual Heiress Hosiery Sale

NINE DAYS ONLY
February 27-March 8

88c

BOX OF 3 FOR 2.34

SUPPORT HOSE

1.88
USUALLY 2.99

2.88
USUALLY 3.99

PANTY HOSE

1.68
USUALLY 1.99

CASH-CHARGE OR LAY-A-WAY
LEGGETT'S IS OPEN ALL DAY WEDNESDAY
STORE HOURS: 9:30 TO 5:30 DAILY.