SIDNEY JOHNSON BILLY JOHNSON

T. Sidney Johnson, left, manager of Leggett's Dept. Store at Franklinton is shown presenting the Belk Scholarship to his son, William Lawrence (Billy) Johnson. Billy had previously been accepted at the Air Force Academy and had received a scholarship from Wake Forest University. The youth, however, plans to accept a scholarship from the University of North Carolina plus the Belk Scholarship and plans to attend Carolina this fall. The Belk Foundation Scholarship is valued at $800 which may be renewed for four years.

County Farm Women Organize In Meeting

The Farm Women of Franklin County met at the Courthouse in Louisburg, Friday night sponsored by the Franklin County Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Gladys Collie, Chairman of the Women's Committee for Franklin County, gave a warm welcome to everyone.

The purpose of the meeting was to organize farm women to take a more active part in improving the standard of living for farm families and increasing farm income by involving themselves in projects such as promotion of farm products and encouraging more men to take a broader interest in the Farm Bureau.

John H. Ihrie, III, President of the Franklin County Farm Bureau, presided over the meeting and introduced Mrs. Howard Massey of Wake County as the first speaker.

Mrs. Massey, a member of the State Advisory Committee, reported on the Women's Committee in Wake County. They have been active for fifteen years in Farm Bureau work in Wake County. They work closely with the men and have several projects such as Egg Promotion, which boosted egg sales tremendously. They also promote "Pennies for Friendship" which is now in full swing, health projects, Civil Defense, and youth projects.

Mrs. Gray Faulkner of Vance County, also a member of the State Advisory Committee, was the next speaker. She said that the women of Vance County are doing the same things that Mrs. Massey reported on for Wake County. They were organized in 1964 and are very proud that their Farm Bureau Scrap Book won first prize that year and second prize the next year. They also acted as hostesses to a touring group of Farm Bureau members from West Virginia. Mrs. Faulkner praised the helpfulness of the women of Vance County when called on to assist in the needs of Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Irby Walker, Secretary-Treasurer of the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation, made a most inspiring talk. She congratulated President Ihrie on being elected to the State Board of Directors. She said that the main function of Farm Bureau is, and has always been, its legislative programs. Women can be most helpful in furthering this program. They can also help in explaining Farm Bureau and in good Public Relations. Mrs. Walker offered her services to the women of the County to help them to achieve these goals.

W. B. (Bill) Upchurch, District Fieldman for Farm Bureau, stated briefly that women have their special projects and have been a wonderful help and a great inspiration to the men in Farm Bureau work. He also reported on the progress being made by Farm Bureau in the area of Marketing Associations.

L. C. Hasty, Agency Manager for Franklin County, reported on the service programs. He explained the insurance program and other services offered to members. Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, County Secretary, presented the Scrap Book the county will be keeping this year for the first time. Pictures were taken of the speakers for the Scrap Book and door prizes were given to Mrs. Alton Foster, Mrs. Gray Faulkner and Mrs. Dorothy Daniels. These were two subscriptions to The Franklin Times and a transistor Radio from Raynor's of Louisburg.

After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served to the group by Mrs. Collie.

Makes Tornadoes

Norman, Okla. -- Neil Ward, a veteran researcher on storms at the National Severe Storm Laboratory at the University of Oklahoma, manufactures tiny tornadoes. He hopes to help understand and perhaps one day control the turbulence in the "tornado alley" of Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas.

Disillusioned

Two modern little girls coming home from Sunday school were solemnly discussing the lesson.

"Do you believe there is a devil?" asked one. "No," replied the other promptly, "of course not. It's just like Santa Claus. He's your father."

Stamp To Honor Ike

Abilene, Kans. -- Postmaster General Winton M. Flount announced recently that a commemorative postage stamp bearing the likeness of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is scheduled to go on sale October 14 at his boyhood home and will have the face value for first-class letter mail.

Most parents take credit for the good points of their children and wonder where the perverse symptoms originate.

Tired of the tame and the ordinary? Slip into a swinging Cutlass S.

This one's got excitement, even standing still. Makes you glad it's also got an anti-theft steering column lock, too—to discourage the envious.

Turn on the key and you turn on a Rocket 350 V-8 to instant escape—with an action, a ride, and a certain class ordinary cars can't duplicate.

It's all part of the Olds extra value that goes far beyond its price.

About that price: It's lower than many "low-price" models on the road today.

Here's how you slip into something exciting without tripping on the price tag.

1969 Oldsmobile Spring Fashion Show of Elsie Cutlass' design for women—and Youngmobile. Thinking on wheels for men—at your Olds dealer's new.
