

Bass, Stallings Speak Vows

Cypress Chapel Baptist Church was the setting for the double-ring ceremony uniting Martha Ann Stallings and Thomas Michael Bass in marriage Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. James Woods officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cleveland Stallings of Route 2, Spring Hope. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dagma Bass of Route 2, Nashville.

Rev. Guy Moore sang "I Love You Truly", "O Perfect Love", and "The Wedding Prayer." He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Moore who played wedding music softly throughout the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown, created by her mother, which was of bridal lace over satin with a stand-up collar. The "empire look" was formed by a front satin panel with a self belt extending to the back and attached with a satin bow with floor length streamers. The bodice was closed at the back with tiny satin buttons and extended from the waist into a full train with an inverted pleat at the center. The long tapered sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her bouffant veil of English silk illusion was attached to a cluster of organza bows which held a demi-cap of pearl leaves with lace inserts topped with a bejeweled lace rose centered with pearl and borealis crystal stems. She wore gold earrings which had belonged to her great grandmother for whom she was named.

Miss Judy Jones of Jarrat, Va. was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jo Anne Bass, sister of groom, and Mrs. Wanda Stallings, bride's sister-in-law. Flower girl was Darla Stallings, niece of the bride. The bridesmaids and flower girl wore floor length dresses of mint green "A" line designs with short sleeves and a slightly lowered round neckline. The front section was designed with three rows of matching satin ribbon and small bows at the neckline. The inverted pleat at the back was also trimmed with ribbon and attached with a bow at the top. They wore matching headpieces and carried a single pink rose. The bride's mother wore a pink crepe dress with a rose corsage and matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a pink linen dress with a rose corsage and matching accessories.

Mr. Bass was his son's best man and James W. Stallings, Jr., nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Ushers were Donald Bass, brother of the groom, and William I. Stallings, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Hulda Wilson directed the wedding. The bride graduated from Edward Best High School and attended Louisburg College. She is secretary at N. C. State Personnel, Raleigh.

The groom is a graduate of Spring Hope High School and of N. C. State Highway Patrol School. He is presently a North Carolina State Highway Patrolman, stationed in Durham. The couple will reside at 1100 1/2 Virginia Avenue, Durham.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church annex.

Mrs. Connie Moss presided at the bride's book. Miss Margaret Strickland served punch at a table covered with a white cutwork linen centered with an arrangement of roses and flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra. From a second similar table Mrs. Art Stallings served cake from her five-tiered wedding cake. Mesdames Howard Wilson, Horace Pearce, Helen Anderson, Carl Strickland, and Theron Strickland, aunts of the bride, assisted in serving.

Rehearsal Party

A rehearsal party was given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bass, parents of the groom, at their home in Pleasant Grove Community.

Surviving are a son, Timothy Cooke; a daughter, Cindy Cooke, both of Rt. 2, Wake Forest; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Mann Cooke of Rt. 1, Louisburg.

One of the tragedies about a college education is that many graduates will not know what to do for a livelihood after commencement.

Bride-elect Entertained At Luncheon

Miss Jenny McGhee and Mrs. H. A. McGhee entertained at a luncheon in honor of Marjorie Johnson, bride-elect, Saturday, May 24, at the McGhee Home.

The dining room table was covered with an Irish linen and lace cloth which was graced with a centerpiece of pink and white rose buds.

The hostesses presented to Miss Johnson a piece of china in her chosen pattern.

Guests were Miss Johnson, Mrs. Jennings Johnson, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Ethan Morton, mother of the bridegroom-elect, Mrs. Leroy Terrell, Jr., sister of the bride-elect and Miss Harriet Hight.

Youngsville Seniors Entertained

Youngsville -- The Youngsville High School Senior Class was entertained with a party Friday night with hosts and hostesses being the two class mascots, Charlie Corpeyng and Nancy Faulkner; the mascots' parents; and Mrs. N. A. Brown.

Tables were set up for groups and music was provided for entertainment. School colors of blue and white were used in decorating. The serving table was covered with a white net cloth underlined with blue, caught up at corners with a red rose. A red rose arrangement was the focal center of interest, as this is the class flower.

Graduate caps in blue and white were given as favors to class members and members of the High School faculty in attendance for the party.

Refreshments included sandwiches, potato chips, punch and white cake squares decorated with red rose buds.

Haley, Johnson Wed Sunday

(Frk. B.W.) Miss Milly Marjorie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings J. Johnson, of Franklinton became the bride of Robert Daniel Haley, son of Mrs. Ethan Morton and Robert B. Haley of Franklinton Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the Franklinton Baptist Church.

The vows were heard by Rev. Donald E. Harris and Rev. Horace Jackson. Jessie W. Smith, Jr., vocalist, and Mrs. Bruce Honeycutt, organist, furnished the music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of organza and chantilly lace. The sweetheart shaped neckline of chantilly lace had a deep insert at the waist. Long sleeves were tapered to the fingertips. Three layers of organza over net formed a full bouffant skirt that was paneled by two tiers of chantilly lace which formed a scalloped pattern at the hemline. A detachable court train fell from the shoulders into two panels of the organza and lace. Her triple tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to a half hat of silk flowers edged with seed pearls, and topped with an organza bow.

Mrs. Leroy Terrell served her sister as matron of honor. She wore a gown of aqua, with a matching veiled headpiece and carried a nosegay.

Bridesmaids were Miss Harriet Hight and Miss Jenny Sue McGhee of Franklinton. They wore dresses like the honor attendant, and each carried a nosegay of daisies and ragged robins.

Best man for the bridegroom was his cousin, Rayford Bobbitt of Franklinton. Ushers were Marshall Haley, Cliff Williams and Leroy Terrell, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride's mother wore an aqua linen dress with matching accessories and the groom's mother wore a pink linen dress with matching accessories, and corsages of white feathered carnations.

For traveling, the bride changed into an aqua and white double-knit dress with matching accessories. She lifted the daisies from her bridal bouquet. After a trip to the coast the couple will reside in Raleigh.

MRS. ROBERT DANIEL HALEY

CAKE CUTTING

Following the rehearsal Saturday evening, the bride's mother entertained at a cake cutting at her home on Fishel Street.

The bride's table was covered with white lace over green, centered with an arrangement of yellow daisies, flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Jennings Johnson and Mrs. Ethan Morton was at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Leroy Terrell, Jr. entertained the bridesmaids and out-of-town guests at a wedding breakfast at the home of her mother, prior to the ceremony.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Franklinton High School and is now employed at Wake Finishing Plant. The bride is a graduate of Franklinton High School and attended Louisburg College. She is a bookkeeper at Ronson's in North Hills.
