100th Year-Number 32

Receives Dental Hygiene Honors

Miss Bettie Kay Rayborn of Zebulon has received the fourth annual Dental Hygiene

BETTIE RAYBORN

Gold Sand Graduation

Mr. Walter McDonald, chairman of the Department of Religion and Philosophy at Louisburg College, gave the Commencement address, Tuesday night at Gold Sand High School.

Mr. McDonald in his speech used the poem FOUR THINGS by Henry Van Dyke. He emphasized that any well rounded, worthwhile person must think without confusion, love his fellowmen sincerely, act from honest motives and trust in God and heaven securely. His message was a challenge for his listeners to dedicate themselves to the things that men must do to save themselves and our civilization.

The Valedictorian award was presented to Betty Bowers and the Salutatorian award was presented to Paula Gupton.

Late

"Walter, I ordered an egg sandwich and you brought me a chicken sandwich."
"Sorry, sir, I was a little late calling for your order."

Alumnae Award as an outstanding dental hygiene graduate from the University of North Carolina Dental School.

Bettie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hagwood Rayborn of Zebulon and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Peoples of Louisville.

The award, presented by Mrs. Katharine D. Neal at the Annual Spurgeon Dental Society Awards Banquet, is given to the graduate who, in the opinion of the faculty, possesses those outstanding personal characteristics and positive attitudes which reflect the finest ideals of the university and the dental hygiene profession.

Miss Rayborn was also elected to Sigma Phi Alpha Dental Hygiene Honor Society. This honor was presented by Miss Eleanor Forbes at the Sixteenth Annual Convocation June 2 to the graduate who had shown excellent scholastic achievement and the greatest potential for future professional growth.

A graduate of the fifteenth

Couldn't

"That young lady isn't very amusing, is she?"
"No, she couldn't even entertain a thought."

class of dental hygienists at the UNC School of Dentistry. Bettie plans to continue her education at UNC next year. She has served as President of her class each year and as president of the Junior American Dental Hygiene Association. She has participated actively on the Orientation Executive Council, Nurses' Dorm Executive Council, Women's Residence Council, Student Legislature, and Morrison Residence College Senate. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Perfect Attendance

Deborah Anne Rogers, a 1969 graduate of Youngsville High School, went twelve consecutive years with a perfect attendance record.

Deborah is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers of Route 1, Youngsville.

She plans to further her education at Wilmington College, Wilmington, North Carolina.

Youngsville Graduation

Youngsville -- Rev. Otis Bolter delivered the Baccalaureate Sermon for the Youngsville seniors Sunday morning, June first. The service was held in the school auditorium with guests in attendance from community churches in the area which cancelled regular morning eleven o'clock services at their respective churches to worship jointly at the school.

Special music included "For All The Blessings of the Year" sung by Darnell Holmes and Mike Hall; and "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" sung by the girls' chorus.

Pianist for this service and other commencement exercises was Miss Rhonda Strickland.

Graduation Exercises were held Tuesday evening, June third, with three members of the Senior Class presenting the Commencement Address.

Rev. Hoyt Locke, pastor of Harris Chapel Baptist Church, gave the invocation and benediction. Miss Linda Self sang "My Task". Class President Otha Hill introduced speakers.

Students speakers were Linda Cash, Rommie Catlett and Jo Ann Frazier.

The Valedictorian award was presented to Jo Ann Frazier. The Salutatorian award was presented to Linda Cash.

Rommie Catlett and Linda Cash were recipients of the two "I Dare You" awards. These two awards, which are books, are given to an outstanding boy and girl in the graduating class.

Platform guests recognized by Principal D. L. Godwin were Mr. Stephen Wiggins, Mr. E. J. Pearce, Mr. Howard White, Mr. Gary Carter, and Mr. Bailey who are members of the School Advisory Committee.

Marshals for the occasion were Chief, Rodney Roberts; Asst. Chief, Mark Woodlief; and Morris Catlett, Phil Wiggins, Glenn Evans, and Harriett Pearce.

Mascots were Nancy Delane Faulkner and Charles Albert Corpening.
