If children had the wisdom of old people, then old people would have the innocence of children, which wouldn't be so good.

Let's hope that the youngsters will be careful in their swimming this summer and in the conservation of their lives.

Little League Roundup

By Jackie Kimball

In Rotary Little League play Monday night, Cooper Insurance downed First Citizens by a score of 16 to 14. Grubber Morton was the winning pitcher in a game that stretched into the 7th inning. Losing pitcher was Crayton Collins.

Gene Smith led the Cooper Insurance team at bat with 3 for 4, while Walter House paced First Citizens with 3 for 3 at the plate. Ray Terrell, catcher for First Citizens, also contributed a home run.

Thomas Beam was catcher for Cooper.

Pearces and Butner met for the first time Monday night in Rotary Junior League play with Pearces defeating Butner 9 to 3. The winning pitcher was Mitch Brannon.

Ricky Lewis was Pearces' leading hitter with 3 for 4. Harrison was the losing pitcher and Hudgins led Butner at the plate with 2 for 3. Catchers were Russ Brannon for Pearces and Evers for Butner. Pearces had 9 runs, 7 hits and 2 errors. Butner had 3 runs and 4 hits and 4 errors.

Tuesday night was full of surprises in Rotary Little League play. In the first game of a doubleheader, Waccamaw barely slipped by a determined Sportsweat team by a score of 6 to 5. Sportsweat who all season has been unable to come near being a scoring threat, suddenly found itself.

Glenn Smith, who was credited with the win, was relieved in the last inning by Jimmy Burnette on the mound. Although Smith was out at third in the sixth inning, he was credited with the hit that brought in the Waccamaw team's last two runs.

Leading hitter for Waccamaw was Alston who was 1 for 2, a triple. Andy Sledge, the losing pitcher, was relieved late in the game by Cecil Moore. Each team gave up only 5 hits. Leading hitters for Sportsweat were Mark Evans and Kevin Hawkins each with 2 for 4. Catchers were Johnny Smith for Waccamaw and Cecil Moore and Keith Shearon for Sportsweat.

The real upset of the evening came in the second game when last place Cooper Insurance smashed the first place Pilot team 16 to 1. Winning pitcher Drubber Morton pitched a magnificent game striking out 6 batters in a row. He also came through at the plate with 2 for 3, both triples with the bases loaded.

Wright was Pilot's starting pitcher and was assisted by W. Perry, G. Alford, and Strickland. Leading hitter for Pilot was G. Alford who also made their only run. Cooper's had 5 hits and Pilot 3. Catchers were Thomas Beam for Cooper and W. Perry for Pilot.
