Guests At Worship Service

Youngville -- Dr. and Mrs. Charles Tabor will be guests at the morning worship service at the Youngville Baptist Church Sunday, June twenty-second. Medical Missionaries to Korea, Dr. and Mrs. Tabor are on furlough for the summer months with headquarters in Winston-Salem. They are visiting at summer camps and churches in the area.

Well known in Youngville where they resided for several years, Dr. Tabor practiced medicine here, assisted by his wife who is a nurse. As former residents and members of the Baptist church, they will be welcomed Sunday. A picnic style fellowship dinner will be held in the educational building after the worship service.

Youngsville

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Grisom and daughter, Debbie, and Margie Cash are vacationing this week at Carolina Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown and family went to Atlantic Beach for the weekend and visited with relatives.

Elon College basketball coach Winston Wiggins is instructing currently at basketball schools in the area, and his family is here visiting with her parents and other relatives.

Rhonda Strickland has returned home after attending Choral Classes at UNC-Chapel Hill during the past week. Piano teacher Miss Jean Pearce was there as a Counselor.

Janet and Harriett Pearce have returned after attending basketball school at Greensboro College last week.

Mrs. Larry Lindsey and children, Andi and Shea, returned home Sunday afternoon after a visit with relatives in Johnson City, Tennessee.

Summer Program

Youngville -- The Summer Fellowship Program for teenagers of the Baptist church will begin this week with a swimming party and cookout to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al DePorter.

Other recreational events are being planned to continue throughout the summer months.

Blount & Mail

Postmaster General Winston M. Blount has warned that there would be a national breakdown in mail delivery unless Congress acts on President Nixon's suggestion that the present system be replaced with a corporate-type operation.

NEW 'DOUBLES TEAM' of one-time Wimbledon champions Jack Kramer and Sidney Wood examines new indoor tennis surface featuring embossed Korosen. Light weight and roll-out-ability have been emphasized to make surface especially attractive for use in high school and college gyms.

Kindness Paid

Birmingham, England -- For 20 years, Thelma Norman, a waitress, served lunch to Colin Gilbert, a bachelor stockbroker. After his death, Mrs. Norman was informed that she had been left a $2,400 tip for her "zealous attendance upon me at lunch for many years."

Miniskirts & Accidents

Charleston, W. Va. -- While backing out of a parking space, a 60-year-old man's eye was attracted to a girl in a miniskirt. The result was that he forgot to stop backing and smashed into the side of a police car. There were no charges but it cost the man $90.

Teachers Attend Seminar

On June 12-13, Mrs. Marjorie Leonard, Louisville High School, Mrs. Ileen Mode, Franklinton High School, and Mrs. Lila T. Pearce, Bunn High School, attended the Ecology of Nutrition Seminar at the School of Home Economics at UNC-Greensboro. This Seminar was co-sponsored by the Florida Citrus Commission. The program featured outstanding speakers such as Senator Robert Dale, Dr. Faye Grant, Jean Mayes, Richard Barns, Mary Egan and Michael Latham. Each speaker dealt with a phase of the problem of nutrition and its relation to the health of the entire population of the United States.

In Service

CLARENCE N. RICHARDS

USS Kitty Hawk (FHTNC) -- Seaman Apprentice Clarence N. Richards, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Richards, Jr. of Route 1, Youngville, N. C., is serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Kitty Hawk off the coast of Vietnam.

This is the fourth combat deployment for the carrier. Earlier this year it became the first carrier to receive the Presidential Unit Citation during the Vietnam war.

Enrollment was fifty-five and average daily attendance was forty-nine.

Students Honored At N. C. State

Raleigh -- North Carolina State University has honored eight Franklin County students, including a married woman, for achieving academic excellence during the spring semester.

Chancellor John T. Caldwell announced that the eight Franklin honor students were among a record-setting list of 2,114 NCSU men and women who won Dean's List honors.

That total represented 19 percent of the 11,153 students enrolled at the Raleigh campus this spring.

In contrast, only 431 students were suspended for academic difficulties--a ratio of almost five honor students for each student who failed.

The Franklin students mastered such subjects as architecture, agriculture and engineering to win their honors.

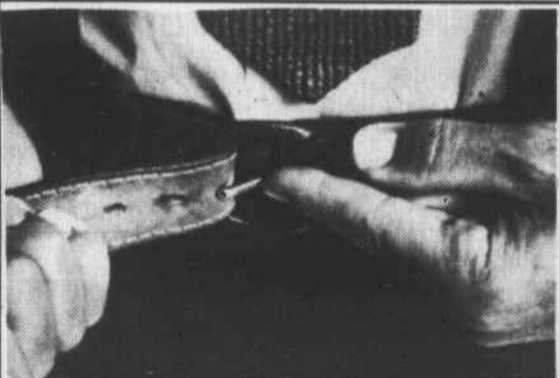

Following are the students, their studies, parents and addresses:

Louisburg--Randy G. Bowers, recreation and park administration, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bowers, Rt. 3; Matthew A. Brown, civil engineering, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, Rt. 3; Kenneth W. Burnette, architecture, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Burnette, Rt. 2; Dwight H. Perdue, recreation and park administration, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Perdue, Rt. 3; Bruce B. Richardson, mathematics education, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Richardson, Rt. 1; and Charles B. Vellmer, Ag Institute, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Vollmer, Rt. 4.

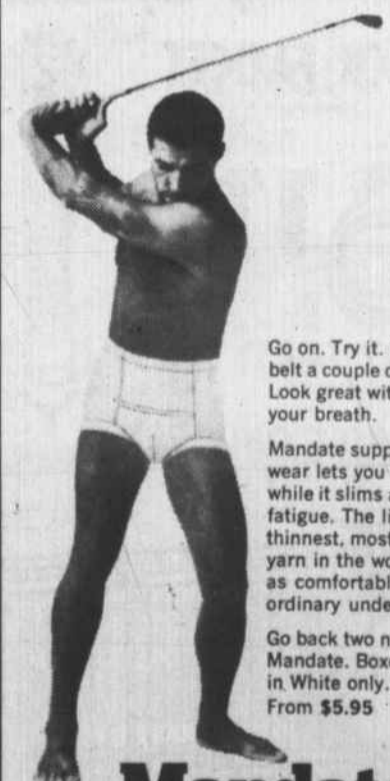

Others--Charles H. Faulkner, Ag Institute, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Faulkner, Rt. 2; Warrenton; and Judy T. Gay, English, Mrs. Margaret P. Taylor, Rt. 2, Zebulon.

Life is too short to be wasted trying to please or imitate other people.
