About Your Home

It's very important to know the time and method of cutting summer flowers, to get the full beauty of cut blooms.

Practically all flowers should be cut in early morning while wet with dew. At this time the petals and stems are filled with moisture—thus the flowers are at their maximum freshness.

The length of time flowers keep their freshness depends largely on keeping their water-absorbing capacity at its height. When this capacity declines, the flower wilts.

There are a number of tricks that will help in this respect. Cut flower stems tend to heal over and close the moisture tubes, so it's a good idea to shorten the stems a half inch every day.

This doesn't apply to flowers like poinsettias and oriental poppies, whose stems should be seared or boiled to keep in the juices. Strip the leaves from the part of the stem that is to be submerged for flowers like dahlias, zinnias, and marigolds. Crush the stems of chrysanthemums and break off the thorns on the lower part of rose stems to increase water absorption.

The life of cut flowers can also be prolonged by changing the water and washing the vase each day, thus keeping down the growth of bacteria.

Never crowd the stems into a vase when arranging your flowers, and don't place your bouquet near a heat outlet, or an oil or gas heater—since the fumes will put the flowers to sleep.

VAMP SUIT—Striped cotton knit shapes a slinky vamp suit that's completely covered in front and boldly cut away in back. By Label 4 Jrs., it has a coordinated pullover shirt.

Awarded Certificates

MRS. LYLES. MRS. PARROTT

Mrs. Margaret Lyles (L) and Mrs. Frances Parrott (R) are shown with their Burlington Industries' Quarter-Century Certificates, awarded for twenty-five years of continuous service with the company. Both ladies also received a diamond-studded service pin.

Plant Manager, Lamar Greene, and Plant Superintendent, Ronnie Johnson expressed sincere appreciation for the faithful work and loyal service exhibited by these two ladies and also to the other sixteen plant Quarter-Century members. Ten other service certificates were given during the plant ceremony which was held Friday, June 27, 1969.

Summer Party Cake

It's summertime, so keep your baking easy. This beautiful cake gets its glamour from a cloud of whipped topping and a generous measure of juicy fresh blueberries. It's made with Swans Down Lemon Flake Cake Mix with an added whiff of spice.

LEMON FLAKE BLUEBERRY CAKE

1 package lemon flake cake mix
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1 1/4 cups water

2 eggs
Cinnamon Whipped Cream*
2 cups fresh blueberries

*Or use 2 cups prepared whipped topping, flavored with cinnamon, if desired.

Prepare cake mix as directed on package, adding cinnamon with water and eggs before beating. Bake as directed for a 9-inch square pan. Cut cooled cake crosswise in half to form 2 layers. Spread 1 cup Cinnamon Whipped Cream over bottom layer and top with about 1 cup blueberries. Place second layer on top and swirl remaining cream over cake. Sprinkle with remaining blueberries. Cut in 3-inch squares. Makes 9 servings.

Cinnamon Whipped Cream. Combine 1 cup (1/2 pt.) heavy cream, 2 teaspoons sugar, a dash of cinnamon, and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla in a chilled bowl. Whip just until soft peaks will form. (Do not overbeat.) Makes 2 cups.

Attend N.E.A. Convention

Mrs. Mamie B. Clayton and Mrs. Marjorie G. Leonard are attending the National Education Convention, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, June 30-July 5th.

Mrs. Clayton is the President of the Franklin County Unit of the North Carolina Education Association and will attend the meetings as a delegate from Franklin County. Mrs. Leonard is President of the East Central District of the North Carolina Association and will attend the meetings as a State delegate.

Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Clayton will serve in the North Carolina booth Wednesday morning.

Attend Music Seminar

Mrs. Ann V. Scoggin accompanied by two of her students, Barbara Beam and Ellen Pernell, are attending a seminar for piano teachers and students at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill this week.

Dr. William S. Newman, nationally recognized pianist, author, and teacher, is the director. Emil Davenberg, renowned pianist-teacher at Oberlin Conservatory of Music; Marilyn Neely, international prize-winning recitalist at Ohio State University; Patricia and William Carter, popular two-piano team at the University of Tennessee, are the guest artists for the clinic.

This seminar is one of the country's most widely attended.

Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Wheelers, the nurses at the hospital, the orderlies, maids and the cooks in the kitchen for all they did for me while I was a patient; there, I would also like to thank everyone for the cards and flowers. Each act of kindness will long be remembered and may God bless each of you.
