

Gilleland, Thweatt Speak Vows

(FRK. B.W.) Miss Sandra Faye Thweatt became the bride of Thomas Braxton Gilleland on Saturday at six o'clock in the Franklinton Baptist Church. The Reverend Horace L. Jackson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Walls Thweatt of Franklinton. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Catherine Williams and the late Thomas R. Gilleland of Franklinton.

Nuptial music was rendered by Miss Cenieth Elmore, organist, of Franklinton and Mr. Howard Wilson, soloist, of Wake Forest. Mr. Wilson sang "At Dawning" and "Whither Thou Goest."

The vows were spoken in front of a background of emerald palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums and white gladioli with burning white tapers in candelabras.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of dulcette satin and reemebroidered Alencon lace. The empire bodice featured a sculptured neckline and long satin sleeves ending in points. Lace appliques adorned the gown at the empire line and tiny seed pearls were encrusted in the lace appliques. The bride's gown featured a cathedral satin train with lace appliques. The bride wore a bouffant veil of imported silk illusion attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature white carnations and stephanotis showered with white satin streamers.

Miss Donna Thweatt, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of Nile green karate. The skimmer bodice featured a square neckline and short lace sleeves. A sweep train flowing from a bow adorned the gown. She carried an arm bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums with matching ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Davis of Hillsborough, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Peggy Senter of Franklinton, cousin of the bride. They wore formal gowns of Nile green karate with a skimmer bodice, short lace sleeves and a sweep train of lace. They carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums with matching ribbons.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Senter of Franklinton and Miss Leigh Senter of Fayetteville, cousins of the bride. They wore formal gowns of Nile green karate similar to the bridesmaids. They carried one big yellow chrysanthemum with matching ribbon.

Ringbearer was Burt Senter, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thweatt wore a street length dress of pale blue lace with matching accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The groom's mother wore a street length dress of blue lace with beige accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

William Davis of Hillsborough, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Larry Medlin of Raleigh, brother-in-law of the groom, Bruce Senter of Fayetteville, uncle of the bride, David Timberlake of Youngsville and Billy Mitchell of Franklinton.

Presiding over the register in the vestibules of the church were Miss Donna Collins and Miss Judy Eury.

Immediately following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at the Franklinton Community House.

Mrs. Howard Wilson greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line composed of the bridal couple, their parents, and the honor attendants.

Mrs. Bruce Senter, aunt of the bride, served the cake after the bride and groom cut the first slice. Mrs. Hubert Senter, aunt of the bride, presided over the punch bowl. The serving table was covered with a white cloth upon which was an arrangement of summer flowers.

The Community House was decorated in a bridal motif. Candelabras and magnolia leaves adorned the mantle in the front room. Two large wedding bells extended from the archway. Ivy decorated the stairway.

Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points, after which they will make their home in Franklinton. The bride is a graduate of

Honored On Birthday

Youngsville - On her ninety-first birthday, Mrs. N. J. Hart, Sr. was honored with a birthday party Monday by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Green, Sr., and her granddaughter, Mrs. H. H. Reddick all of Youngsville. The party was held at the Colonial Guest House in Wake Forest. Guests included all patients in the rest home.

Patients able to be up went to the dining room where a birthday table was covered with a white cut-work cloth complimented with a predominately white arrangement of mums and carnations. A decorated birthday cake, frosted in pink and white, held lighted candles. Homemade ice cream was served with cake to guests at the table as well as those patients in their room who were unable to get out. It was obviously a festive occasion for all.
