ELEGANT NO-BAKE TARTS MAKE ENTERTAINING EASY

During the summer, indoor entertaining sometimes takes the spotlight from backyard barbecues. This usually calls for a more formal menu but the preparation needn't be more extravagant. The dessert, which often occurs as an afterthought in menu planning, can be elegant in appearance yet effortless to prepare with this no-bake recipe.

These Raspberry Cobbler Tarts fall in the realm of quick-and-easy desserts. With only a few ingredients and using packaged tart shells, you can have a very special dessert in a matter of minutes. Just add Junior Raspberry Cobbler and cottage cheese to dissolved raspberry gelatin and blend. Fill the tart shells and chill until you're ready to serve.

Next time you want a glamorous after-dinner treat, try

Raspberry Cobbler Tarts. Serve them with coffee and an assortment of thin mints, and get ready for a round of applause!

RASPBERRY COBBLER TARTS

- 1 package (3 ounce) raspberry flavored gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 container (1 pound) small curd cottage cheese
- 2 jars Gerber Junior Raspberry Cobbler
- 8 packaged tart shells

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add cheese and Raspberry Cobbler (reserving 1/2 cup Raspberry Cobbler for topping) and mix for 3 minutes at medium speed on electric mixer. Pour mixture into individual tart shells. Swirl Raspberry Cobbler on top of each tart and chill until firm.

Yield: 8 tarts

European Garden Slides Shown To Garden Club

Mesdames John Mills, James King and Marvin Pleasants were hostesses to The Louisburg Garden Club Thursday afternoon at the Pleasants home on Person Street.

Mrs. King greeted members and invited them into the dining room where a massive arrangement of white daisy pompons, grapes and glassy English ivy, centered the table in a crystal silver footed bowl.

In the hall a towering arrangement of peacock feathers and antiqued green grapes in a gold leaf urn was used.

On the piano, in the living room an arrangement of barberry and yellow marigolds followed an s curve design which was repeated in the cupid forming the base of the container. This was the arrangement for the month. All the designs were arranged by Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Pleasants.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Edward Griffin giving a collect from "Garden Prayers."

Mrs. John Mills, President, called the meeting to order and gave a cordial welcome to Mrs. Gladys Bailey and Mrs. Frank Seidel, guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Taylor, Flower Show Chairman, stated that the club would have a booth at the Franklin County Fair beginning September 29.

The President announced that a Flower Show Judges Symposium will be held in Raleigh, September 9 through 11 at the North Carolina State University and a Yard and Garden Clinic at the North Hills Mall on September 12. These two events will be of interest to club members and to the public.

The program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. H. C. Taylor. Slides of European Gardens and other places of interest were shown and narrated by Mrs. Taylor on her trip to Europe this past summer.

Following the program Mrs. Mills adjourned the meeting until October 2.

Youngsville Woman's Club To Meet

Youngsville - The first meeting of a new club year for the Youngsville Woman's Club will be held Monday night, September fifteenth, at the community building.

Weathers, Jr., are planning to present information on Statewide Programs of the Federation of Women's Clubs. It will be an informative evening for old clubmembers as well as several new ones.

Men who overtalk-about themselves-rarely succeed in fooling the public long.

Mrs. Shearon Entertains Bridge Club

(FRK. B.W.) Mrs. W. A. Shearon entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening. Her home was decorated with permanent arrangements.

Mrs. T. H. Pearce received high score prize while second high went to Mrs. H. A. McGhee.

Assisted by Miss Nelda Tomlinson and Mrs. McGhee, the hosts served strawberry short cake, nuts and coffee at the conclusion of the third progression.

Entertains Bridge Club

Youngsville - Mrs. Robert Neeb entertained her bridge club of Youngsville with a party at her home in Wake Forest Thursday night. Summer flowers decorated the home for the occasion. After the second progression of bridge the hostess served fresh peach shortcake with coffee. On tables as guests played bridge were cheese cube, chipsters, and corn chips. Iced Cokes were served later in the evening.

Mrs. B. G. Mitchell and Mrs. H. H. Reddick won high score prizes. Other guests in attendance were Mesdames L. A. Woodlief, Ben Hudson, A. N. Corpening, B. H. Patterson, R. E. Cheatham and Miss Susie Tharrington.

New Hope To Have Revival, Homecoming

New Hope United Church of Christ will hold its annual homecoming services Sunday, September 14. There will be special music and a picnic on the grounds.

Revival services will begin Monday evening, September 15, at 7:30 and continue through Friday, September 19. The speaker for the services will be the Reverend R. E. Brittle of Franklin, Virginia and pastor of the Hunterdale United Church of Christ. Everyone is invited to attend.

The pastor of New Hope Church is the Rev. Tracy D. Floyd, Jr.

Nearly everyone can have an idea, but putting it into motion is what makes the profits.
